6. MAINTENANCE

To ensure the longevity and appearance of your acacia wood chair, regular maintenance is recommended:

- Cleaning: Clean the chair regularly with a soft cloth and mild soapy water. Avoid abrasive cleaners or harsh chemicals that can damage the wood finish.
- Wood Care: Acacia wood is naturally weather-resistant, but to maintain its rich color and protect it from drying out, it is advisable to treat it with a suitable wood oil periodically (e.g., once or twice a year, depending on exposure).

- Protection: During periods of non-use or harsh weather, store the chair indoors or cover it with a protective furniture cover to prevent damage from UV rays, rain, and frost.
- Hardware: Periodically check all screws and bolts and tighten them if necessary to ensure the chair remains stable.

7. TROUBLESHOOTING

If you encounter any issues with your Casaria Adirondack chair, consider the following:

- Wobbling: If the chair wobbles, check that all assembly screws are securely tightened and that the chair is placed on a level surface.
- Wood Discoloration/Drying: This is normal for natural wood exposed to elements. Apply a suitable wood oil to restore color and protect the wood.
- Difficulty Folding: Ensure no obstructions are present in the folding mechanism and that all joints are clean. A small amount of lubricant on hinges may help if movement is stiff.

For persistent issues not covered here, please contact customer support.
