Pad is tearing or shredding.	Ensure the lock-down tabs are securely fastened on all sides of the pad. If your dog is chewing the pad, consider using a deterrent spray or increasing supervision during training.
Urine is spilling over the edges.	Verify that the training pad is correctly centered and fully secured by the tabs. Ensure the pad size is appropriate (53cm x 53cm or larger) for the holder. Replace the pad more frequently if it becomes oversaturated.
Dog is not using the pad holder.	Ensure the holder is placed in a quiet, accessible area. Use positive reinforcement and consistent training methods. You may try placing a small amount of your dog's urine on the pad to attract them.
