GM Lighting Adding Google Home Commands to LUXcontrol Installation Guide
Adding Google Home Commands to LUXcontrol
Installation Guide

18700 Ridgeland Ave.
Tinley Park, IL 60477
Technical Info:
tech@gmlighting.net

Log Onto LUXcontrol™. Find your LUXcontrol icon on your smartphone and open the LUXcontrol app. Sign in.

Grant Permissions. Granting our app access to data your personal information at risk, but it does enable rve you through apps like Google Home™.

|
Time to Choose. You can have Google Home™ control any fixture or group that you have connected to LUX. Let's choose this outlet that's at the front door. Click it.	Advance to Pairing With Google Home™. Tap the th upper right corner of your screen.
Verification Code. Click Link with Verification Code to get a code that you will use with the Google Assistant app. Make sure that you get the Copied Successfully	Open Google Assistant App. Once you've copied the open the Assistant app and look at the bottom of the round icon (it's small, you might miss it).

Getting Close! The assistant will take you to the LUXcontrol assistant. If you see this screen, you're on the right page. Prepare to scroll.	Activate Your Fixture. Scroll down to 'Home Control' hat it lists the number of fixtures that you have conn ontrol. Tap it.

Google Home™ is a registered trademark of Google, Inc.
LUXcontrol™ is a registered trademark of GM Lighting

Contents

Documents / Resources

	GM Lighting Adding Google Home Commands to LUXcontrol [pdf] Installation Guide Adding Google Home, Commands to LUXcontrol, Adding Google Home Commands to LUXcontrol

Manuals+,