USING YOUR PEEK-A WHO? BOARD BOOK

Reading Instructions

This board book features simple rhyming text and die-cut windows that reveal parts of an image on the next page. To engage the child:

1. Hold the Book Comfortably: Ensure both you and the child can see the pages clearly. The book's sturdy pages are designed for small hands.
2. Read Aloud: Read the "Peek-a" phrase on the left page with an engaging tone.
3. Encourage Guessing: Point to the die-cut window on the right page and ask the child, "Who?" or "What do you see?"
4. Reveal the Answer: Turn the page to reveal the full image and the rhyming answer (e.g., "MOO!" for a cow,

"BOO!" for a ghost). Emphasize the sound or action associated with the revealed image.

5. Observe and Respond: Pay attention to the child's reactions. Encourage them to make sounds or gestures.

Interactive Features

- Die-Cut Windows: These cutouts are central to the peek-a-boo experience, building anticipation for what's on the next page.
- Rhyming Text: The simple, repetitive rhymes aid in language development and memory.
- Surprise Ending: The final page features a mirror, allowing the child to see their own reflection and complete the "Peek-a YOU!" interaction.

Recommended Age

This board book is suitable for children aged 0-3 years, particularly infants and toddlers who are developing object permanence and enjoying interactive play.

CARE AND MAINTENANCE

To ensure the longevity of your "Peek-a Who?" board book:

- Handle with Care: While designed for durability, avoid excessive bending or tearing of pages.
- Keep Clean: Wipe the book with a dry or slightly damp cloth if it becomes soiled. Avoid harsh chemicals or excessive moisture.
- Store Properly: Keep the book away from direct sunlight, extreme temperatures, and moisture to prevent damage to the pages and binding.
