SETUP GUIDE

- Unpack the Gauntlet: Carefully take the BATMAN Gauntlet out of its box and make sure all of its parts are inside.
- Putting Batteries In: Open the gauntlet's battery compartment, put the three AAA batteries that come with it according to the polarity markings, and close the compartment.
- Turn on the Gauntlet: Find the power switch and flip it on to make the lights and sounds work.
- Get Used to the Controls: Show the child what the yellow bat button does in fight mode and the red button does in mission mode.
- Show Different Play Types: Use the right buttons to switch between battle and mission types.
- Fight Mode: To enter fight Mode, press the yellow bat button. As the child punches, action sounds will play, making the fight more realistic.
- Mission Mode: In Mission Mode, tell the child to press the red button to bring up mission words and lights that show stories. This will encourage them to play pretend.

- Explore Scallop Placement: Let the child try putting the replaceable scallops on either side of the gauntlet in different ways to spark their imagination.
- Action Sounds Practice: Tell the kid to punch the air to make the sound effects play automatically when the game is in fight mode.
- Make a Task: Help the kid make up a task, and tell them they need to use the gauntlet's features to finish it.
- Encourage Team Play: Suggest that you play with your friends and let them play as Batman or bad guys to make the stories more fun to tell together.
- Regularly Check Functionality: Make sure the toy stays fun by checking that the lights and sounds work every so often.
- Teach Respectful Use: Teach the child how to use the glove safely so that it doesn't get broken while they play.
- Keep Safe: When not in use, keep the glove somewhere safe to keep it from getting damaged and to make it easy to find.
- Supervised Playtime: Keep an eye on younger kids while they play to make sure they don't hurt themselves using the interactive parts.

CARE & MAINTENANCE

- Regular Cleaning: Use a soft, damp cloth to wipe down the glove to get rid of dust and fingerprints and keep it looking nice.
- Avoid Water: Keep the glove away from water and other liquids to protect the electronics inside and make it last longer.
- Battery Maintenance: Regularly check the battery area for corrosion or leaks and replace batteries as needed to keep them working at their best.
- Handling Carefully: Tell kids to be careful when they play with the gauntlet so that the electric parts don't get broken.
- Check for Damage: Look for signs of wear or damage on the glove from time to time, especially around the buttons and joints.
- Safe Storage: The glove should be kept in a cool, dry place when not in use to keep it from getting damaged by changes in temperature or water.
- Teach Proper Use: To keep kids from hurting themselves or others, teach them how to use the gauntlet for what it was made for.
- Remove Batteries for Storage: If you're going to be keeping something for a long time, take the batteries out to keep them from corroding.
- Avoid Direct Sunlight: Keep the gauntlet out of direct sunlight when not in use to keep the colors and logos from fading.
- Monitor Volume Levels: To protect kids' ears and make sure they have a good time, keep the volume at a comfortable level during playing.
- Avoid Sharp Objects: Keep the glove away from things that are sharp and could cut or scratch its surface.
- Encourage Clean Hands: Remind kids that they should use the gloves with clean hands so that they don't spread dirt or grime.
- Reinforce Care Instructions: To teach kids responsibility, tell them often how important it is to take care of their toys.

- Check Connection Points: If there are any, look at the links for damage and make sure they still work.
