CARE & MAINTENANCE

- Using a dry cloth to wipe clean keeps Bluey looking brand new and avoids dust accumulation.
- Avoid Water Exposure: Because it's an electronic toy, keep it out of wet areas and water.
- Regularly inspect the battery compartment to make sure there are no corrosion or leaks.
- Change Batteries When Necessary: Change the AAA batteries if Bluey stops functioning or if its noises become softer.
- Store Safely: To prevent unintentional harm, keep Bluey on a shelf or in a toy box.
- Bluey should not be dropped because doing so could harm the internal circuitry.
- Turn Off When Not in Use: After playing, turn Bluey off to conserve battery life.
- Employ Gentle Cleaning Techniques: Steer clear of abrasive cleaning agents.
- Verify Correct Operation: Look for impediments in the speaker area if Bluey stops emitting sound cues.
- Teach Children to Handle Carefully: To prolong the toy's life, promote gentle play.
- Keep Bluey in its original packaging when travelling to help prevent damage.
- Avoid Extreme Temperatures: To avoid plastic warping, keep Bluey out of direct sunlight and extremely cold temperatures.
- Watch Over Younger Children: To avoid unintentional rough treatment, make sure young children play with Bluey in a safe manner.
- Pets may chew on or destroy the toy, so keep them away.
- Examine the speaker holes for obstructions. Over time, grime or dust may degrade sound quality.
