Problem	Possible Cause	Solution
Capsule does not fit or compartment won't close.	Capsule is misaligned or incorrect type.	Ensure the capsule is correctly oriented and fully inserted. Verify it is a Nespresso-compatible capsule.
No coffee or very slow flow.	Water tank empty, machine not preheated, or capsule blockage.	Check water level. Allow machine to fully preheat. Eject and re-insert capsule, or try a new capsule. Descale machine if necessary.
Coffee tastes weak or watery.	Incorrect cup size selected, or machine needs descaling.	Ensure you are using the Lungo button for the intended volume. Descale your Nespresso machine regularly.
Machine leaks during brewing.	Capsule not properly sealed, or machine gasket wear.	Ensure the capsule is inserted correctly and the lever is fully closed. If leaks persist, consult your Nespresso machine's manual or service center.
