OPERATING INSTRUCTIONS

Smiski figures are made from a phosphorescent material that absorbs light and then emits it as a glow in the dark. No batteries or external power sources are required.

- Charging the Glow: Expose your Smiski figure to a light source (natural sunlight or artificial room light) for a period of time. The longer the exposure, the brighter and longer the glow will be.
- Activating the Glow: Once charged, place the Smiski figure in a dark or dimly lit environment to observe its glow.

MAINTENANCE

To ensure the longevity and appearance of your Smiski figures:

- Cleaning: Gently wipe the figures with a soft, dry cloth to remove dust. For stubborn dirt, a slightly damp cloth can be used, followed by immediate drying. Avoid harsh chemicals or abrasive cleaners.
- Storage: Store figures away from direct, prolonged sunlight when not in use to prevent potential material degradation over time.
- Handling: Handle figures with care to avoid damage. While durable, they are small collectible items.

TROUBLESHOOTING

If your Smiski figure is not glowing as expected:

- Insufficient Light Exposure: Ensure the figure has been exposed to a sufficient amount of light. Try placing it under a bright lamp for 10-15 minutes before moving it to a dark room.
- Ambient Light: Verify that the environment is completely dark. Even small amounts of ambient light can diminish the perceived glow.

- Material Properties: The glow intensity and duration can vary slightly between individual figures and with the amount of light absorbed.
