The DDR-66BT, the SANGEAN's flagship all-in-one music system that offers many possibilities, such as internet radio, DAB+ and FM radio, Spotify streaming, Bluetooth audio streaming, music via CD player or playing MP3 files from different media sources. As SANGEAN's tradition, its excellent sound comes from the acoustically matched wooden housing with an elegant design. In addition to radio and audio streaming, the DDR-66BT is able to play music in MP3/AAC/WMA formats through USB drive, SD card or CDs. That's not it, the SD card and USB can also be used for recording purposes. Thanks to the elegant wooden case, it reproduces all frequency ranges cleanly, delivering clear heights and depths in bass. If you are still not completely satisfied, the DDR-66BT allows you to adjust the EQ to your liking in order for you to take full advantage of the sound capabilities and to meet your personal unique taste in the World of Listeners.
