Manual For Pangolin T Series iPhone
Client

1. Launch interface

2. Add a new IP-Camera

Procedure to add a new IP-Camera：

1. Press "Add Camera" label

2. From the pop out window: press "+" label; or press search label(To automatically search available Cameras on LAN)
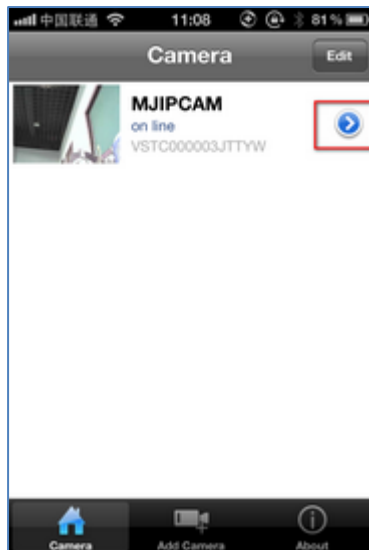

3. Then fill the require information；

4.Camera Information：

1) Name--Can be changed to anyone you like

2) Camera UID--Input manually or Scan QR Code(Strongly recommended)

3) Username--admin (Default)

4) Password--Blank (Default)

On finish filling all items, then job is done.

3.Choose the Wireless network you like
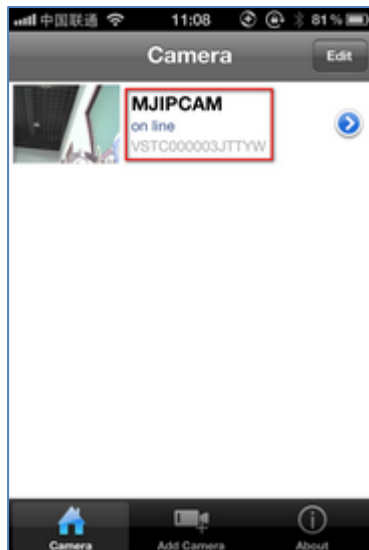

Procedure to configure wireless network：

1) Choose the right Camera which is to be configured

2) Press the blue triangle, then will pop out a new interface on the right side

3) Press WIFI Setting

4) Choose one from the available wireless network：

For example, choose "VStarcam", and then fill in password to access wireless network.

Finally press "Done", then job is done.

4. Manual for each function

From the available Camera，choose the on line one, press it；

When mobile successfully receives video from the camera,

then will display an interface on the right side.

5. Introduction

Function description (from left to right)

1) Cruising vertically

2) Cruising horizontally

3) Image flip(up to down)

4) Image flip(left to right)

Function description(From left to right)

1) Snapshot

2) Monitor/Mute

3) Intercom

4) Image flip

5) Brightness adjustment

6) Resolution adjustment--（When network condition is bad, turn it down）