SETTING UP THE CHARGING STATION

CAUTION: Do not use your charging station to charge a tablet. You may damage the tablet. Plug the AC adapter into a wall outlet, then plug the other end into the charging station. Your charging station will turn on and is now ready to charge your controllers.

CHARGING YOUR CONTROLLERS

Set your charging station on a flat surface, then gently push your controller down onto your charging station's connector as shown below. The LED indicator lights red when the controller is correctly seated.

Note: Do not use excess force to connect your controller.

REMOVING YOUR CONTROLLERS

When the LED turns green, hold your charging station down and lift your controller up and off.
