1. Unboxing: Carefully remove the model from its packaging. Retain the original packaging for future storage or transport.

OPERATING (HANDLING)

As a static display model, there are no operational functions in the traditional sense. However, proper handling is crucial to maintain its condition:

- Handle with Care: Always pick up the model by its base or main body. Avoid touching delicate parts like mirrors, wings, or antennas.
- Avoid Dropping: Even a short fall can cause significant damage to the model.
- No Force: Do not attempt to force movable parts (if any) beyond their intended range of motion. This model is primarily static.

MAINTENANCE AND CARE

Regular maintenance will help preserve the appearance and integrity of your scale model:

- Dusting: Gently dust the model regularly using a soft, dry brush (like a soft artist's brush) or a microfiber cloth. For intricate areas, use compressed air (from a safe distance to avoid damaging decals).
- Cleaning: If necessary, lightly dampen a soft cloth with plain water (distilled water is preferred) and gently wipe surfaces. Avoid using harsh chemicals, abrasive cleaners, or solvents, as these can damage the paint and decals.
- Avoid Fingerprints: Oils from your skin can accumulate on the model's surface. Handle the model with clean hands or wear cotton gloves if possible.
- Storage: If storing the model, return it to its original packaging or a secure, padded container to prevent damage.

TROUBLESHOOTING

While scale models are generally robust when handled correctly, minor issues can occur:

- Loose Parts: If a small part becomes loose, it can often be reattached using a tiny amount of model-specific clear adhesive. Apply sparingly with a toothpick.
- Dust Accumulation: If dusting is insufficient, refer to the "Cleaning" section under Maintenance.
- Paint Damage: Significant paint chips or scratches are difficult to repair without specialized tools and paints. For serious damage, consider contacting a professional model restorer.
- Missing Parts: If the model arrived with missing parts, contact the retailer or manufacturer immediately upon receipt.
