

Enable Push Notification

Summary

This guide will show how to enable push notification from Capture VS App.

Requirements

- Capture device initialized and set up on a network
- Device added to Capture VS App

Instructions

1. Open Capture VS App. Under Home menu, you will see Capture device that has been added.

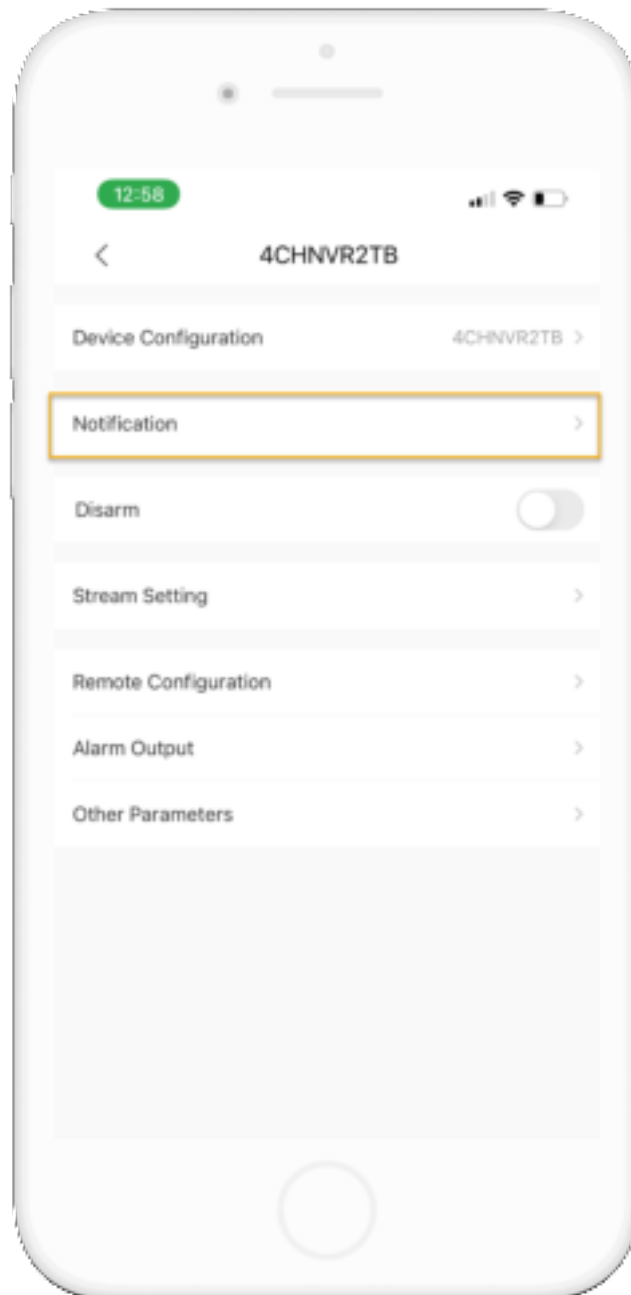

Capture Technical Support Guide

2. Tap on the "⋮" icon, and then select Device Details.

Capture Technical Support Guide

3. Tap Notification

Capture Technical Support Guide

4. Tap the toggle to enable Notification for the recorder.

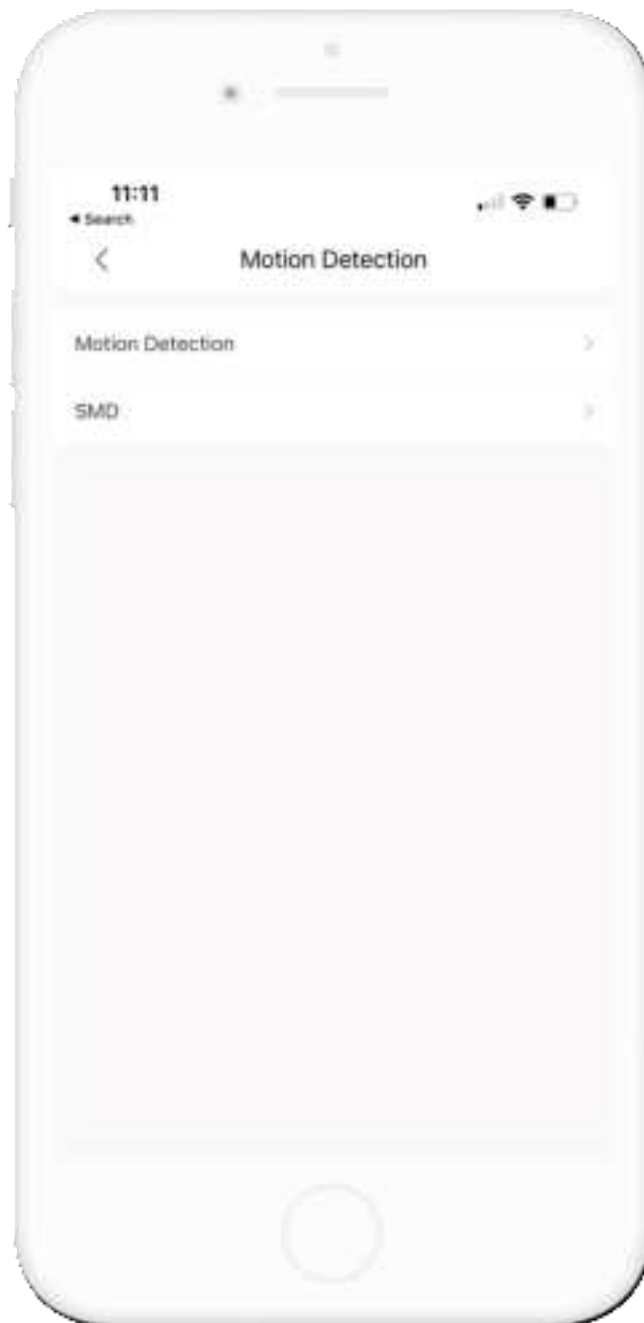

Capture Technical Support Guide

5. Select the notification type you wish to receive. In this article, we select Motion Detection.

Capture Technical Support Guide

6. There are two type of Motion Detection, regular Motion Detection and Smart Motion Detection. In this article, we select regular Motion Detection.

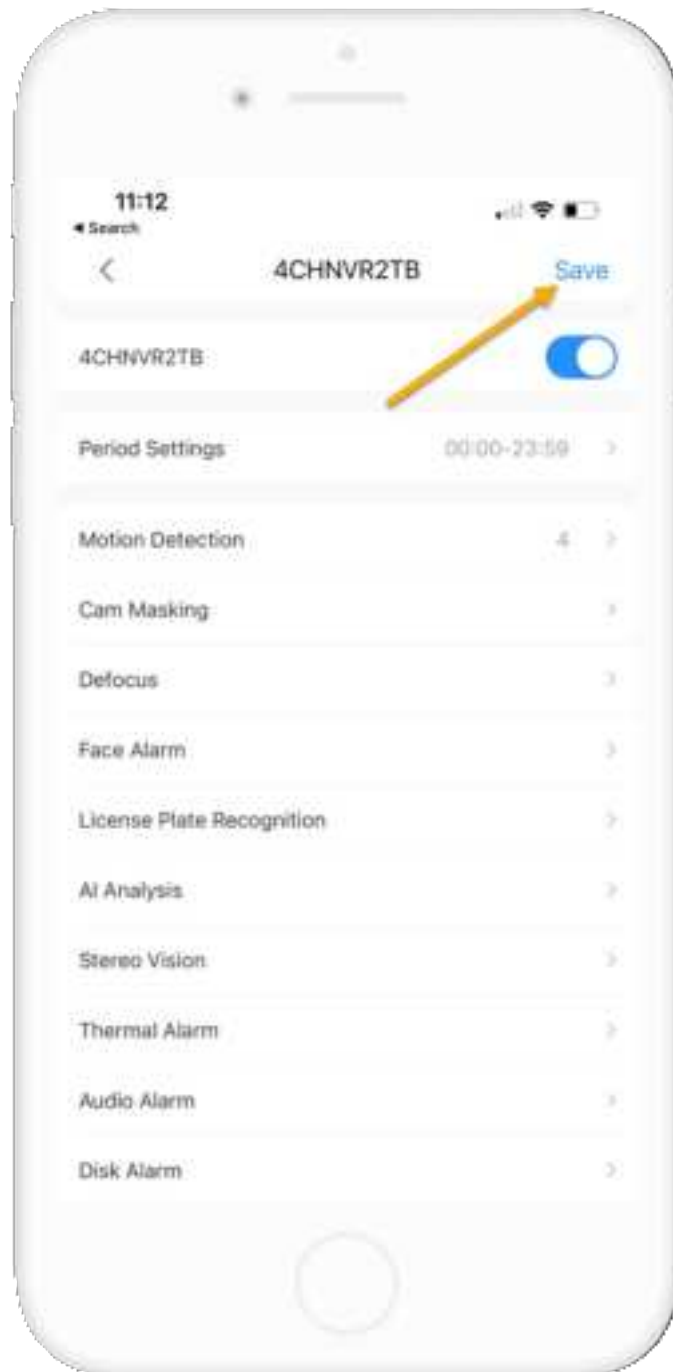

Capture Technical Support Guide

7. Select the channel you wish to receive notification when motion triggered. Then Tap on < icon twice to return to the previous menu.

Capture Technical Support Guide

8. Tap Save.

Capture Technical Support Guide

9. You will now will start receiving push notification when motion is triggered.

Note: on iPhone, when DMSS app is running in background or closed, you must click on notification banner to view the event.

