1. Select a suitable location on your table or countertop where you intend to place a hot dish.
2. Place the trivet directly on the surface. Ensure it is stable and does not wobble.
3. Carefully place your hot pot, pan, or dish onto the center of the trivet.
4. For larger dishes, consider using two trivets placed side-by-side to ensure adequate support and heat distribution.

5. Always ensure the hot item is fully contained within the trivet's surface area to prevent direct contact with your table.

5. Maintenance and Care

Proper care will extend the life and maintain the appearance of your cast iron trivet.

- Cleaning: Hand wash only. Wipe clean with a damp cloth and mild soap if necessary. Avoid abrasive cleaners or scouring pads, which can damage the finish.
- Drying: Thoroughly dry the trivet immediately after washing to prevent rust.
- Storage: Store in a dry place when not in use.
- Avoid: Do not place in a dishwasher. Do not submerge in water for extended periods.

6. Troubleshooting

Common Issues and Solutions:

- Issue: Trivet appears to be rusting.
  Solution: Cast iron can rust if exposed to moisture for too long. Ensure the trivet is thoroughly dried immediately after cleaning and stored in a dry environment. Minor rust can often be removed with a stiff brush and then the area dried and lightly oiled.
- Issue: Surface damage (scratches, marks) on the table despite using the trivet.
  Solution: Ensure the trivet is placed flat and stable. Verify that the hot item is fully on the trivet and not directly touching the table. Check the trivet's underside for any sharp edges or debris that could cause scratches.
