Setup and First Use

Before the first use, it is important to prepare your Luxebath Loofah to ensure hygiene and optimal performance.

1. Unpack: Carefully remove the loofah and travel case from its packaging.
2. Rinse Thoroughly: Rinse the loofah under warm running water for a few minutes to remove any manufacturing residues.
3. Initial Drying: Gently squeeze out excess water and hang the loofah in a well-ventilated area to air dry completely before its first use. This helps maintain its integrity and prevents mildew.

Operating Instructions

Follow these steps for an effective and refreshing cleansing experience with your Luxebath Loofah:

1. Wet the Loofah: Hold the loofah under running water until it is fully saturated and soft.
2. Apply Body Wash or Soap: Squeeze a small amount of your preferred body wash or rub a bar of soap directly onto the wet loofah.
3. Create Lather: Gently squeeze and rub the loofah to create a rich, foamy lather. The plush netting is designed to maximize foam production with minimal soap.
4. Exfoliate Your Skin: Gently rub the loofah on your skin in a circular motion. Start from your feet and work your way up towards your heart. Apply light to moderate pressure, adjusting based on your skin's sensitivity.
5. Rinse Off: After exfoliating, rinse your body thoroughly with water to remove all soap and dead skin cells.

Care and Maintenance

Proper care and maintenance will extend the life of your Luxebath Loofah and ensure hygienic use.

- Rinse After Each Use: Always rinse the loofah thoroughly under clean water after each use to remove all soap residue and dead skin cells.
- Hang to Dry: After rinsing, gently squeeze out excess water and hang the loofah in a well-ventilated area to air dry completely. Avoid leaving it in a damp shower environment, as this can promote bacterial growth.
- Regular Cleaning: Periodically, you can soak your loofah in a diluted bleach solution (1 part bleach to 9 parts water) for 5-10 minutes, or boil it for a few minutes, to sanitize it. Rinse thoroughly afterwards.
- Replacement: For optimal hygiene and exfoliation, it is recommended to replace your loofah every 2-3 weeks, or sooner if it shows signs of wear, discoloration, or develops an odor.
- Travel Case Care: The portable travel case can be wiped clean with a damp cloth and mild soap. Ensure it is dry before storing the loofah.

Troubleshooting

Problem	Possible Cause	Solution
Loofah feels stiff or scratchy.	Not fully wet; new loofah; not enough soap.	Ensure loofah is fully saturated with warm water before use. Apply more body wash and work into a rich lather. Continued use will soften the fibers.
Loofah develops an odor or discoloration.	Improper drying; bacterial growth.	Ensure loofah is thoroughly rinsed and hung to dry in a well-ventilated area after each use. Sanitize regularly (see Maintenance). Replace if odor persists.
Not producing enough lather.	Insufficient soap; loofah not wet enough; worn out.	Add more body wash or soap. Ensure loofah is fully wet. If the loofah is old and flattened, it may be time for a replacement.
