Operating Instructions

1. Using the Pot: The 1.58qt stainless steel pot is suitable for boiling water, cooking soups, stews, or other meals. The integrated handle locks into place for secure handling during cooking and folds for compact storage.
2. Vented Pot Lid: The pot lid features vents for steam release and can be used to drain liquids, such as pasta water, by aligning the vents with the pot's rim.

Maintenance and Care

- Cleaning: All components of the Stanley Adventure Camp Cook Set are dishwasher safe. For manual cleaning, use warm water and mild dish soap. Avoid abrasive cleaners or scouring pads that could scratch the stainless steel or plastic components.
- Drying: Ensure all parts are thoroughly dry before storing to prevent water spots or corrosion.
- Storage: Store the set in its nested configuration to save space and protect components. Ensure the pot handle is locked over the lid to keep everything secure.
- Material: The pot is made from BPA-free 18/8 stainless steel, designed for durability and resistance to rust.

Troubleshooting

- Food Sticking: Ensure adequate oil or cooking fat is used, and heat is properly regulated. Stainless steel can be prone to sticking if not heated correctly or if insufficient lubrication is used.
- Difficulty Nesting: Ensure all components are correctly oriented and fully collapsed (spatula and ladle handles) before attempting to nest them within the pot.
- Loose Pot Handle: Verify the pot handle is fully extended and locked into its cooking position. When storing, ensure it is folded over the lid and securely latched.
