Interpupillary Distance Adjustment

The distance between the eyes, called “interpupillary distance” (IPD), varies from person to person. To achieve perfect alignment of lens to eye, follow these steps.

Hold your binocular in the normal viewing position and look at an object in the Grasp each of the binocular barrels firmly. Move the barrels closer together or further apart until you see a single circular field.

Focusing

After adjusting the interpupillary distance, follow steps below to focus the binoculars

1. Close your right eye and look at an object in the distance through the left eyepiece with your left eye. Rotate the center focus until image is
2. Close your left eye and look at the same object in the distance through the right eyepiece with your right eye. Rotate the right eye diopter until the image is clear.
3. Look through the binocular with both eyes and image should be clear, rotate the center focus for any further image adjustments
