TROUBLESHOOTING

Mat Not Cooling:

- Ensure the mat has had at least 15 minutes of non-use to recharge its cooling properties.
- Verify that the mat is placed on a flat surface and not bunched up, which could affect gel distribution.

- Check for any punctures or damage to the mat's surface, as this could compromise the gel's effectiveness.

Pet Not Using the Mat:

- Introduce the mat gradually. Place it in a familiar and comfortable spot for your pet.
- Encourage use with treats or toys.
- Ensure the mat is not too cold for your pet's preference. While it self-cools, some pets may prefer a slightly warmer surface initially.
