MAINTENANCE AND CARE

Proper care will extend the life and performance of your Farberware cookware.

- Cleaning: The stainless steel pots and lids are dishwasher safe for convenient cleanup. For the nonstick frying pans, handwashing is recommended to preserve the nonstick coating.
- Stubborn Food: For baked-on food, soak the cookware in hot, soapy water before cleaning. Avoid using abrasive cleaners or steel wool, which can scratch the surface.
- Storage: Store cookware carefully to prevent scratching. Placing a cloth or paper towel between stacked pieces can help protect their surfaces.

TROUBLESHOOTING

Here are some common issues and solutions for stainless steel cookware:

- Food Sticking: Ensure the pan is properly preheated before adding food. For stainless steel, a small amount of oil or butter is usually sufficient. Avoid overcrowding the pan.
- Discoloration: High heat can sometimes cause blue or rainbow discoloration on stainless steel. This is harmless and can often be removed by cleaning with a mixture of white vinegar and water.
- White Spots: These are usually mineral deposits from water or starchy foods. They can be removed by boiling a solution of water and white vinegar (1:1 ratio) in the pan, then washing as usual.
- Warping: Sudden temperature changes (e.g., placing a hot pan under cold water) can cause warping. Always allow cookware to cool before washing.
