

Solis Column Wall Lamp

DESCRIPTION

The Solis Column Wall Lamp features a refined cylindrical silhouette carved from natural yellow travertine, a stone formed over millennia through the slow choreography of earth’s geological and chemical transformations. With its clean, minimalist lines and softly diffused illumination, this wall sconce brings a quiet sense of elegance and timelessness to modern interiors. Each piece bears the unique textures and warm hues of the stone, making it not just a light source, but a sculptural tribute to nature’s artistry.
