TROUBLESHOOTING

Problem	Possible Cause	Solution
Pool loses air quickly.	Puncture or loose valve cap.	Check all valve caps for tightness. Locate the puncture (can use soapy water to find bubbles) and use the included repair patch. Ensure the area is clean and dry before applying the patch.
Pool does not hold shape.	Under-inflated sections or uneven ground.	Ensure all sections are adequately inflated. Relocate the pool to a completely flat and level surface.
Water becomes dirty quickly.	Debris from surroundings or infrequent water changes.	Change water frequently, especially after heavy use. Cover the pool when not in use to prevent debris from entering.

A repair patch is included with your pool for minor punctures. For larger damages, contact customer support.
