Exploding Kittens EKG-ZOMB-6

Exploding Kittens Presents Zombie Kittens

Model: EKG-ZOMB-6
Brand: Exploding Kittens

1. Introduction

Welcome to the world of Zombie Kittens, a standalone card game from Exploding Kittens that introduces a thrilling twist to the classic gameplay. This game is designed for 2-5 players, ages 7 and up, and typically takes about 15 minutes per round. The core objective remains to avoid drawing an Exploding Kitten, but now, even after you explode, you can rise from the grave with Zombie Kitten cards to torment the living and claw your way back to victory. It's a game of strategy, suspense, and hilarious unexpected turns.

All 61 cards and the game box.

3. Setup

Follow these steps to prepare for your game ofZombie Kittens:

1. Remove Specific Cards: Take out all Exploding Kitten cards and all Zombie Kitten cards from the deck.
2. Deal Player Hands: Shuffle the remaining cards and deal 7 cards face down to each player.
3. Add Zombie Kittens to Hands: Each player then takes 1 Zombie Kitten card and adds it to their hand. Players should now have 8 cards total.
4. Insert Exploding Kittens: Take the Exploding Kitten cards you removed earlier. Insert one less Exploding Kitten card into the deck than the number of players. For example, if playing with 4 players, insert 3 Exploding Kitten cards. Shuffle the deck thoroughly after inserting.
5. Insert Remaining Zombie Kittens: Take any remaining Zombie Kitten cards (if playing with more than 1 player, there will be some left over) and shuffle them back into the deck.
6. Place Deck: Place the shuffled deck face down in the center of the playing area. This is the Draw Pile.

7. Discard Pile: Leave space next to the Draw Pile for a Discard Pile.

4. Gameplay

Players take turns in a clockwise direction. Each turn consists of two main actions:

4.1. Playing Cards (Optional)

You may play as many cards from your hand as you wish before drawing a card. You can also choose to play no cards at all. Discard played cards face up into the Discard Pile.

4.2. Drawing a Card

After playing cards (or not), you must end your turn by drawing one card from the top of the Draw Pile. If the card you draw is an Exploding Kitten, you explode!

4.3. Exploding and Resurrection

If you draw an Exploding Kitten, you are immediately out of the game unless you have aDefuse Card. However, in Zombie Kittens, being out of the game isn't necessarily the end. If you have aZombie Kitten card, you can use it to bring yourself back to life and continue playing. The Zombie Kitten card allows you to re-enter the game and even target other players for revenge.

4.4. Card Types and Actions

The game features various action cards to help you survive and outwit opponents:

- Nope: Stops any action except an Exploding Kitten or Defuse Card.
- Attack of the Dead: Ends your turn without drawing a card and forces the next player to take two turns.

- See the Future: Allows you to secretly view the top 3 cards of the Draw Pile.
- Shuffle: Shuffles the Draw Pile without looking at the cards.
- Dig Deeper: Allows you to look at the top card of the Draw Pile and decide whether to draw it or bury it at the bottom.
- Favor: Forces another player to give you one card from their hand.
- Skip: Ends your turn without drawing a card.
- Grave Robber: Allows you to steal a card from a dead player's hand.
- Vampire Cat: Steal a random card from another player.
- ElectriCat: Forces all other players to give you one card from their hand.
- Cat-O-Lantern: Allows you to look at the top 5 cards of the Draw Pile.
- Feed the Dead: Pick a dead player and bring them back to life.
- Clairvoyance: Look at the top 3 cards of the Draw Pile and rearrange them.
