Ringke Magnetic Plate Universal MagSafe Compatible Adhesive for Smartphone Cases - White

Brand: Ringke | Model: Magnetic Plate

Introduction

The Ringke Magnetic Plate is designed to upgrade your smartphone case to be compatible with MagSafe accessories. This adhesive plate provides an economical solution for utilizing MagSafe chargers, cardholders, and car mounts. Constructed with a durable, lightweight polycarbonate exterior and base frame, it adds only 0.25mm thickness. The plate integrates 38 powerful neodymium magnets to enhance magnetic connection, facilitating faster and more reliable MagSafe charging with a strong hold. It also features two alignment magnets to prevent accessories like cardholders from shifting. The magnetic ring attaches securely to the back of your phone or case using strong 3M adhesive. For optimal performance, it is recommended to apply the plate directly to your phone or a phone case with a smooth, flat back. Avoid placing it between the phone and case, and do not use it on cases with textured rear surfaces. The product includes an installation guide for precise placement, especially for phones without integrated MagSafe coils. Review the installation instructions carefully before application to ensure proper fit.
