Terms of the Agreement

Warranty provided to the end user by Dell TM

WARRANTY

Dell guarantees to the end user, in compliance with the following provisions, that the electronic, mechanical and assembly components of their hardware products or brand computers purchased by the end user from a company belonging to the Dell group or from an authorized distributor, in Latin America and the Caribbean, will be defect free for a period of 1 (one) year from the product's date of purchase shown on the purchase invoice or receipt and, specifically for Colombia, for a period of 1 (one) year from the delivery date of the product to the end user, as long as the conditions for the installation and proper use of the product [included in the original packaging] are observed, with the exception of any items related to exceptions specifically shown hereby, and as long as it is within the previously established period of 1 (one) year or under the legal warranty period, whichever is longer. Any products about which justified claims are made will be, at Dell's discretion, repaired or replaced by Dell free of charge. DELL will own all parts removed from repaired products. DELL can use new or refurbished parts whose characteristics, quality, and technology are similar or better than those in the old parts, as long as the original specifications of the products remain the same.

CUSTOMER RESPONSIBILITY

Make DELL immediately aware of any flaw or malfunction in their hardware or computers by notifying IDELL's Technical Support.

Provide DELL's technical representatives access to the software and computers associated with the claim if there are safety restrictions that can be applied to any or all of the customer's systems in need of technical support covered by this contractual warranty. DELL may request for the customer to take any necessary measures that will allow DELL to provide the appropriate technical support without compromising the safety, integrity and confidentiality of any information or data stored in the computer and/or in any of the customer's software.

Notify DELL about any potential safety or health risk in the location where the customer will receive technical support, and provide and/or recommend safety procedures to be followed whenever applicable.

When necessary, provide an appropriate work place and access to any communication media considered necessary to provide the service, at no cost to DELL.

Keep an updated backup of the operating system and relevant software programs, as well as all their data.

Guarantee that a responsible party will be present during the performance of the service.

Provide, at no cost to DELL, any recording and storage media, including any necessary magnetic disks and tapes to perform the service, as well as any data communication devices (modems) and telephone lines and/or net connections that are necessary to perform this remote service electronically (electronic remote access). DELL itself will preserve the confidentiality and integrity of the customer's information contained in these media and communication devices.
