OPERATING YOUR VULCAN DRAGON

Vulcan is equipped with motion-sensing technology and reacts to sound, motion, and touch. Experiment with different interactions to discover all his unique behaviors!

Basic Interactions

- Touch Reaction: Pet Vulcan's nose or tap the back of his head once or continuously for various reactions, including moving head, eyes, and mouth.

- Sound Effects: Vulcan can growl, screech, and roar.
- Chest Lights: Vulcan's chest lights up in different colors, indicating his current mood.

Special Modes

- Tamed Mode: Gently pet Vulcan's head or nose to calm him down. His eyes may glow green, and he might purr or make happy sounds.

- Flying Mode: Hold Vulcan upright and move him through the air (forward, up, down, or in a circular motion) to make him react with flapping wings and flying sound effects.

TROUBLESHOOTING

Issue	Solution
Vulcan is not responding or powering on.	Ensure batteries are correctly installed and not depleted. Replace with fresh batteries if necessary. Check that the power switch (located near the tail) is in the ON position.
Wings are detaching easily.	Refer to the "Wing Attachment" section in Setup. Ensure both pegs on each wing are fully inserted and clicked into their respective slots. Apply firm but gentle pressure.
Vulcan is not reacting to specific commands (e.g., clapping).	Ensure you are performing the actions clearly and directly in front of Vulcan's sensors (located on his head and chest). Try in a quieter environment.
