ABOUT FIAT

Fiat, an acronym for Fabbrica Italiana Automobili Torino, was founded in 1899 and is recognized as one of the world's leading automobile brands. Its vehicles are frequently celebrated as prime examples of Italian industrial design. The re-launched Fiat 500, a subject of this book, was notably named European Car of the Year in 2008. In June 2010, Fiat expanded its global presence by acquiring a stake in Chrysler, which facilitated the reintroduction of Fiat brands into the U.S. market.
