CAUTION: HOT SURFACE

The surface of the power adaptor may get hot to touch during operation. To protect against possible burn hazard, wait one-half hour after unplugging from the mains before handling.

WARNING: Risk of Electric Shock.

- Your adapter is raintight and meets IP67 test conditions under IEC 60529, and can withstand outdoor use and contact with water under certain conditions. When used with compatible Blink devices, refer to the IP rating of the device into which the adapter is plugged. Do not plug the power adapter into an outdoor socket without first ensuring it has appropriate weather resistance for outdoor use.

- Always ensure socket is easily accessible and located near the Blink device that it is powering.
- Install only to a covered Class A GFCI electrical socket that has an enclosure that is weatherproof with the attachment plug cap inserted or removed.
- Not for use with electrical sockets that are weatherproof only when the socket is covered (attachment plug cap not inserted and electrical socket cover closed).

Your adapter is not intended for underwater use and may experience temporary effects from exposure to water. Do not intentionally immerse your adapter in water. Do not spill any food, oil, lotion, or other abrasive substances on your adapter. Do not expose your adapter to pressurized water, high velocity water, or extremely humid conditions (such as a steam room). Do not expose your adapter to salt water or other conductive liquids. To protect against electric shock, do not place cord, plug, or adapter in water or other liquids. If your adapter gets wet from immersion in water or high pressure water, carefully disconnect all cables without getting your hands wet and wait for them to dry completely before powering it on again. Do not attempt to dry your adapter with an external heat source, such as a microwave oven or a hair dryer. To avoid risk of electric shock, do not touch your adapter or any wires connected to your device during a lightning storm while your device is powered. If your adapter is dropped or otherwise appears damaged, discontinue use immediately, as the waterproofing of the adapter may be compromised.

Other Safety Considerations

Your device does not have an on/off button. If you wish to stop power from flowing into your device, unplug the power cord. Do not plug multiple electric devices into the same wall socket. Overloading a socket can cause it to overheat and may result in a fire.

CAUTION: To reduce the risk of falling, take extra care when using a ladder or similar equipment to mount the product.
