2. Safety Information

The Wood Trick Fusion X Rifle is a model kit and a toy, not a functional firearm. It is designed to shoot lightweight wooden rounds using a rubber-band mechanism. Adhere to the following safety guidelines:

- Adult Supervision: Recommended for users aged 18 years and older due to the complexity of assembly and handling of small parts.
- Eye Protection: Always use eye protection when operating the firing mechanism.
- Target Safely: Never aim or fire at people, animals, or fragile objects. Use in a clear, open area.
- Small Parts: Keep small parts away from young children to prevent choking hazards during assembly.
- Intended Use: This product is for recreational assembly and display. Do not modify the firing mechanism or use non-standard projectiles.

3. Assembly Instructions

The Fusion X Rifle model kit requires approximately 5 hours for assembly, demanding patience and fine motor skills. Follow the included illustrated step-by-step guide carefully. No glue or special tools are required, as all pieces are designed for precise interlocking.

General Assembly Tips:

- Organize Parts: Before starting, carefully detach all wooden pieces from their sheets and organize them according to the assembly guide.
- Gentle Handling: Wooden pieces can be delicate. Apply gentle, even pressure when connecting parts to avoid breakage.
- Follow Sequence: Adhere strictly to the numerical sequence provided in the assembly instructions to ensure correct construction.
- Online Video Guide: A detailed video guide for the assembly process is available online. Refer to it if you encounter any difficulties.

4. Operating Instructions

Once assembled, the Fusion X Rifle model offers interactive functionality. It features an optical scope, a detachable magazine, and a rubber-band powered shooting mechanism for the included wooden rounds.

Loading the Magazine:

1. Locate the detachable magazine.
2. Insert up to 9 wooden rounds into the magazine's designated slots.
3. Align the loaded magazine with the rifle's magazine well and firmly insert it until it clicks into place.

Firing the Rifle:

1. Ensure the magazine is loaded and properly seated.
2. Pull back the charging handle (if applicable, refer to your specific model's design) to prime the rubber-band mechanism.
3. Use the optical scope for aiming at a safe target.
4. Gently pull the trigger to release the mechanism and fire a wooden round.

Reloading:

To reload the magazine, press the lever located near the magazine well to release and remove the empty magazine. Follow the loading steps above to insert a new or refilled magazine.

5. Maintenance

To ensure the longevity and optimal performance of your Wood Trick Fusion X Rifle, periodic maintenance is recommended.

- Cleaning: Dust the model regularly with a soft, dry cloth. Avoid using water or chemical cleaners, as these can damage the wood.
- Rubber Band Replacement: The rubber bands and striking mechanism are designed to be easily replaceable for long-lasting use. If the firing mechanism weakens or fails, inspect the rubber bands for wear and replace them as needed.
- Storage: Store the model in a dry environment away from direct sunlight and extreme temperature fluctuations to prevent wood warping or damage.

6. Troubleshooting

If you encounter issues with your Fusion X Rifle model, consider the following troubleshooting steps:

- Assembly Issues: If parts do not fit correctly or the model feels unstable, re-examine the corresponding steps in the assembly guide. Ensure all pieces are oriented correctly and fully interlocked.
- Firing Mechanism Malfunction: If the rifle does not fire or the wooden rounds do not launch effectively, check the rubber bands. Ensure they are properly seated and not stretched or broken. Replace if necessary.
- Magazine Issues: If the magazine does not load or eject smoothly, check for any obstructions or misaligned pieces within the magazine well or on the magazine itself.
- Missing Parts: In the event of missing or damaged parts upon unboxing, contact Wood Trick customer support for assistance.
