7. TROUBLESHOOTING

If you encounter any issues with your Preethi Taurus Plus Mixer Grinder, refer to the following table for common problems and solutions.

Problem	Possible Cause	Solution
Motor not starting	Power cord unplugged, jar not locked properly, overload protector tripped.	Check power connection, ensure jar is securely locked, press the overload protector button (usually located at the bottom of the motor unit) after allowing the motor to cool for a few minutes.
Burning smell during operation	New motor varnish evaporating (normal for first few uses), motor overload.	If new, this is normal and will subside. If not new, reduce load, add liquid if grinding dry ingredients, and allow motor to cool.
Excessive noise	Normal for high-wattage mixer grinders, improper jar seating, hard ingredients.	Ensure jar is seated correctly. High-wattage motors can be noisy, especially with tough ingredients. This is generally within operational limits.
Ineffective grinding	Insufficient liquid, overloaded jar, dull blades.	Add more liquid for wet grinding. Do not overload. If blades are dull after extended use, contact service for replacement.

If the problem persists after attempting these solutions, please contact customer support.
