3. SETUP AND PAIRING

Follow these steps to set up and pair your remote control with your Samsung Smart TV:

1. Initial Charge: Before first use, ensure the remote has sufficient power. You can charge it via solar exposure or USB Type-C (see Section 5 for details).
2. Automatic Pairing: In most cases, the remote control will pair automatically with your Samsung Smart TV when first used.
3. Manual Pairing: If automatic pairing does not occur, point the remote control towards your TV. Press and hold the Back button (🏠) and the Play/Pause button (⏮️) simultaneously for 3 seconds or more.
4. Confirmation: A message indicating "Pairing has begun" or similar will appear on your TV screen once the pairing process starts. The indicator light above the power button will illuminate during this process.
5. Completion: Once paired, you can begin using your remote control.

4. OPERATING INSTRUCTIONS

4.1 Voice Function

After successful pairing, the remote's voice search function allows for hands-free control:

- Press and hold the Microphone icon button () on the remote control.
- Speak your command clearly into the remote. You can search for content, change channels, adjust volume, and more.

4.2 Shortcut Buttons

The remote features dedicated shortcut buttons for popular streaming services, providing one-touch access:

- Press the Netflix button to launch Netflix.
- Press the Disney+ button to launch Disney+.
- Press the Prime Video button to launch Prime Video.
- Press the Samsung TV Plus button to launch Samsung TV Plus.

5. CHARGING INSTRUCTIONS

Your remote control offers two convenient charging methods:

5.1 Solar Charging

- The remote features a solar charging panel on its back.
- To charge, simply place the remote control in a location exposed to sunlight or indoor light.
- Regular exposure to light helps maintain the battery charge and prolongs the remote's operational time.

5.2 USB Type-C Charging

- For faster charging or when light exposure is limited, you can use a USB Type-C cable (not included).
- Connect the USB Type-C cable to the port on the remote control and to a compatible USB power source.
- During USB charging, an LED light on the front of the remote will illuminate. This light will turn off once the battery is fully charged.

There are two ways to charge

1. Solar charging, just expose the solar panel on the back of the remote control to the sunlight to charge it

2, USB Type-C charging.

6. MAINTENANCE

To ensure the longevity and optimal performance of your remote control, follow these maintenance guidelines:

- Cleaning: Use a soft, dry cloth to clean the remote control. Avoid using abrasive cleaners or solvents, as these can damage the surface.
- Storage: When not in use, store the remote in a cool, dry place away from direct sunlight and extreme temperatures.
- Charging: Regularly expose the remote to light to utilize its solar charging capability, even if you primarily use USB-C charging. This helps maintain battery health.
- Protection: Avoid dropping the remote or exposing it to liquids.

7. TROUBLESHOOTING

If you encounter issues with your remote control, refer to the following troubleshooting tips:

- Remote Not Responding:

- Ensure the remote is charged. Try solar charging or connect a USB Type-C cable.
- Re-attempt the pairing process as described in Section 3.
- Ensure there are no obstructions between the remote and the TV.

- Voice Function Not Working:

- Confirm the remote is successfully paired with the TV.
- Ensure you are pressing and holding the microphone button while speaking.
- Check your TV's settings to ensure voice control is enabled.

- Charging Indicator Not Lighting Up (USB-C):

- Verify the USB Type-C cable is securely connected to both the remote and the power source.
- Try a different USB Type-C cable or power adapter.
- The LED light turns off when fully charged; if the remote is already full, the light will not illuminate.

If these steps do not resolve the issue, please contact customer support for further assistance.
