3. SETUP AND ASSEMBLY

The Gobricks 4600 Wheel Plate Special 2x2 with Wheel Holders are designed for integration into existing building block systems. No complex assembly is required for the plates themselves.

3.1 Attaching Wheels

1. Select a compatible wheel axle or wheel component.
2. Align the axle with the wheel holders on the 2x2 plate.
3. Gently press the wheel component into the holders until it is securely seated. Ensure the wheel rotates freely.

3.2 Integrating into Builds

These plates can be connected to other building blocks using their standard stud and tube connections. Position the wheel plates where mobility is desired in your construction.

4. OPERATING GUIDELINES

Once integrated into your model, the wheel plates function as a base for movable components. Ensure that the wheels are properly attached and can rotate without obstruction for optimal performance.

- Compatibility: These parts are designed for seamless compatibility with major building block brands.
- Creative Use: Utilize these wheel plates to add mobility to vehicles, robots, or other dynamic creations.

5. MAINTENANCE

Proper maintenance ensures the longevity and consistent performance of your Gobricks components.

5.1 Cleaning

- Clean the blocks with a soft cloth dampened with water.
- For stubborn dirt, a mild soap solution can be used, followed by rinsing with clean water.
- Allow parts to air dry completely before storage or reuse.
- Avoid harsh chemicals or abrasive materials, as these can damage the plastic.

5.2 Storage

Store the wheel plates in a clean, dry environment away from direct sunlight and extreme temperatures to prevent material degradation and color fading.

6. TROUBLESHOOTING

This section addresses common issues you might encounter.

Problem	Possible Cause	Solution
Wheels do not attach securely.	Incompatible wheel component or improper alignment.	Ensure you are using compatible wheel axles/components. Verify correct alignment before pressing.
Wheels do not rotate freely.	Obstruction, dirt, or incorrect attachment.	Check for any debris in the wheel holders. Re-attach the wheel, ensuring it is not pressed too tightly against the plate.
Blocks do not connect firmly.	Dirt on studs/tubes or incompatible blocks.	Clean the connection points. Ensure you are connecting to compatible building blocks.
