If I Can Dream: Elvis Presley with The Royal Philharmonic Orchestra - Product Manual

Official Guide for Your Audio CD

1. INTRODUCTION TO THE ALBUM

The album "If I Can Dream" is a 2015 release that revisits Elvis Presley's iconic work, focusing on his unmistakable voice. This project emphasizes the pure power of The King of Rock and Roll, augmented with lush new arrangements by The Royal Philharmonic Orchestra. Recorded at Abbey Road Studios in London with acclaimed producers Don Reedman and Nick Patrick, the 14-track album features Elvis's most dramatic original performances. The album also highlights Elvis Presley's diverse musical tastes and appreciation for great vocalists spanning a variety of genres from standards to opera.

2. PRODUCTION AND CREATIVE PROCESS

This album was meticulously crafted at the renowned Abbey Road Studios in London. Producers Don Reedman and Nick Patrick spearheaded the project, aiming to complement Elvis's original vocal performances with the grandeur of a full symphony orchestra. The vision was to create a sound that Elvis himself would have loved, embracing a big, orchestral feel that enhances his powerful voice.
