7. TROUBLESHOOTING

If you encounter any issues while using the SANOOR Rosemary Mint Scalp & Hair Strengthening Oil, consider the following:

- No Visible Results: Consistent use is key. Ensure you are applying the oil 1-2 times a week as recommended. Hair growth and strengthening can take time, typically several weeks to months, to show noticeable improvements.
- Scalp Irritation/Sensitivity: If you experience redness, itching, or discomfort, discontinue use immediately. Perform a patch test before resuming. Ensure you are not allergic to any of the ingredients.
- Greasy Hair After Wash: Ensure you are thoroughly washing your hair with shampoo after the treatment. You may need to shampoo twice to remove all oil residue, especially if you leave it in overnight.
- Difficulty Applying: If the oil feels too thick, you can slightly warm the bottle in warm water or mix it with a lighter carrier oil for easier application.
