Answered questions about this manual

I recently purchased the Portronics Harmonics Z5 and the instructions say to charge it for 3 hours before use. I have charged it for 3 hours and 15 minutes, but the light is still red. Does the LED color change when it is fully charged?

Based on the Portronics Harmonics Z5 documentation, the LED indicator is designed to show the charging status, though the manual does not explicitly state the specific color change for a 100% charge (such as...
