TROUBLESHOOTING

Common Issues and Solutions:

- Chemical Odor: New furniture may sometimes have a slight chemical odor. This is typically temporary and will dissipate with good ventilation. Ensure the room is well-aired for a few days after assembly.

- Cushion Settling: Over time, cushions may settle. Regularly fluffing and rotating cushions can help maintain their shape and firmness.
- Loose Connections: If any modular sections feel loose, check the tool-free seat links underneath each section and ensure they are securely engaged.

If you encounter any issues not covered here, or if problems persist, please contact our customer service team for assistance.
