OPERATING INSTRUCTIONS

This learning watch is designed to be a tool for teaching children how to tell time. It does not function as a traditional time-keeping device but rather as an educational aid.

- Understanding the Face: Point out the hour numbers (1-12) and the minute markings (often in increments of 5, or individual minute marks).
- Hour Hand: Explain that the shorter hand points to the hour.
- Minute Hand: Explain that the longer hand points to the minutes.
- Interactive Learning: Use the watch to practice setting different times and asking the child to identify them. For example, "Can you show me 3 o'clock?" or "What time is it when the big hand is on the 6 and the small hand is between the 2 and 3?"
- Daily Practice: Incorporate time-telling practice into daily routines to reinforce learning.

MAINTENANCE

- Cleaning: To clean the watch, gently wipe it with a soft, damp cloth. Do not use harsh chemicals or abrasive cleaners.
- Storage: Store the watch in a clean, dry place away from direct sunlight and extreme temperatures when not in use.
- Inspection: Periodically check the strap and buckle for wear and tear. Replace the product if it becomes damaged to ensure continued safety.

TROUBLESHOOTING

As this is a non-electronic learning aid, technical troubleshooting is not applicable. However, if you encounter challenges in the learning process:

- Child Difficulty: If the child is struggling to understand time, try breaking down the concepts into smaller steps (e.g., focus on hours first, then half-hours, then minutes).
- Engagement: Make learning fun and interactive. Use games or real-life scenarios to make time-telling relevant.
- Product Damage: If the watch itself is physically damaged, discontinue use and consider replacing it.
