This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

THIS volume contains the Catalogue of the Additions to the Department of MSS. during the years 1888–1893, arranged under the heads of Additional MSS., Additional Charters, Detached Seals, Papyri, Egerton MSS., and Egerton Charters. The total number of manuscripts acquired during this period is twelve hundred and ninety-four; of charters, seven thousand and ninety; of detached seals, two thousand and seventy-nine; and of papyri, three hundred and thirty-eight, counting many fragments under a single number.

The additions to the general collections include fifty-nine MSS. which have hitherto belonged to the Department of Printed Books, as part of the Grenville Library. They have now been transferred to the custody of the Keeper of MSS. and catalogued.

In the case of a large correspondence a general description of the papers, with an enumeration of the principal writers, has been thought sufficient, but the omitted names appear in the Index.

The collections of manuscripts more particularly deserving of notice in their several classes are as follows:—

1. Of Greek manuscripts:—

Papyrus CXXXIII. Demosthenes, Epist. iii.; 2nd or 1st century B.C.

Papyri CVIII. (13) and CXXXIV. Portions of three speeches of Hyperides, 2nd or 1st century B.C.

Papyri CXXVI–CXXVIII. and CXXXVI. Homer's Iliad, Books II., III., IV., V., VI., XVIII., XXIII., XXIV.; 1st century B.C.—5th century A.C.

Papyrus CCLXXI. Homer's Odyssey, Book III.; early 1st century.

Papyrus CXXXI. Ἀθηναίων Πολιτεία: Aristotle on the Constitution of Athens; end of the 1st century. Unique.

Papyrus CXXXV. The poems of Herodas; 1st or 2nd century. Unique.

Papyrus CCXXX. Fragment of the Psalter; 3rd—4th century. The earliest known MS. of any part of the Bible.

Papyri CXXI–CXXV., CXXX. Six magical documents; 1st—5th centuries.

Papyri CCXXXI–CCLII.; CCLVI–CCCLIV.; CCCCIII–CCCCXXXV. A long series of miscellaneous documents from the Fayyúm in Egypt, of considerable palæographical and historical value.

Add. 33,368; 33,369; 33,797; 33,999; 34,186; 34,244. Writing tablets or waxen books used as accompt books or for writing exercises; 1st—3rd centuries.

Add. 34,107; 34 108; Eg. 2783. The Four Gospels; 12th century;—Eg. 2784; 2785. 13th century.

Eg. 2787. The Acts and Epistles; 13th century.

Add. 34,059. Gospel Lectionaries; 12th century;—Eg. 2745; 2786. 14th century.

Add. 34,060; Eg. 2707. Collections of ecclesiastical canons; 12th, 13th and 15th centuries.

Eg. 2743; 2744. Services for Saints' days; 13th century.

Add. 33,421–33,436. Index of references to texts from the New Testament in the Greek and Latin Fathers; 19th century.

2. Among the more ancient Latin manuscripts are:—

Pap. CCXXIX. A Deed of Sale of a slave boy at Seleucia, in Syria, in A.D. 166; written in Latin, on papyrus, with autograph subscriptions and seals of the parties and witnesses.

Pap. CXXXVIII. Portion of a Latin deed, written in a chancery-cursive hand on papyrus, in the 6th or 7th century.

Add. 33,610, f. 11. Fragment of the "Lex Wisigothica"; 8th or 9th century. Vellum. Presented by Prof. George Stephens, of Copenhagen.

Add. 34,124. Life of St. Bridget, Abbess of Kildare, in Latin, ascribed to St. Ultan Mag Concubar, Bishop of Ardbraccan; 9th century. Vellum.

Add. Ch. 37,631. Charter, in Latin, of Berengarius, King of Italy, granting land at Verona, A.D. 913; with monogram and fine seal. Vellum.

and readiest meanes how to attayne the true peace and quiet of the minde. Written in the Italian tongue by . . . Madonna Isabella Sforza, sister to the great Duke of Mylane, and translated into English by A[nthony] M[undy]."

With an autograph dedicatory letter to John Swynnerton, Alderman and Sheriff of London, dat. 22 Dec. 1602, stating that the translation was made "as a breathing whyle in my undertaken long labour, called Tymes ryche Treasurie." After this (f. 3) are eleven lines of French verse, headed "Une Damoyselle Parisienne aux lecteures." The original was printed at Venice in 1544, and a French translation at Lyons in 1546. The authoress (1503–1561) was not sister of the Duke of Milan, but daughter of Giovanni Sforza, Lord of Pesaro.

Paper; ff. 57. Small Quarto.

33,385. Book of Hours, in Latin, with the rubrics generally in French, "Sulum lus de Salesbiri" (see f. 88 b). Imperfect at the beginning; and with several leaves missing or mutilated in various parts. The contents are:—

Hours of the Holy Trinity, f. 2.
Hours of the Passion, with colophon: "Ci finist les hures del nun Iesu," f. 27.
Hours of the Holy Ghost, f. 41.
Hours of the Blessed Virgin, with prayers and psalms, f. 54.
"Les hures de seinte Katherine la gloriuse martyre et uirgine," f. 125.
Penitential Psalms, f. 141.
Litany of the Saints, f. 151.
The fifteen Psalms, f. 159.
Anthem, verse, and prayer for the commemoration of St. Roger, f. 168 b.
"La seinte priere por totes les almes cristianes": Vigils of the Dead, f. 171.

On blank leaves or portions of leaves (ff. 23 b, 26, 26 b, 41 b, 53 b, 83 b, 96 b, 123 b, 124, 140 b) are inserted prayers for the soul of Beatrice "regali prosapia" (f. 124), probably Beatrice (ob. 1272–3), daughter of Henry III. and wife of John, Earl of Richmond, and (1286) Duke of Brittany. The MS. may therefore have belonged to her and have passed, at her death, into the hands of one of her dependants.

On the last leaf (f. 200 b) is also inserted, in a somewhat later hand, the hymn "Verbum supernum prodiens."

Vellum; ff. 200. xiiith cent. With illuminated initials; all the miniatures (if there were any) have been cut out. Bound in old oak boards (rebacked, with leather), carved to represent an intersecting arcade, but apparently not originally designed for a binding. Octavo.

33,386–33,389. Gleanings in English biography, by Miss Susan Mary Stokes; consisting chiefly of references to notices in printed works. Arranged alphabetically under names of persons, in four volumes: Vol. I. A–Co; Vol. II. Cr–K; Vol. III. L–R; Vol. IV. S–Y.

Paper; ff. 627, 581, 566, 542. XIXth cent. Quarto. Presented by Miss Rosamond Anne Webb.

33,390, 33,391. "GLEANINGS" in English history, by Miss Susan Mary Stokes; consisting chiefly of extracts from, and references to, printed works, and dealing more particularly with the 17–19th centuries. Two volumes. In Vol. II., ff. 249–400, are also similar collections in foreign history. Paper; ff. 400, 401. XIXth cent. Quarto. Presented by the same.

33,392. 1. "THE CROWNE OF THORNES": a religious poem in rhymed heroic verse, in twelve books, beg.: "I sing of thornes transform'd in bloody springs." f. 1. Written in two different hands, the second beginning at f. 85.

A work under this title (in eight books) was composed by Sir John Beaumont, Bart. (ob. 1627), but no copy of it is known to have survived (see A. B. Grosart, Poems of Sir J. Beaumont, 1869, p. xxxii., and Dict. of Nat. Biogr., vol. iv. 1885, p. 59). As it was written in the lifetime of Hen. Wriothesley, Earl of Southampton (ob. 1624), it cannot be identical with the present article, which was written (f. 143) after the marriage of Charles I. (1625). For the probable author, see below, under art. 2.

2. A collection of Latin poems, mostly of a devotional or satirical character and with a strong anti-Protestant bias. Written in the same hand throughout and apparently autograph. ff. 146–190.

Included are:—Epigrams against Luther. ff. 146–149;—"De stigmatibus S. Pauli et Calvini." f. 146 b;—"Compendium grammaticæ apostatum." f. 147;—Epitaphs on O. Cromwell and Qu. Elizabeth. f. 147 b;—"Logogryphus de cognomine meo," sc. Clarke. f. 150 b;—"In obitum R. P. Petri Haliox," sc. Pierre Halloix, Jesuit, of Liége (ob. 1656). f. 152 b;—"Conscientiæ scrupulosæ et cauteriatæ paradigma." f. 154 b;—"Historia Puritani qui felim suspendit ob violatu[m] Sabbatum mure capto." f. 167 b;—"Domorum vel Carthusiani (sic) monachorum provinciæ hujus catalogus." f. 172;—"An appetendus prioratus," etc. f. 172 b;—"Motiva humilitatis, ex S. Christi Martyre, R. P. Rob. Southwell." f. 175 b;—"Meditationes Purgativæ," etc. f. 177.

The writer (see ff. 150 b, 172) was evidently Robert Clarke (al. Hauton, al. Graine), a Carthusian monk, of Nieuport, in Flanders, (ob. 1675) whose Christias, a long Latin poem on the Passion (written before 1650), was published at Bruges, 1670. In the preface to an edition by A. C. Walthierer (Ingolstadt, 1855) it is stated (p. vii.) that he also wrote an English poem "The Crown of Thorns," existing in autograph in the library of Baron Edm. de Harold.

33,518. Lives of Saints, etc., in Latin, viz.:—

1. "Vite sanctorum patrum": the "Verba Seniorum," attributed to Rufinus, with the prologue "Vere mundum quis dubitet," etc., and the colophon "Explicit liber ii. de vitis sanctorum patrum." Both in matter and order there are frequent deviations from the text of Migne, Patrol. Lat., vol. lxxiii. 739, many of the Verba being from other Divisions of the Vitæ Patrum. The second quire (ff. 9–16) is out of its proper position (after f. 128). f. 1.
2. "Incipiunt ammoniciones diversorum patrum": a miscellaneous collection, beg. "Dixit abbas Iohannes pusillæ staturæ" and including sayings of Amonas, Evagrius, Ursicius, Syncletica, Antonius, Macarius, Pastor, and many others. f. 57.
3. "Incipit prologus Heraclii episcopi de vita sanctorum patrum":

Digitized by Google

the "Historia Lausiaca" of Palladius (Migne, vol. lxxiv. 543), without the prologue "Multa quidem et varia," but preceded by the "Epistola ad Lausum" ascribed to Palladius and to Heraclides, Bishop of Ephesus. The text of this letter differs from that of Migne, ibid. 249 (cf. Patrol. Græca, vol. xxxiv. 999). With the colophon "Explicit liber quartus." f. 104.

4. "Incipit liber quintus de vitis sanctorum patrum": the "Liber quartus, auctoribus Severo Sulpicio et Joanne Cassiano," Migne, vol. lxxiii. 813, with variations, preceded by the prologue "Frequenter ac sæpius." The latter part is misplaced in the volume (ff. 9–16). With the colophon (f. 16 b), "Explicit liber quintus de vitis vel exhortationibus sanctorum patrum." f. 120.
5. "Narratio Leoncii, Neapoleos Cypriorum insule [episcopi], de vita et actione sancti Iohannis [Eleemonis], archiepiscopi Alexandrie"; with the prefatory letter of Anastasius Bibliothecarius, the translator. See Migne, vol. lxxiii. 337. f. 129.
6. "Vita vel penitentia sancte Marie Egiptiace": translated from the Greek of Sophronius, Patriarch of Jerusalem, by Paulus Diaconus. The first of these epigrams is said to have been written by Robert Gaguin, French ambassador to England in 1490, the others being answers to it (see B. André's "Vita Henrici VII.," Memorials of K. Hen. VII., ed. J. Gairdner, Rolls Series, 1858, p. 56; and Notes and Queries, Ser. ii., vol. viii., 1859, pp. 411, 540). This leaf, f. 3 (with f. 2), did not originally form part of the volume, having been cut down at the side to make it fit, whereby a word at the end of each of the four lines of the third epigram is lost. Vellum; ff. 119. In double columns, with rubricated initials, a marked change of hand occurring at f. 76. Bound in thick bevelled boards, covered with leather. Small Folio. Presented by the Hon. Mrs. [Emmeline] Way, widow of Albert Way.

33,535, A, B. "IL TALISMANO": an opera by Michael William Balfe. Full score, with English and Italian words. Mostly autograph. Act I. is complete, including the overture, which is not given in the printed pianoforte score; Act II. wants the opening of the finale; in Act III. there are several variations from the printed copy, the most important being in the finale, where the air "Flow'ret, I kiss thee" is re-introduced. At the end is added a scene between Richard, Berengaria, Edith and De Vaux, which closely resembles the chorus "Cantiam dell' Inghilterra." Paper; ff. 174, 363. XIXth cent. Folio.

33,536. "LETTY": an opera by M. W. Balfe, in full score. Autograph; but imperfect. The parts missing are the overture, a dance with chorus, and the recitative preceding the finale, in Act I.; the Dream-song and the recitative on p. 141 of the printed pianoforte score, in Act II.; and the whole of Act III., except the opening chorus of guests. Paper; ff. 301. XIXth cent. Folio.

33,587. OPINIONS of foreign physicians and theologians to the effect that Tobacco cannot be regarded as a victual, given in answer to a question submitted to them on behalf of the English Government; 1635. Latin.

The case arose on the capture by a Dunkirk man-of-war of a ship laden with tobacco from Amsterdam, which was adjudged lawful prize at Dunkirk, and, on appeal, at Brussels, on the ground that the cargo came under the head of victuals (see Cal. of State Papers, Domestic, 1635–36, p. 208).

The opinions given are those of:—The Medical Professors at Louvain; 17 Mar., s.n., 1635. Signed by Michael Ophemius, M.D., Professor Primarius, and others; with seal. Subscribed also, 12 Oct., by Drs. Nov. 1569—Feb. 1572; and April, 1584—April, 1585. Four volumes. Paper. Folio.

The first two volumes contain, with a few earlier documents, the correspondence of Sadleir when stationed at Berwick, and subsequently acting as Warden of the East and Middle Marches of England, Aug. 1559—April, 1560. All the joint letters of Sadleir and his colleagues are drafts in his own hand. The third volume chiefly contains his correspondence while acting as Treasurer of the "Northern" Army during the insurrection of the Earls of Northumberland and Westmorland, Nov. 1569—March, 1570. Sadleir's letters are holograph drafts. The fourth volume principally deals with the captivity of Mary, Queen of Scots, at Wingfield and Tutbury Castles under Sadleir's custody during the absence of Lord Shrewsbury at the Court to plead his cause with Qu. Elizabeth against the machinations and slanders of his own wife. Sadleir's letters are drafts, chiefly in the hand of his private secretary, Sir John Sommer.

These letters and papers were edited in 1809 at Edinburgh by Arthur Clifford, a direct descendant of Sir Ralph Sadleir, from transcripts made by Rev. John Kirk, of Lichfield. The originals were then at Tixall Hall, co. Stafford, the ancient seat of the Astons, whither they were removed from Standon Lordship, co. Hertford, the seat of Sir R. Sadleir, on the marriage in 1762 of Hon. Barbara Aston with Hon. Thos. Clifford, son of Hugh, 3rd Lord Clifford, by whose son Sir Thos. Clifford Constable, Bart., these papers were again removed to his seat at Burton Constable, co. York. Hon. Barbara Aston was directly descended from Gertrude Sadleir, granddaughter of Sir Ralph, by her marriage in 1584 with Sir Walter Aston of Tixall.

Arthur Clifford, the editor, was brother of Sir T. Clifford Constable, 1st Bart., by whose grandson, Sir F. A. T. Clifford Constable, 3rd Bart., the collection was sold in 1889, after having remained uninterruptedly in Sir R. Sadleir's family from the time of his death in 1587.

note on the fly-leaf by the donor states that the MS. formerly belonged to [Cesare] Brancadoro, [Cardinal] archbishop of Fermo [1803–1837]. Paper; ff. 370. XVIIth cent. Folio. Presented by Rev. Robert Charles Jenkins, Rector of Lyminge, co. Kent, Hon. Canon of Canterbury.

Ff. 5–17, 38–49 b, are apparently transcripts from another Register, made in the time of John Grimston, Vicar (ob. 1601), whose signature appears at the foot of each page. The baptisms from Jan. 159$\frac{0}{1}$ to June 1600 are missing. Some account of the MS. and of the Vicars of Lyminge is given on f. 1 b in a note by the donor. Paper; ff. 57. Large Quarto. Presented by the same.

The following Nos., 33,733–33,791, form part of the Grenville Library, bequeathed to the British Museum in 1847 by the Rt. Hon. Thomas Grenville. They were transferred to the custody of the Keeper of MSS. in 1890.

33,733. A SERIES of twelve miniatures illustrating the victories of the Emperor Charles V.; with descriptive quatrains in Spanish. Each miniature, including a border $\frac{3}{4}$ inch wide, measures 10$\frac{1}{4}$ inches in length by 7 inches in height, and is painted on the recto of a leaf of vellum, 11$\frac{1}{2}$ × 8 inches. The quatrains are on the verso, each enclosed within an elaborate scroll-work border. At the beginning is the modern inscription "Giulio Clovio. L'aquila triumphante de Carlos Quinto"; and, according to notes inserted by T. Grenville, the tradition is that the miniatures were painted by Clovio for Philip II. of Spain and remained in the Escurial until they were removed by a French officer early in the present century. There is, however, no external evidence to support these statements; and although the miniatures are executed in the highest style of the 16th century, it is very doubtful whether they are by Clovio's hand. The subjects, with very slight variations, are from designs of Martin van Heemskerck, engraved by Dirck Volkertsen Coornhert and published by Jerome Cock at Antwerp in 1556. On the whole subject see Sir W. Stirling-Maxwell's The Chief Victories of the Emperor Charles the Fifth, etc., 1870, and J. W. Bradley's Life and Works of G. Giulio Clovio, 1891, pp. 275–289.
The miniatures are now placed between vellum leaves, 13$\frac{1}{2}$ × 12 inches, and are bound up in a volume with covers of purple velvet.

33,737. (Gr. xxxi.) "A TREATISE of Doctor Nicholas Harpesfeilds concerning Marriage, occasioned by the pretenced (sic) Diuourse betweene King Henry the eight and Queene Katherine." The work, written by Nicholas Harpsfield, Archdeacon of Canterbury, in the reign of Queen Mary, was edited by the Rev. Nicholas Pocock for the Camden Society in 1878. He describes the present copy (p. iii.) as being the least valuable of the four which he collated. At the end is the note: "This coppie was taken from the originall which was found by Mr. Topliffe in the house of Williams [sc. William Carter] sometymes seruant to the said Doctor Nicholas Harpesfeild, who confessed that two leaues of the said originall were of his said Masters owne handwriting." Dublin, etc., the second suggesting "the best meanes to recouer that crazed kingedome and repayre the sicklie state thereof" (f. 52), and the third defending the writer's own proceedings against charges of treasonable practices, etc. The tract, which was composed at the end of 1599 or in 1600, is apparently addressed to Sir R. Cecil or some other leading member of the English Privy Council, but the author's name, written at the end of the introductory epistle and on the last page, has been obliterated. From internal evidence there can be no doubt that he was Captain Thomas Lea or Lee, author of "A brief Declaration of the Government of Ireland," 1594 (Desiderata Curiosa Hibernica, Dublin, 1772, vol. i. pp. 87–150), and executed at Tyburn, Feb. 160$\frac{9}{10}$, for a plot to force the Queen to release the Earl of Essex (State Trials, 1809, vol. i. col. 1403). For other copies see Historical MSS. Commission, Second Report, 1871, App. pp. 31, 40. Paper; ff. 192 (including a few added leaves). Small Quarto.

33,744. (Gr. lvi.) TRACTS relating to Ireland, viz.:—

1. "Obsidio et expugnatio propugnaculi Duncanon Catholicis copiis fœderatorum ordinum Hiberniæ, sub Thoma Preston imperatore generali, anno 1644, dietim descripta stilo, relatore F. Bonaventura Barron Clonmelensi," etc.: a diary, in Latin, of the siege of Duncannon Fort by the confederate Irish, 20 Jan.–19 Mar. 1644–5, by Bonaventure Barron, Franciscan. The above title is in a modern hand; the text being headed "Ephemeris obsidionis Duncanon." Printed among the author's works at Lyons, 1656, and Wurzburg, 1666; and reprinted by J. T. Gilbert, Hist. of the Irish Confederation, vol. iv., 1888, p. 189. f. 3.
2. "Hic authores et modus eversionis Catholicæ religionis [in Hibernia] recensentur, et aliquot remedia pro concervandis (sic) reliquiis Catholicæ religionis et gentis proponunter (sic)"; addressed to the Congregation "de propaganda Fide" by Richard O'Ferall, Capuchin, circ. 1658. The above title (f. 2) is in a modern hand. f. 8.

Paper; ff. 17. Transcribed, according to a note on f. 1, by Olaff Moller, of Flensburg (ob. 1685). With the name of William Shaw Mason (19th cent.) as owner. Folio.

33,745. (Gr. xlii.) "A DECLARATION setting forth how and by what means the lawes and statutes of England from time to time came to bee of force in the kingdome of Ireland"; written in 1641 (f. 46). With the note at the end, in the same hand, "per Bolton, Hibern. Cancellarium, vt dicitur," i.e. Sir Richard Bolton, made Chancellor of Ireland in 1639. Printed by W. Harris, Hibernica, Dublin, 1770, pt. ii., together with an answer by Serjeant Mayart (p. 47), from which it appears that the tract, tending "wholly to prove that Ireland never was nor can be bound by any statute made in England before the same be confirmed by Act of Parliament in Ireland," was produced in the Parliament at Dublin on 6 Apr. 1644, and copies ordered to be made. The editor attributes it to Patrick Darcy, M.P. Paper; ff. 85. Duodecimo.

33,746. (Gr. xii.) "MEMOIRS taken out of the notes of S^r^ Henry Sidney, Knt. (ob. 1586), sometime Lord Deputy of Ireland, and out of the Lord Cecills [sc. Lord Burghley's] papers ab Anno 1530 ad Annum 1566 [really ending in 1544], as they were collected by James Usher, late Primat of all Ireland and Archbishop of Armagh" (ob. 1656). The contents are in the form of a chronicle of events, more particularly relating to ecclesiastical affairs, with a strong Protestant bias. Many of the entries, however, are of doubtful authenticity, e.g. an account of the demolition of the shrine of St. Thomas at Canterbury in presence of Henry VIII., with the king's remarks at the time and his speech to the Privy Council on the subject (see English Historical Review, Oct. 1891). The whole volume (cf. Add. 4813) is in the hand of Robert Ware, son of Sir James Ware, and author of The Hunting of the Romish Fox, 1683; and the genuine portions of its contents are chiefly copied, almost without alteration, from Morgan Godwin's Annales of England, 1630, translated from the Latin Annales of Bishop Francis Godwin, his father, 1616. It appears therefore to belong to a series of Anti-Catholic forgeries by Robert Ware, mostly purporting to be derived from the same sources as these memoirs (see Rev. J. E. Bridgett, Blunders and Forgeries, 1890, pp. 209–296). Paper; ff. 46. Late XVIIth cent. Small Quarto.

33,747. (Gr. xxv.) YEAR-BOOK of Robert le Wright, recording under each day events that occurred on it from the Birth of Christ to A.D. 1675. The writer, son of Richard le Wright (ob. 5 Dec. 1634), Clerk of the Jewel House to James I. and Charles I., and Jane Grenville, his wife (ob. 21 Sept. 1621), was born at Kingston on Thames, 10 Feb. 160$\frac{8}{9}$, was admitted of the Middle Temple 8 Nov. 1633, and married Gratiana, daughter of William, Earl Craven, 30 July, 1658. The entries of his own times, which are neither many nor full, refer both to public and private matters. A few later entries have been added in another hand; and at f. 1 is a letter concerning the volume from J. H. Burn to T. Grenville. Paper; ff. 377. Quarto.

33,749. (Gr. xlvii.) TRANSCRIPT of the proceedings, with depositions, etc., of a royal commission to enquire into an alleged marriage between Edward Seymour, Earl of Hertford, and the Lady Catherine Grey; 7 Feb.—12 May, 1562. Paper; ff. 92. XVIIIth cent. Folio.

33,750. (Gr. ix.) "AN ELEGIACALL POEM vpon the euer admired life and neuer sufficiently deplored death of Thomas lord Gray, Baron of Wilton, deceased," i.e. Thomas Grey, Lord Grey de Wilton, died in the Tower, 9 July, 1614. With a prefatory epistle in prose, unaddressed, but signed by Robert Marston. The first titlepage is "Tam Martis quam Artis Nenia: or The Soldiers Sorrow and Learninges losse." Printed from this MS. for the Roxburghe Club, London, 1822.

Though the fact is not noticed in the printed edition, the MS. is imperfect, two leaves being lost after f. 31. It ends, moreover, with the line "proves to the Maister oft the surest freind," whereas the copy of the poem, in the same hand, in Add. 34,062 (q. v.) contains 188 lines more.

Paper; ff. 34. XVIIth cent. Small Quarto.

33,751. (Gr. viii.) "MATERIALS for the Life of S^r^ Henry Spelman": brief notes relating to Spelman and his works, apparently made by Edmund Gibson, Bishop of London, for the biography prefixed to his Reliquiæ Spelmannianæ, 1723. Paper; ff. 24. Small Quarto.

33,752. (Gr. lviii.) "LE PORTRAIT de son altesse royale Madame Henriette, princesse d'Angleterre, dedié à Monsieur frère unique du roy. Par monsieur [Jean Puget] de la Serre, historiographe de France et maître de sa bibliothèque": a eulogy, in prose and verse, of the personal and intellectual charms of Henrietta, daughter of Charles I., married to Philip, Duke of Orleans, in 1661 (ob. 1670). Vellum; ff. 6. Finely written in red and blue, with ornamental headpieces and gilt borders. Binding of light-brown leather, richly tooled within and without. Quarto.

33,753. (Gr. xxviii.) "VITA di Madama Maria Mazzarini, Contestabilessa Colonna": memoirs of Maria Mancini-Mazarini, niece of Cardinal Mazarin and wife (1661) of Lorenzo Onuphrio Colonna, Duke of Taliacoti, etc., Constable of Naples. Italian. Purporting to be composed by herself, with the exception of an introductory letter (ff. 2–5), which describes her person and character. An edition in French was published at Cologne in 1676; and an Italian translation of it was issued by the same publisher in 1678. The latter differs somewhat from the present copy, more especially in the letter as above. Paper; ff. 51. XVIIth cent. Small Quarto.

33,754. (Gr. xxxii.) "La Vita d'Innocentio XII.," or "Relacione della Corte di Roma," etc.: an account of the life and character of Pope Innocent XII. and his Cardinals, and of the system of the Papal Court, composed "da un personaggio" for the Marchese Clemente Vitelli, Florentine ambassador at Rome, 1700. Paper; ff. 422. Illustrated with 75 engraved portraits, mostly identical with those in Guarnacci, Vitæ Pontificum, 1751. Crimson morocco binding, well tooled. Quarto.

33,755. (Gr. lii.) "Hie hebt sich an das fuch des edelñ Ritters vñ landtfarers Marcho polo": a transcript from the rare edition in German of the Travels of Marco Polo printed at Nuremberg in 1477, taken from a copy in the Imperial Library at Vienna and certified as exact by B. Kopitar, "Biblioth. Palatinae Vindob. scriptor," 29 Aug. 1817. Preceded (f. 1) by a letter on the subject from the Chevalier Scotti to Lord ——; Vienna, 20 Sept. 1817. Paper; ff. 59. Folio.

33,756. (Gr. li.) "Memoriale del viaggio di frate Oderigo di Friuli": an Italian version of the travels to Cathay, etc., circ. 1318–1330, of the Franciscan Odoric of Pordenone, or Friuli, transcribed by the Cavaliere Alessandro di Mortara from an ancient copy in his own possession. Neither this transcript nor its original is mentioned in Col. H. Yule's Cathay and the Way Thither, 1866, or in H. Cordier's Odoric de Pordenone, Paris, 1891. Paper; ff. 27. Early XIXth cent. Folio.

33,792. THE HUNDREDTH PSALM, for four voices with orchestral accompaniment, by Johann Adam Hiller; 1794. In full score, followed by the separate parts. Paper; ff. 69. Small Folio. Transferred from the Department of Printed Books.

33,793. "COLLECTION de Portraits et Médaillons de cheveux de Louis XVI., de la partie de sa famille renfermée avec lui dans la Tour du Temple, et des Princes de son auguste race réunis dans le moment en Angleterre," consisting of pen-and-ink portraits, elaborately designed and executed by [Alexandre César Anibal Firmin], Marquis de Sy, together with locks of hair of the following persons:—Louis XVI., f. 9;—Marie Antoinette, f. 11;—Louis XVII., f. 13;—Elisabeth Philippe Marie Helène [Madame Elisabeth], dau. of Louis XVI., f. 15;—Marie Thérèse Charlotte, Duchesse d'Angoulême, dau. of Louis XVI., f. 17;—Louis XVIII., f. 23;—Marie Josephine Louise de Savoie, wife of Louis XVIII., f. 25;—Charles Philippe [Charles X. in 1824], f. 27;—Louis Antoine, Duc d'Angoulême, f. 29;—Charles Ferdinand, Duc de Berry, f. 31;—Louis Joseph, Prince de Condé, f. 34;—Louis Joseph, Duc de Bourbon, f. 36;—Louis Antoine Henri de Bourbon, Duc d'Enghien, f. 38;—and Henri Essex Edgeworth, Abbé de Firmont, Confessor to Louis XVI., f. 39 b. The last portrait is followed by "Relation faite par Mr. l'Abbé Edgeworth, sur les derniers momens du Roi," which account was printed in Memoirs of the Abbé Edgeworth, by C. S. Edgeworth, London, 1815, an engraving from the portrait in this MS. forming the frontispiece. At f. 18 b is a copy of the will of Louis XVI., 25 Dec. 1792; and at ff. 50–60 are "Notices sur les Portraits et épigraphes contenus dans cet ouvrage."

From the introductory remarks of the Marquis de Sy (f. 2), in which he also explains the meanings of the various allegorical designs, it appears that the idea of the work was conceived by [Armand Louis] Duc de Serent, one of the French exiles who accompanied Louis XVIII. to England, and that the Marquis de Sy, another French exile, was commissioned by him to carry out his designs. The volume was destined as a gift to [George Grenville] Marquis of Buckingham, in recognition of his kindness to Louis XVIII. during his residence at Hartwell, near Aylesbury, and to the French Princes and Nobles who shared his exile. The Marquis of Buckingham, however, died in February 1813, apparently before the work was completed, and the MS. eventually was presented to the British Museum in 1814. The Duc de Serent's introductory epistle is given at f. 5 b, and bears his signature. Some notes in his handwriting also appear at the beginning of the volume.

Paper; ff. 60. Bound in purple morocco, with gilt tooling; in the centre the royal arms of France enclosed in a circle of fleurs-de-lis, the inner covers lined with brown watered silk ornamented with fleurs-de-lis and the Marquis of Buckingham's crest, a garb, with coronet. The binding is the work of — Hering, acting under the direction of [François Philibert Bertrand Nompar] Comte de Caumont; 1813. Atlas Quarto. Presented in 1814 by the Duc de Serent.

33,794. "Raccolta di composizioni a Clori in morte del di lei quaglio": sonnets, canzons, madrigals, and other poems addressed to Chloris on the death of a pet quail. Chiefly in Italian, with a few in Latin and one in French. Preceded by a dedication to Chloris, signed "Ergasto fra gli Infocati," and an "Orazione dello Raccoglitore," both in prose. Illustrated by 37 pen-and-ink drawings, attributed in a modern pencil note on the fly-leaf (f. 1) to Pierantonio Novelli. At the foot of the titlepage is "In Venezia. Dalla Stamparia degl' Ideali. MDCCLXIV.," as if the work was intended for the press, or had been copied from a printed volume. Paper; ff. 67. Quarto. Transferred from the Dept. of Printed Books.

2. Part of full score of "Snap-Apple Night." (See also Add. 33,816, f. 181.) f. 148.

3. "A Day at Turin," in full score and with an additional pianoforte score. Anonymous. Autograph. Balfe was one of the performers in this opera; and from the words "Balfe, Esq. sole lessee" on f. 190, it must have been written in or soon after 1841, when he became manager of the Lyceum. At the end is a list of employés of the theatre in, or soon after, 1846. f. 155.

Paper; ff. 242. XIXth cent. Folio.

33,932. SATIRICAL POEM on the magistrates of the Tower Hamlets, accompanied by a letter addressed apparently to [Hugh (Smithson) Percy] Duke of Northumberland, Lord Lieutenant of co. Middlesex; circ. 1780. Draft. Paper; ff. 86. Quarto.

33,933. CONTRA-TENOR PART of the music to the Scottish Metrical Psalter of 1566, etc., written by Thomas Wode, afterwards [1576] Vicar of St. Andrews. The other three parts are in the University Library at Edinburgh, having formerly belonged to David Laing. Wode appears to have made two copies of the parts, and this volume probably belongs to the later one, which was written in 1575–8. The references to "my lord of marche" (e.g. f. 58) must have been inserted after 1582, when Robert Stewart, formerly prior of St. Andrews, was granted the Earldom of March, in exchange for that of Lennox.

The version is the same as that employed by Henry Charteris in the edition of the Psalmes of David in metre according as they are Sung in the Kirk of Scotland, Edinburgh, 1595. The Psalms to which tunes are given are also the same, except that Ps. cxxxvi. is omitted by Wode in his copy, and special tunes are added for Pss. xlix. and cxiv.; but the harmonies differ considerably from those of the Psalter of 1635.

The volume has been very much damaged, portions of many of the leaves being torn off for the sake of the illuminated letters (which are, however, very roughly executed), while others, including the first six, are lost altogether, as indicated at the end of the MS.

Scottish Psalter of 1566, Edinburgh, 1871, and Rev. Neil Livingston's Scottish Metrical Psalter of 1635, p. 54 of the Illustrative Dissertations.

The contents of the MS. are as follows:—

I. The Psalter, being the music to a metrical version of about 110 of the Psalms (as far as can be calculated in the dilapidated state of the volume), with the words of the first verses, "set in iiii partes be . . . . Dauid Peables," with the exception of, at least, Ps. cxxviii., which was "set and notit be Jhone bughen of my vnwitting." Bughen appears to have borrowed the volumes before the music was filled in (see f. 14, where the tune of Ps. lxvii. is written in his hand). f. 1.

II. The Canticles, etc., viz.:—

1. "Cvm holy Ghost eternall" [Andrew Kemp]. f. 42 b.
2. The "Magnificat," the beginning being torn out [John Angus]. f. 43.
3. "The sang of Simion" [John Angus]: "O Lord because my harts desire." f. 43.
4. "The Creid of Anathasius" [John Angus]: "Vhat man soeuer he be that saluatioun will attayne." f. 43 b.
5. "The lamentation of a sinner": "Lord turne not awaye thy face." f. 44.
6. "The lords prayer": "Ovr Father whiche in heauen art." f. 44 b.
7. "The ten commandimentis": "Harke Israell, and what I saye geue head." f. 45.
8. "The complaint of a sinner" [Andrew Kemp]: "Where righteousnes doth say." f. 45 b.
9. "The ten commandimentis vtherwayis" [John Angus]: "Attend my people and giue eare." f. 46.
10. "The sang of Simion" [John Angus]: "Now suffer me o Lord" (part torn off). f. 46 b.
11. "The lords prayer" [John Angus]: "Our Father which in heauen art." f. 46 b.
12. "The beleiff" [John Angus]: "Al my beliefe and confidence." f. 47.
13. "Da pacem Domine" [John Angus]: "Giue peace in these our dayes o Lord" (end torn off). f. 47 b.
14. "A prayar" [Andrew Blakehall]: ["Preserue vs Lord by thy] deere worde" (beginning torn off). f. 48 b.
15. "The sang of ambrose [and Augusteine] set in 4 partis voluntary, ... be Andro Kemp sumtyme maister of the sang scule in sanctandrous" (the first line and part of the second page torn off). f. 48 b.
16. "Haue mercy God for thy great mercies sake" (apparently not in the other part-books) . . . "Maister Gudman sumtyme minister

17. "Of mercye and of iudgement bothe," by M. A[ndrew] Blakehall (part of fifth page torn off). f. 54.

III. The remaining portion of Wode's manuscript in this volume (ff. 56 b–81) corresponds with the first 33 pages of his "Fyft Buke, addit to the four Psalme Bukkis, for Songis of four or fyue Pairtis," of which the earlier copy (at Trinity College, Dublin) is dated 1569. The tenor and treble clefs are used occasionally. It contains:—

1. "Aspice Domine," in 5 parts (beginning and middle torn off). f. 56 b.
2. Psalm iii.: "Quam multi domine" (not in the supplemental volume), in 4 parts. "The letter of this sang wes geuin be my lord of marche to Dauid pables" (beginning torn off). f. 57 b.
3. "Ane: Singular: Auld: Sang: iiii Partis" (not in the Supplement): "When shall my sorow" (middle torn off). f. 60.
4. "Psalme cxxviii set be maister Andro Blakehall minister": "Blessed art thou that fearis God" (beginning torn off). f. 60 b.
5. Another copy of Peables' "Quam multi domine" (see f. 57 b), with the date 1576 added at the end. f. 63.
6. "O god abufe so weill thou hes deuysde," composed by "Shir Ihone futhy the first new fingerit organeist that euer wes in Scotland." f. 65.
7. "Domine in virtute tua," in 5 parts, "set in ingland be ane Scottis preist, being diletit to haue beine ane heretyke fled thair lang before reformation; thomas hutsons father now wyth the king kend him." f. 66.
8. "Omnes gentes attendite," in 5 parts. f. 69.
9. "Deus miseriatur nostri," in 4 parts. f. 70.
10. "XLIII Psalme, v pairtis, set be blakhall": "Judge and reuenge my cause o lord." f. 71 b.
11. "In nomine iii partis vpon the plaine sang." f. 73.
12. "In nomine be ane vther and vpon this sam plaine sang." f. 73 b.
13. "Qui consolabatur" (sic) . . . "v pairtis, bot I neuer had the fyft part." The words are omitted. f. 74.
14. "Si quis diligit me," in 5 parts.—"Dauid pables set it in 4 partis 1530 and ane noueice [Francis Heagy] maid the 5." f. 75.
15. "Descendi in ortum meum," in 4 parts. f. 76.
16. The Hosanna from an Italian mass, in 4 parts, without the words (not in the Supplement). f. 76 b.
17. "O parsi sparsi," in 4 parts (not in the Supplement). Italian. f. 77.
18. "Susane vn iour," in 5 parts. Italian. f. 77 b.

19. "Vn iour," in 4 parts.—"This pairt is notit also into the fyft buke" (i.e. the supplemental volume). f. 78 b.
20. "Ane Italian sang iiii pairtis callit Ecco d'oro l'etá" (not in the Supplement). f. 79 b.
21. Three "pauens" or pavans in 4 parts, viz.:—Prince Edward's, the queen of England's, and another (none of them in the Supplement). f. 80.

At the end (f. 81) is written "correctit according to the copy that I had; as of all vther sangis zee haue heir .... the maist part hes beine sung of auld ...."

IV. The remainder of the volume consists of single parts (mostly contra-tenor) of some anonymous secular airs, which, like those at the end of the volumes forming the original set, have been added in an early 17th-century hand. They are:—1. "What is a day or a month or a yeir." f. 81 b;—2. "Earth is but a poynt." f. 81 b;—3. Some short English pieces, of which only the opening words are given. ff. 82–86;—4. The Pleugh song, beg. "My heartie service to yow my lord." f. 87;—5. "All sons of Adam," a Christmas carol. f. 89 b;—6. "Trip and goe hey," a Christmas medley. f. 90 b.

Paper; ff. 93. A.D. 1575–8. Octavo.

33,934. 1. "COMPENDIUM THEOLOGYE"; in seven books, with a table of chapters at the end (f. 273). The subjects treated and the arrangement agree very closely with Arundel MS. 336; but the treatment is much fuller. Imperfect; beginning in the middle of Book i., ch. 9, and pages between ff. 81 and 82, 150 and 151, and 199 and 200 having been torn out for the sake of the illuminated initials. f. 1.

2. Raymundi de Pennaforti Summa de Penitentia et matrimonio; in four books, with a table of chapters before each. Imperfect; ending in the middle of Book iv., ch. 20. The text differs very much from the edition printed at Rome in 1603, and from other MSS. in the Museum. f. 27 b.

Vellum; ff. 368. Written in France, XIIIth cent. With initials coloured in red and blue throughout, and, at the beginning of Books ii., iv., and vii. of art. 1, illuminated initials in gold, red, and blue. The names Stanley Mevrik and Edmund Mouricke in late 16th-century hands occur on ff. 331 and 367 b, and the MS. also belonged to [Dr.] A[ndrew] Gifford, Librarian in the British Museum (ob. 1784). Duodecimo.

33,935–33,937. CORRESPONDENCE of the family of Moreton of Moreton, co. Chester; temp. Henr. VII.—1765. Three volumes. Vol. I. (ff. 357). temp. Henr. VII.—1631;—Vol. II. (ff. 276). 1632–1642;—Vol. III. (ff. 232). 1643–1765. The names of the writers will Certified in Madrid, same date, as transmitted by Gamboa to the Commission by the hand of Padre Francisco de Herrera. f. 347.

Paper; ff. 351. Folio. Presented by the Earl of Northbrook.

33,984. "THE DREAM of Gerontius," by Cardinal John Henry Newman: "The original MS. . . . given by the Cardinal to the present owner F. M. Taylor, The Convent, Brentford." This is the copy sent to press. It is in the hand of a secretary, and has a few autograph alterations and instructions by the author. At f. 19 is an undated note from him to Messrs. Robson. The poem was first printed in 1866, the Dedication being dated in 1865. Paper; ff. 31. Folio.

33,985–33,990. ORIGINAL ACCOMPTS of the College of St. Mary, Mettingham, co. Suffolk; 4 Hen. IV.—7 Hen. VIII. [1402–1516]. Latin. The college was originally founded at Raveningham, co. Norfolk, in 1343, removed to Norton Subcourse, co. Norfolk, in 1371, and transferred to Mettingham in 1382. Six volumes. Vol. IV. contains (ff. 100–141) an Extent of Bungay Manor, co. Suffolk, 32 Hen. VI. [1453–4], preceded (f. 94) by the transcript of a general pardon in English from Henry [VIII.] to Elizabeth Stevenson, Prioress, and to the Priory of Bungay, 2 July, a° 2 [1510]. In Vol. V. (ff. 128, 142 b) are two Latin hymns, or more probably two parts of one hymn, with musical notation. See also ff. 181, 182. Paper; ff. 144, 138, 205, 144, 183, 153. Formerly belonged to Thomas Martin, of Palgrave (ob. 1771), and Thomas Manning, and lately to Charles Robertson Manning, Rector of Diss. The Register of the College, which perhaps formed part of this set, and was in the possession of T. Martin of Palgrave, is now Stowe MS. 934. Quarto.

33,991. 1. GIRALDI CAMBRENSIS Topographia Hibernica. f. 3. Imperf., beg. with the words "Qui tandem ad corpora in terris" in Dist. i. cap. 20 (Gir. Camb. Opera, Rolls ed., vol. v. p. 53). The text appears to be that of the second or third edition. At the end (f. 26) is a rude map, coloured green edged with red, of Britain, Ireland, and the Orkneys, much resembling that in Arundel MS. 14, f. 27 b (ed. cit., p. xviii.); and below it is the letter of Giraldus addressed to William [de Vere], Bishop of Hereford [1186–1199], found by Mr. Dimock (ed. cit. p. 203) in four MSS. only.

2. Petri Alfunsi Disciplina Clericalis: a fragment, comprising the Invocation, Introduction, and the opening words of the work (cf. Cat. of Romances, vol. ii. p. 232). f. 27.

3. "Excerpta prime et secunde partis de libris sacramentorum magistri Hugonis de Sancto Victore, de quo dictum est 'Huic patuit soli scibile quicquid erat,'" beg. "Introducendis ad sacram scripturam." f. 28.

On paper leaves at the end (ff. 46–49) are copies by Sir James Ware of Latin inscriptions from churches in Dublin, and one in Irish from Tuam Cathedral.

Vellum, and (ff. 1, 2, 46–49) paper; ff. 49. The original portion (ff. 3–45) is written in double columns, each article in a different hand, of the XIIIth cent. Bound in brown leather, rebacked, stamped with the arms of Sir James Ware (ob. 1666). The same covers formerly contained also nos. 33,992–33,994, and a list of the full contents is here given (f. 2), headed "Vol. VIII." The volume is included under that number in the Catalogue of Sir J. Ware's MSS. printed at Dublin in 1648, p. 5. It afterwards belonged to Henry Hyde, 2nd Earl of Clarendon (Cat. libr. MSS. Angliæ, Oxon. 1697, vol. ii. pt. 2, p. 4), and to John Brydges, 1st Duke of Chandos (Sale Catalogue, 1746–7, p. 65, no. 1569). It contains the book-plates of [John Rawdon, 1st] Earl of Moira (1750, ob. 1793), and William Horatio Crawford, of Lakelands, Cork. Small Quarto.

33,992. 1. CALENDAR, of Dominican use, originally no doubt forming part of a Service-book. Among the festivals marked "totum duplex" are:—29 Apr., "Beati Petri martyris de ordine predicatorum" (ob. 1252); 24 May, "Translacio beati Dominici"; 5 (sic) Aug., "Beati Dominici confessoris"; 25 Aug., St. Louis, King and Confessor. On 5 Sept. is "Anniuersarium familiarum et benefactorum ordinis nostri"; and on 10 Oct., "Anniuersarium omnium fratrum ordinis nostri." For these two Dominican entries cf. Add. 23,935, f. 48. The following obits have been inserted:—23 Feb., James I. of Scotland, 1436[7]; 10 Mar., David Lindsay, Earl of Crawford, 1406[7]; 19 Apr., Robert II. of Scotland, "Senescalli," 1390; 7 June, Robert I. of Scotland, "de Bruys," 1329; 10 Aug., Patrick [Graham], Earl of Strathern, 1412; Oct., Eufemia [Stewart], Countess of Strathern [wife of Patrick Graham], 1415; 18 Nov., Sir Henry de Douglas, 1392. Against 19 June is written in the margin ["Translatio] Margarete Regine," i.e. St. Margaret, A.D. 1251. Under 7 July is inserted "Altare huius hospitalis hac die dedicatum fuit per . . .

Willelmum [Gordon], Aberdonensem Episcopum, anno a Christo nato quadragesimo nono sesquemillesimo" [sc. 1549], the hospital referred to being probably either that of St. Peter or that of St. Thomas, at Aberdeen.

2. Letters Patent of Edward I. to John Wogan, Justiciary of Ireland, commanding him to deliver the temporalities of the see of Ossory to William FitzJohn, as soon as his election should be confirmed by the Archbishop of Dublin; Westminster, 24 Oct. a° 30 [1302]. Followed by a letter from R[ichard de Ferings], Archbishop of Dublin, to the king, giving the required confirmation; London, 25 Oct. 1302. Lat. Contemporary copies. f. 7.

Vellum; ff. 7. XIVth cent. Art. 1 was written in France, and is ornamented with borders and miniatures, the former of leaf-work, with birds and grotesques, the latter representing the zodiacal signs and occupations peculiar to the several months, all delicately executed, but much rubbed and otherwise injured. See above, under Add. 33,991. Small Quarto.

33,993. TALES and other pieces, in Irish, as follows:—

1. Táin bó Regamain: the Cattle-raid of Regamon. f. 1. See Whitley Stokes and E. Windisch, Irische Texte, 2nd series, Heft ii., Leipzig, 1887, p. 225.
2. Táin bó Dartada: the Cattle-raid of Dartaid. f. 1 b. See Irische Texte, as above, p. 189.
3. Siabur-Charpat Con Culaind: Cuchullin's supernatural chariot. Imperfect at the end (one or more leaves being lost after f. 3). f. 2 b. See J. O'Beirne Crowe, in the Journal of the Hist. and Arch. Soc. of Ireland, 4th series, vol. i., 1871, pp. 374–380.
4. Tochmarc Etáine: the Wooing of Etain, etc. ff. 4–5 b. See Egerton 1782, ff. 106–109 b, and Irische Texte, vol. i. 1880, p. 117.
5. The beginning of the Book of Sir John Mandeville (cf. Egerton 1781, ff. 129–130). ff. 6–7.

The rest of the volume is filled with poems (elegies, etc.), dealing chiefly with families of the old English stock in Ireland, as the Cantwells, Purcells, etc. (including an elegy, at f. 8 b, on John Cantwell, Archbishop of Cashel 1450–1482); and with various scholastic fragments. A fuller description will be given in the Catalogue of Irish MSS.

Vellum; ff. 29. Late XVth cent. Owned in the 17th century by "Cahill Conwye" (see f. 5). See also above, under Add. 33,991. Small Quarto.

33,994. 1. SHORT TREATISE on the history of the Irish language. Latin. Partly in the same hand, of the 17th cent., as the next article, and perhaps intended as introductory to it. f. 1.

2. "Excellencias de la Ibernia, Irlanda, o Escocia mayor, que todas son unas": consisting mainly of notes on the early Church history of Ireland. Spanish. f. 3.

3. "De officio Admirallitatis Anglie vna cum articulis concernentibus idem officium"; translated from the French by Thomas Rowghton de Rowghton. Printed (16th cent.?) in black-letter, but not the same edition as that dated "[1540?]" in the Museum Catalogue of Printed Books. Imperfect, wanting a leaf at the end. f. 8.

4. Allegorical poem in alliterative verse, in which the personages are Age, Mideleld, and Youth; Age introduces into his discourse the lives of the Nine Worthies. Imperfect at the beginning. f. 19. A perfect copy, with the title "The parlement of the thre Ages," is in Add. 31,042, f. 169.

Begins (cf. Add. 31,042, f. 171 b, l. 22):—

"Than fauconers ful frely foundyn hem aftur,
To helpyn þer hawks þay hyen hem yerne."

Ends:—

"And Mary þat is myld quene amend vs of oure mysse."

Followed, in the same hand, of the 15th cent., by a short list, "An heerd of hertis . . . An Jye of ffesauntz," etc., headed "Distretacio Rerum." Cf. Dame Juliana Bernes' Boke of Huntynge (at sig. e, iii b of W. de Worde's ed., 1496). f. 26 b.

Paper; ff. 26. xvth–xviith centt. See above under Add. 33,991. Small Quarto.

33,995. Religious Poems, in English:—

1. The Mirror of Life, by William of Nassyngton, beg. "Almyghty Godde in trynyte | In wham anely er persons thre." f. 1. In the present copy the concluding passage, which in Roy. 17 C. viii. (f. 335 b) asks the reader to pray "for freere John saule of Waldby" who "made þis tale in latyn right," and also "for William saule of Nassyngton" who "made þis tale in ynglys tonge," merely desires the readers

"þat yhe pray for hym bathe alde and yhung
þat turned þis boke to Inglisshe tung
Whare so he be and in what stede
Whethir he lif or he be dede."

2. Poem on Hell, Purgatory, Heaven, the misery of human life, etc., in eight-line stanzas, rhyming alternately. f. 96 b.

Begins:—

"Almyghty Godde in Trinyte | Fader and sone and þe haly gast
þat es a godde and persones thre | and a sothfast lorde of myghtes mast."

Ends:—

"Dose now als yhe haf herde me say | Bot for þe luf of our lorde Jhesu

Another copy is in Add. 10,053, f. 69; the present copy wants four lines on f. 101 and two on f. 101 b, owing to the mutilation of the leaf.

3. "Pryk of Conscience," by Richard Rolle of Hampole, beg.: "þe might of þe fadir allemighty." Edited by Richard Morris for the Philological Society (Berlin, 1863). f. 102.
4. "Bande of Louyng": a religious poem, beg.: "A louerd God of might mast | Fader and son and haly gast." Printed in Religious Pieces in Prose and Verse (ed. G. G. Perry, Early Eng. Text Soc., 1867), p. 60, from a copy in the heading of which the authorship is ascribed to William of Nassyngton. Imperfect, breaking off at line 328. f. 155.

The last two lines here are:—

"Louerd Ihesu Crist yhit thank I þe þat alle þis and mar has done for me."

Vellum; ff. 157. Late XIVth cent. At the end (f. 157) is a leaf from a Latin treatise on law. Belonged to William Horatio Crawford, of Lakelands, Cork. Folio.

33,996. MEDICAL MISCELLANY, in Latin, English, and French, the more important pieces being as follows:—

1. List of drugs, with their prices. f. 2.
2. Verses on the temperaments: 44 lines, partly hexameters and partly elegiacs, beg. "Sanguineus. Largus amans hillaris ridens rubiique coloris." f. 2 b.
3. Treatise in two parts, beg. "Opusculi huius series circa quedam membrorum remedia." f. 7. Each part is preceded by a table of contents. Part i. (which is imperfect) begins, "Dolor capitis multis modis accidit." Part ii. is headed (f. 29 b), "Incipit secunda particula in qua proponit auctor tractare de omnibus wlneribus in humano corpore factis a vertice capitis vsque ad plantam pedis"; it begins (f. 30 b), "Vulnus capitis aliquando fit." Colophon: "Explicit iste tractatus compilatus a Cyrurgia Rolandini . Rogerini . Gilbertini nec non et quatuor Magistrorum." f. 49.
4. "Specialis tractatus ad omnia wlnera sananda." f. 51.
5. Treatise headed, "Nunc dicendum est de omnibus vnguentis . tractibus . emplastris . nec non et pulueribus ad Cyrurgiam pertinentibus." f. 54. With colophon (f. 69), "Explicit . Nomen scriptoris Henricus Plenus Amoris," the hand being the same as that of artt. 3, 4.

6. A collection of recipes and charms, in English. f. 80 b.

7. A work on medicine. Imperfect at the beginning. f. 149. The first part (ff. 149–168 b) consists of short notes and recipes, in Engl., Fr., and Lat. (but from f. 160 onwards in Lat. only), without any apparent order. At f. 168 b begins a regular treatise, "Epilensia dicitur ab epi, quod est supra," etc., with colophon (f. 210 b), "Explicit rosula medicine secundum M[agistrum] J[ohannem] de Gatesdene." John de Gatesden or Gaddesden (fl. 1320) was a Fellow of Merton College, Oxford, and the author of several medical works, the best known of which is the Rosa Anglica; this was edited by Nicolas Scyllacius (Pavia, 1492), and again by Philip Schopf (Augsburg, 1595). For an account of it, and of the author's life, see Freind's History of Medicine (Joh. Freind Opera Omnia, London, 1733, pp. 550–555); see also G. C. Brodrick, Memorials of Merton College (Oxford Hist. Soc., 1885), p. 176. The present article appears to be an abridgment of Gatesden's work by some later writer, Gatesden being referred to (see ff. 170, 171 b).
The rest of the volume is filled with medical notes, charms, and recipes, chiefly in Engl. and Lat., with a few in Fr., in various hands of the 15th cent. (with a few later additions, of the 16th cent.).
Vellum; ff. 215. xvth cent. With book-plate of William Horatio Crawford, of Lakelands, Cork. Small Octavo.

33,997. Book of Hours, in Latin, containing:—Calendar. f. 1;—"Officium beate Marie Virginis." f. 13;—"Officium mortuorum." f. 93;—"Canticum graduum." f. 141 b;—"Psalmi Penitentiales." f. 157;—"Officium Crucis." f. 185;—"Oratio devotissima pro persona propria": a prayer made in the name of one Smeralda. f. 223 b. Vellum; ff. 224. Beautifully written and illuminated, in Italy, late in the xvth cent. On ff. 13, 93, 157, 185 are elaborate borders: foliage, etc., of gold on grounds of red, blue and green, with amorini, and medallions containing busts of saints; the initials enclosing miniatures of the Virgin, Death, David, and the Passion. Numerous other floreated borders and figure-initials occur elsewhere. The Calendar is in letters of blue and gold. Among the festivals are those of SS. Constantius (30 Jan.), Herculinus (1 Mar.), and Ubaldus (16 May), Bishops of Perugia, the Canonization (1446) of St. Nicholas of Tolentino (5 June), and St. Bernardino the Confessor (can. 1450, 20 May). The festival of the last named, in whose honour a confraternity was founded at Perugia in 1456 (see its Capitoli, Perugia, 1565), is in gold. It may be inferred therefore that the

The pieces then printed were indicated in pencil by W. H. [perhaps William Hawes], in 1824 (see f. 27 b). Paper; ff. 90. XVIIIth cent. Obl. Octavo.

34,059. EVANGELISTARIUM, or Gospel-lessons throughout the year, beginning at Easter, in Greek. With a few "ἀναγνώσματα διάφορα," or Gospels for special occasions, at the end. Vellum; ff. 238 (f. 184, of paper, being supplied). Written in double columns; with headings and ornamental initials in red. XIIth cent. Quarto.

34,060. COLLECTIONS of canons, with theological, liturgical, and historical pieces, and a few letters bearing on the relations between the Eastern and Western Churches in the 11th cent. Greek. The volume is mostly of the 15th cent., but incorporates (ff. 511–579) a portion of a 12th cent. MS.

1. Fragment of a Triodion, or Book of Offices from the third Sunday after Epiphany (Sunday of the Publican and Pharisee) to Easter eve; ending in the middle of the Office for Septuagesima Sunday (Sunday of the Prodigal Son). f. 2.
   This article (occupying a single quire, marked a) and the next two leaves (ff. 10, 11) did not originally form part of the volume, the old foliation of which (15th cent.) begins at what is now f. 12, while the first quire (ff. 12–19) is marked a.
2. Leaf of a Church-calendar from 1465 to 1474, giving the year of the world, the indiction, the cycles of the sun and of the moon, the moveable feasts, etc. f. 10.

3. "... Ματθαίου τοῦ Βλαστάρη ἔκθεσις συνοπτικὴ τῶν θείων καὶ ἱερῶν συνοδικῶν κανόνων καὶ τῶν ἐπὶ τούτοις πολιτικῶν νόμων κατὰ ἀλφάβητον": the "Syntagma Alphabeticum" of canons, by Matthæus Blastares (Migne, Patrol. Græca, cxliv. 953). f. 12.
Preceded (f. 11) by a single leaf of a table of contents, added later. The table proper, as usual, follows the preface (f. 23).
Inserted in the body of the work are the following:—

(a) Extract from the Chronicon of Georgius Hamartolus (lib. iii. 151–155, Migne, cx. 545), illustrating Blastares, B. cap. 4 (περὶ τῶν βαπτιζομένων ἐξ ἰουδαίων), with the story of the Jew who was baptized with sand in the desert (cf. Jo. Moschus, Pratum Spirituale, cap. 176, Migne, lxxxvii. 3043). f. 55 (included in the old foliation as μγ).

(b) "Ἀκολουθία τοῦ ἁγίου μύρου": Office of the Holy Oil (cf. Goar, Euchologium, 1647, p. 628). ff. 151, 152 (not in the old foliation).

(c) Plan of a circular Labyrinth, with a reference to one which Solomon "λίθοις ἐτεκτόιησε τορνοσυνθέτοις"; and, in another hand, a notice, taken from the Etymologicum Magnum (ed. Gaisford, 1848, p. 554), of the Labyrinth of Crete and of the metaphorical use of the word by St. Gregory [Nazianzen]. On the back of a leaf containing the Paschal table of Blastares, lit. P. f. 162 b.

(d) Circular table for finding Easter, over which, but upon a slip of paper pasted down on the leaf, is inscribed "ποίημα κυροῦ νηκηφόρου τοῦ ξανθοπούλου," sc. Nicephorus Callistus, the ecclesiastical historian (14th cent.). f. 163 (not in the old foliation).

4. "Οἰκτροῦ μοναστοῦ ταυτὶ ματθαίου θύτου τὰ ἐκκλησιαστικὰ ὀφφίκια": enumeration in verse by Matthæus Blastares of the ecclesiastical officials at Constantinople, followed by a similar poem on the officials of the court, "τὰ βασιλικὰ ὀφφίκια." Printed by Goar in his notes to Georgius Codinus de Officiis (cf. Migne, clvii. 129, 236). The present copy, however, has 30 additional lines after the second poem, headed "Ἐπίλογος" (cf. Lambecius, Comm. Bibl. Cæs. Vindobon., ed. Kollar, 1781, lib. vii. col. 983). f. 198 b.

5. "Περὶ γάμου καὶ συναφείας νομίμου θαυμαστή τις καὶ σαφὴς ἔκθεσις": on marriage and the degrees of consanguinity, beg. "Κεκώλυται ὁ γάμος οὗτος τοῦ μιχαὴλ μετὰ τῆς ἄννης." f. 200.
On f. 201 b is inserted an explanation of the peculiarities of the fourth plagal tone, headed "Πόθεν ὁ πλάγιος τοῦ τετάρτου ἦχος ἔχει τέσσαρα ἀντίφωνα."

6. "Περὶ τῶν τῆς συγγενείας βαθμῶν ἐκ τοῦ τρίτου βιβλίου τῶν ἰστιτούτων ἤτοι τῶν προισταμένων": on the degrees of consanguinity, beg. "Ἡ συγγένεια γενικὸν ἐστὶν ὄνομα" (cf. Instit. lib. iii. tit. 6). f. 202.

7. "Αἱ ὑποκείμεναι μητροπόλεις καὶ ἀρχιεπισκοπαὶ τῷ πατριαρχείῳ τῆς κωνσταντινουπόλεως εἰσὶν αὗται": list of sees subject to Constantinople. f. 204.

8. "Κανονικὸν τοῦ ἁγίου ἰωάννου τοῦ νηστευτοῦ + ἤμαψε ταῦτα πρὸς σύνοψιν ματθαῖος": the synopsis by Matthæus Blastares of the Canonicum or Nomocanon of Joannes Nesteutes. f. 206 b. With a table of contents, f. 205.

9. "Τοῦ μακαριωτάτου μητροπολίτου ἡρακλείας νικήτα ἀποκρίσεις πρός τινα κωνσταντῖνον ἐπίσκοπον περὶ ὧν ἠρωτήθη περὶ διγάμων": Nicetas, Archbishop of Heraclea, on bigamous marriages, etc. Differing somewhat from the version in Migne, cxix. 935. f. 211.

10. "Τοῦ ἐν ἁγίοις νικηφόρου κωνσταντινουπόλεως τοῦ ὁμολογητοῦ κανόνες," etc. (Migne, c. 855). f. 211 b.

11. "'Εκ τῶν ἀποκρίσεων ἰωάννου τοῦ ἱερωτάτου ἐπισκόπου κίτρους πρὸς τὸν ἱερώτατον ἐπίσκοπον Δυῤῥαχίου τὸν καβάσιλαν": answers of John, Bishop of Citrum, to questions of canon-law, only partially agreeing with those in Migne, cxix. 959. In the margin below the title is inscribed "Ματθαῖος ἔγνω ταυτὶ συντεταχέναι." f. 212 b.

12. "Τοῦ ἁγίου κυρίλλου τὰ κατὰ νεστορίου γενόμενα παρὰ τῆς τρίτης συνόδου κεφάλαια $\overline{\iota\beta}$": the twelve anathemas of Cyril against Nestorius at the Council of Ephesus (Mansi, Concilia, v. 1761, col. 3). f. 217.

13. "Περὶ σιλβανοῦ ἐπισκόπου τρωάδος," etc.: notice of Silvanus, Bishop of Troas, in relation to his establishment of a lay, in place of a clerical, tribunal (cf. Socrates, Hist. Eccl. vii. 37, Migne, lxvii. 824). f. 217 b.

14. "Κανόνες τῶν ἁγίων καὶ πανευφήμων ἀποστόλων": canons of the Apostles (Mansi, i. 1759, col. 29). f. 218.

15. Canons of Councils, viz.:—Nicæa, A.D. 325. f. 222;—Constantinople, A.D. 381. f. 224 b;—Ephesus, A.D. 431: eight canons. f. 226;—Chalcedon, A.D. 451. f. 227;—Constantinople, A.D. 692: in Trullo. f. 230;—Nicæa, A.D. 787. f. 244 b;—Constantinople, "ἐν τῷ ναῷ τῶν ἁγίων ἀποστόλων," A.D. 858. f. 248 b;—Constantinople, "ἐπὶ βασιλείου τοῦ μακεδόνος," A.D. 879. f. 252;—Ancyra, "ἐπὶ τῆς βασιλείας αὐρηλλιάνου." f. 252 b;—Neocæsarea, A.D. 314. f. 254;—Gangra. f. 255;—Antioch, A.D. 341. f. 255 b;—Laodicea. f. 258 b;—Sardica, A.D. 347. f. 260;—Carthage, "ἐπὶ τῆς βασιλείας θεοδωσίου τοῦ μικροῦ καὶ ὀνορίου," A.D. 419. The wording differs considerably from that in Migne, cxxxviii. 9. Followed (f. 279 b) by the epistle of the Council to Pope Boniface, "πρὸς βονιφαντὸν πάπαν ῥώμης" (ib. 429). f. 263 b.

16. "Διονυσίου ἀρχιεπισκόπου ἀλεξανδρείας ἐπιστολὴ πρὸς βασιλείδην ἐπίσκοπον, ἀποκρίσεις ἔχουσα περὶ διαφορῶν ἐρωτήσεων ὧν ἐζήτησεν ὁ ἐπίσκοπος": answers of St. Dionysius of Alexandria on questions of canon-law (Migne, x. 1271, cxxxviii. 455). f. 281.

17. "Πέτρου ἀρχιεπισκόπου ἀλεξανδρείας καὶ μάρτυρος περὶ τῶν ἐν τοῖς διωγμοῖς παραπεπτωκότων": canons of St. Peter of Alexandria (Migne, cxxxviii. 475). f. 282 b.

18. "Τοῦ ἁγίου γρηγορίου τοῦ θαυματουργοῦ περὶ τῶν ἐν αἰχμαλώσει εἰδωλόθυτα φαγόντων": canons of St. Gregory Thaumaturgus (ib. 517). f. 286.

19. "Ἀθανασίου τοῦ μεγάλου ἐπιστολὴ πρὸς Ἀμοῦν μονάζοντα": epistle of St. Athanasius to Amun (ib. 545). f. 287.

20. "Τοῦ αὐτοῦ ἐκ τῆς ἐννάτης (sic) ἑορταστικῆς ἐπιστολῆς": extract from the 39th Festal Epistle of St. Athanasius, on the Canonical Books (ib. 560). f. 288.

21. "Τοῦ αὐτοῦ ἐπιστολὴ πρὸς ῥουφινιανὸν ἐπίσκοπον": epistle of St. Athanasius to Rufinianus (ib. 565). f. 289.

22. "Τοῦ μεγάλου βασιλείου ἐπιστολαὶ κανωνικαὶ πρὸς τὸν ἅγιον ἀμφιλόχιον ἐπίσκοπον ἰκονίου": the three canonical epistles of St. Basil to Amphilochius, but with no division between them as in Migne's text (ib. 572–808). The scribe, moreover (f. 293 b), instead of copying the last canon of the first epistle (col. 641), has given the commentary of Zonaras upon it, ἠρωτήθη ὁ ἅγιος, κ.τ.λ. (col. 644), and then proceeds with the sentence ἠρώτησας ἡμᾶς, κ.τ.λ., of the second epistle (col. 645), the same being the case in Add. 17,474 (f. 276 b). f. 289 b.

Followed by other epistles, etc., of St. Basil on canonical questions, viz.:—"ἐκ τῆς πρὸς τὸν μακάριον ἀμφιλόχιον ἐπιστολῆς περὶ βρωμάτων διαφορᾶς": on difference of foods (Migne, cxxxviii. 808). f. 300;—"πρὸς διόδωρον ἐπίσκοπον ταρσοῦ περὶ τοῦ δύο ἀδελφὰς ἀγομένου εἰς γάμον": on marriage with a deceased wife's sister (ib. 809). f. 300;—"πρὸς γρηγόριον πρεσβύτερον ὥστε χωρισθῆναι αὐτὸν τοῦ συνεισάκτου γυναίου": against the scandal of a woman residing with a priest (ib. 821). f. 301 b;—"πρὸς τοὺς χωρεπισκόπους αὐτοῦ, ὥστε μὴ γίνεσθαι χωρὶς αὐτοῦ ὑπηρέτας": against uncanonical ordination (ib. 828). f. 301 b;—"πρὸς τοὺς ὑφ' ἑαυτὸν ἐπισκόπους, ὥστε μὴ χειροτονεῖν ἐπὶ χρήμασιν": against ordination for money (ib. 831). f. 302;—"ἐκ τοῦ κ̄ζ̄ κεφαλαίου τῶν περὶ τοῦ ἁγίου πνεύματος πρὸς τόν μακάριον ἀμφιλόχιον γεγραμμένων": on the Holy Spirit (ib. 840). f. 302 b;—"ἐκ κ̄θ̄ κεφ. τῆς αὐτῆς πραγματείας": on the same (ib. 849). f. 303 b.

23. "Τοῦ ἁγίου γρηγορίου ἐπισκόπου νύσσης ἐπιστολὴ κανονικὴ πρὸς λητοῖον ἐπίσκοπον μελιτινῆς": St. Gregory Nyssenus to St. Letoius of Melitene (ib. 852). f. 303.

24. "Τιμοθέου τοῦ ἁγιωτάτου ἀρχιεπισκόπου ἀλεξανδρείας ἀποκρίσεις πρὸς τινὰς ἐρωτήσεις προσενεχθείσας αὐτῷ παρά τινων ἐπισκόπων καὶ κληρικῶν": answers of Timothy I. of Alexandria to questions of canon-law (ib. 889). f. 307 b.

25. "Κανόνες θεοφίλου ἀρχιεπισκόπου ἀλεξανδρείας": canons of St. Theophilus of Alexandria (ib. 901–913), numbered continuously from ᾱ to ιδ̄, whereas in Migne's text the first and the last three are separate promulgations. Moreover, in place of canon ιᾱ (ῑ in Migne, 912) the sentence "ὅτι ἀφιλάργυρον . . . συνόδου" is given, which in Migne is part of the commentary of Balsamon (cf. Add. 17,474, f. 289 b). f. 308 b.

26. "Τοῦ ἁγίου κυρίλλου ἀρχιεπισκόπου ἀλεξανδρείας ἐπιστολὴ πρὸς δόμνον": epistle of St. Cyril to Domnus (ib. 916). f. 309 b;—"Τοῦ αὐτοῦ τοῖς κατὰ λιβύην καὶ πεντάπολιν ἐπισκόποις": the same to the bishops of Libya and Pentapolis (ib. 921). f. 310.

27. "Τοῦ ἁγίου γρηγορίου τοῦ θεολόγου ἐκ τῶν ἐπῶν περὶ τοῦ τίνα χρὴ βίβλια ἀναγινώσκεσθαι": verses of St. Gregory Nazianzen on the canon of the Bible (ib. 924). f. 310 b.

28. "Τοῦ ἁγίου ἀμφιλοχίου ἐπισκόπου ἰκονίου πρὸς σέλευκον περὶ τῆς αὐτῆς ὑποθέσεως": St. Amphilochius to Seleucus on the same subject (ib. 925). f. 311.

29. "Γενναδίου τοῦ ἁγιωτάτου πατριάρχου κωνσταντινουπόλεως ἐγκύκλιος ἐπιστολὴ πρὸς τὸν πάπαν ῥώμης": encyclical epistle of St. Gennadius of Constantinople to the Pope (ib. 929). f. 311 b.

30. "Ἀποκρίσεις συνοδικαὶ καὶ κανονικαὶ πρὸς ἐρωτήσεις τινὰς μοναχῶν ἀσκουμένων ἔξω τῆς πόλεως ἐπὶ τῆς βασιλείας κυρίου ἀλεξίου καὶ τοῦ πατριάρχου κυρίου νικολάου" [1084–1111]: questions and answers on points of monastic canon-law (ib. 937). f. 312 b.

31. "Συνοδικὴ διάγνωσις περὶ διαφόρων κεφαλαίων": a short collection of decisions similar to the preceding. f. 313.

32. "Ταρασίου τοῦ ἁγιωτάτου πατριάρχου κωνσταντινουπόλεως νεᾶς ῥώμης ἐπιστολὴ πρὸς ἀδρίανον πάπαν τῆς πρεσβυτέρας ῥώμης περὶ τοῦ μὴ ἐπὶ χρήμασι γίνεσθαι τὰς χειροτονίας": St. Tarasius against ordaining for money (Migne, xcviii. 1441, cf. cxxviii. 935). f. 313 b.

33. "Περὶ τοῦ ἐξ αἵματος ἑβδόμου βαθμοῦ κεφάλαια $\overline{\varepsilon}$": six short pieces on marriage in the seventh degree of consanguinity, beginning with a narrative of the controversy from the passing of a synodical decree "κατὰ τὸ $\overline{\varsigma\phi\mu\varsigma}$ ἔτος (sc. A.D. 1038), ἐκράτησε δὲ $\overline{\rho\lambda}$ χρόνους, ἕως τῶν ἡμερῶν δηλαδὴ τοῦ παναγιωτάτου πατριάρχου κυρίου λουκά," and including Chrysobulla of the emperors Manuel Comnenus and Isaac Angelus, and verses of Michael Psellus addressed to the Emperor Michael Ducas. f. 316.

34. "Χρυσόβουλλον τοῦ ἀοιδίμου βασιλέως κυρίου ἀλεξίου περὶ τῶν γυναικῶν τῶν μελλόντων γίνεσθαι ἐπισκόπων." Numbered $\overline{\mu\alpha}$, and followed by 13 other short pieces on various subjects, numbered from $\overline{\mu\beta}$ to $\overline{\nu\beta}$ (nos. 11 and 12 being unnumbered), e.g., "περὶ παρθένων γυναικῶν συζευγνυμένων ἀνδράσι παρὰ γνώμην τῶν γονέων αὐτῶν," "περὶ ἱερέων ἀπολεσάντων τοὺς ἄρτους," "περὶ μεταθέσεως ἐπισκόπων," etc. f. 317.

35. "Μελέτη κυρίου θεδώρου (sic) τοῦ βαλσαμὼν πατριάρχου ἀντιοχείας χάριν [τῆς εἰς] τοὺς θείους ναοὺς τῶν μοναστηρίων γινομένης μετακλήσεως διὰ σημαντηρίων τριῶν": explanation by Theodorus Balsamon of the use in monastic churches of three gongs to summon the congregation (Migne, cxxxviii. 1073). f. 320.

λειτουργίας τῶν προηγιασμένων": St. Theodorus Studita on the Liturgy of the Presanctified, beg. "Ἄκουσον δή μοι τέκνον" (Migne, xcix. 1088). f. 586.
Vellum (ff. 511–557, 563–579) and paper; ff. 588. The vellum portion of the MS. is in an early 12th-cent. hand, the rest in various hands of the 15th cent. One of the later scribes, Georgius Drazinus, has added a note (f. 579) that the MS. was completed by him in July, Indict. 1, 6946 (A.D. 1438). On the fly-leaf (f. 1) is a copy of a letter from Jeremias, Patriarch of Constantinople, to the priests of Crete, on abuses in administering the rite of baptism, dat. May, Indict. 4 (A.D. 1501 or 1516); and on the reverse (f. 1 b) is a curious note of the reception in Crete on 29 June, 1453, of the news of the taking of Constantinople by the Turks on 29 May. On the margins of f. 10 (cf. art. 2) are the obits of two abbats of the monastery of St. Mary τοῦ ἀγκαράθου or τῆς ἀκροάνθου, sc. Angarathus, in Crete (F. Corner, Creta Sacra, 1755, i. p. 221), viz. Nephon, ob. 15 Sept. 1559, and Germanus, ob. 10 Jan. 1579. Large Quarto.

34,061. Inscriptions on head-stones and tomb-stones in the church and churchyard of St. Mary's, Swansea, copied by Evan Daniel, sexton of the parish from 1832 to 1852. The dates of the inscriptions range from 1622 to 1856, with a very few additions for 1859 Followed by:—List of persons interred between the ages of 50 and 108 years. f. 137 b;—Lists of fees for vaults and services in the church from April, 1845, to Dec. 1848, and from May, 1836, to March, 1845. ff. 145 b, 208;—Alphabetical index to the inscriptions. f. 158. Interspersed throughout the volume are other details relating to interments. Paper; ff. 228. A.D. 1857. Folio.

34,062. "An Elegiacall Poem vpon the euer admired Life, and neuer sufficiently deplored Death of Thomas lord Gray, Baron of Wilton, deceased" (sc. Thomas Grey, 15th Baron Grey de Wilton, who died in the Tower, 9 July, 1614), by Robert Marston. This MS. is apparently in the same hand as the Grenville copy (see above, Add. MS. 33,750), but does not contain the prefatory epistle, and occasionally lines have been omitted, perhaps through the carelessness of the copyist, e.g. after l. 14 (f. 17 b, cf. 33,750, f. 24 b, l. 7) and again after l. 4 (f. 24, cf. 33,750, f. 31 b, ll. 5–8). On the other hand, this copy contains the whole of the poem, which in the other ends abruptly with the words "surest freind" (cf. present copy, f. 27 b, last line), and further contains the two pages there missing after f. 31 (cf. present copy, f. 24, l. 9—f. 25 b, l. 8). At the end (f. 34) is a poem called "The Elegie." Paper; ff. 36. A.D. 1614–21. On one of the fly-leaves (f. 3) is the inscription, "To the right honorable Henrie Lord Viscount Fawkeland, Anno 1736, including the day of his ordination (20 June). Holograph. The entries, written in an abbreviated form, consist very largely of religious self-communings. Paper; ff. 121. Duodecimo.

34,069. THEOLOGICAL and other tracts, etc., in Latin:—

1. Summula de summa Raymundi: an epitome, in rude hexameters, of the Summa of St. Raymond of Peñaforte. With a prose introduction and commentary. Headed "Incipit Ragimundus metricus S. Michael in Hildes[heim]." f. 2. Agreeing substantially with the editions printed by H. Quentell at Cologne in 1495, 1498, and 1500. The "Summula" has been ascribed by Fabricius and others to "Adamus quidam"; but the commentator ascribes it, though with hesitation, to Raymond himself (see sig. a iii. ed. 1495, and compare f. 2 b of this MS.).
2. Tract on canon law, with a short analysis of the Decretum of Gratian, and the heading of chapters of the Decretals compiled by Raymond of Peñaforte for Gregory IX. f. 228.
3. A collection of Sermons, with the colophon, "Anno incarnacionis domini m°cd [1400?] feria quarta infra octavas assumpcionis beate Marie virginis conpletus est liber iste." f. 234.
4. "Oracio de Sancto Disma bona": a prayer addressed to the Penitent Thief. f. 303.
5. Church hymns, with interlinear glosses. Imperfect at the end. f. 304. In most cases the initials have not been inserted.

34,107. THE FOUR GOSPELS, in Greek; with tables of κεφάλαια, Ammonian sections, and references to the Eusebian canons. Vellum (ff. 1–5 paper); ff. 213. XIth–XIIth cent.; S. Matth. i. 1–iii. 8 (ff. 2–5) supplied in a hand of the 15th cent., but the table of chapters omitted. Initials and tables in red, and a rudely-coloured headpiece to the last three Gospels. Binding (15th cent.) of wooden boards covered with dark leather, stamped; clasps of plaited thongs with brass tips. On the fly-leaf (f. 1 b) is a note (15th cent.) that the MS. belonged to the monastery of "ῥενδήνη" (? Rendina, in Thessaly). Small Quarto.

34,108. THE FOUR GOSPELS, in Greek; with arguments, tables of κεφάλαια, τίτλοι, Ammonian sections, references to the Eusebian canons, and indications of Lessons. Preceded by the Epistle of Eusebius to Carpianus, and the Canons, the latter being imperfect; and followed by a Synaxarion. The quire containing Luke iv. 3—viii. 19 was cut out in the 15th cent. (probably in consequence of a hole in the vellum interrupting the reading of the text), and the contents were re-written on thirteen inserted paper leaves. The discarded leaves however (except one, containing Luke v. 13–34) were used for stiffening the binding, and have now been restored to their proper place (ff. 77–83), the inserted leaves being bound in at the end (ff. 149–161). The greater part of the original Synaxarion (which is still imperfect) has been recovered from the binding in the same way (ff. 141–148), the inserted paper leaves being now ff. 162–175. Vellum (ff. 149–175 paper); ff. 175. XIIth and (ff. 149–175) XVth centt. Titles, initials, etc., in red, and ornamental headpieces. Quarto.

34,109. Miscellaneous pieces in verse and prose, comprising epitaphs, recipes, satires, political squibs, poems, etc., in English and French. Paper; ff. 101. xviiith–xixth centt. Folio. Presented by A. W. Franks, Esq., C.B.

34,110. Accompt-book of the Overseers of "Parishe [sc. Paris] Gardens Liberty," in the parish of St. Saviour, Southwark, from 17 May, 1608, to 30 Sept. 1671. Among items of interest are several entries relating to the Swan Playhouse, 1611–1621. ff. 8–12, 19;—to a collection for building a church in Prague in Bohemia, 1620, 1623. ff. 18, 21;—and to sums lent from the parish chest on jewellery and other pledges.

The name of John Lowen al. Lowin appears as an overseer on ff. 16, 25 b, 26, 27, 28 b, 29, 32; and on f. 41 occurs the name of Thomas Guy, in connection with the sale of coal. This is Thomas Guy, the father of the Founder of Guy's Hospital, described in the Dict. of National Biography as "lighterman and coalmonger."

Paper; ff. 47. The first thirteen leaves are much mutilated. Folio.

34,111. Medical Miscellany, consisting of translations and extracts from various authors. From allusions in two places (ff. 114, 169) to Master William, and in one place (f. 174) to Master William Somers, it is probable that the book was compiled for his use or under his direction. The MS. commences, "Now it is to know þe names of þe bokes þat bien ywryte and contyend in þis volume, þe whyche bokes Galyen and Ypocras han ymade and oþer maysters also. And ate þe first it is to be gynne and to spek of þe chapetres þat bien in euery boke þat stondeþ be ordre." Then follow the names of the books distinguished by letters A–S. On ff. 1 b–30 b are given the heads of chapters of each book, followed on f. 31 by the contents of the books themselves. The last three, however, mentioned in the first list,—namely, Q. Liber herbarum nomine Macer, R. Liber urinarum, and S. Nomina herbarum—are now missing, only the beginning of Q remaining on the last page (f. 238 b).

The main contents are as follows:—

1. "Liber de medicinis et electuariis." f. 31. On ff. 36 b, 37 is the figure of a man with description of the zodiacal influences on the various parts of the body, and on f. 38 are twenty-one hexameter lines in Latin, headed, "Here bigynnen verses of man from þe cop of þe heued doune to þe sole of þe fote." The following remark appears in the text on f. 39 b, "þis medicine made hole Frere Johan de Alba Landa of þe cardiacke."
2. "Speculum medicorum," or "Cum animadverterem," beg. "Her begynneth a boke þat is clepid þe spectacle of medicines wyche wysemen ad seen for helþ of mannes body, and þis boke was made and icompild of diuers auctours." f. 40. Preceded by eleven introductory elegiac lines in Latin, with translation. On f. 51 b is the paragraph, "I be hight in þe begynning of þis litel boke for to agone doune to þe sole of þe fote from þe coppe of þe heued, ȝif þat it hadde lykyd vnto me, Bote for I am broght in sekenesse and may noȝt geder alle þinges, And alle medicines endyd þat bien from þe heued þat is þe begynnyng of all þe body vnto þe chekes of þe þrote, Bote neuere þe lesse all þo þinges þat bien most profitable vnto þe forsaid I haue done my diligence to saue and helpen þat bien in sekenesse broȝt"; and on f. 55 b, "þat we haue behight in þis litel boke be oure power we haue broght it to hende." After this follows, "Alphan Arcebysshope seyþ þat þer bien iij dayes in þe twelmonþ, þe first mononday of Aprille, þe secounde day is þe mononday þat begynneþ in August, þe thridday is mononday þat goþe out of Decembre and kepe welle þes days." By Alphan is probably meant Ælfheah, Archbishop of Canterbury (ob. 1012). This treatise is imperfect at the end, where two leaves of the MS. are missing.

3. "De carminibus et aliis experimentis," or "Of charmes and oþer experimentes" (see f. 1). Imperfect at the beginning. f. 70.
4. "Experimenta Alexandri," beg. "Here bygynneþ þe experimentes of Alisaundre," by whom perhaps Alexander Trallianus is meant (v. Eloy's Dictionnaire de la Médecine, i. 85). f. 77.
5. "Pomum ambre," beg. "Here bygyneþ a boke þat is iclepid Pomum Ambre þat spekeþ of oyntmentes diverses balles syropes and emplastres"; and ending on f. 114 with a paragraph commencing "Inspice scripta lege quod Pomum terminat Ambre," "Maister William made þis syrop to hem þat han greuance of þe splene." f. 90.
6. "Experimenta dinamidiorum libri Galieni," beg. "Here bigynneþ þe Experimentes of Galiene." f. 114 b.
7. "Experimenta generalia," or "General experimentes" (see f. 1), or, as it is given in the detailed list of chapters (f. 19), "Here bygynneþ a wrytte for þe festre in þe bygynnyng of a boke of þe general Experimentes and þe chapytres þat longgen þer to." Imperfect at the beginning. f. 169.
8. "Experimenta Rustici," beg. "Here bygynneþ þe Experimentes of a Wyseman þat was yclepid Rusticus, þe whiche experimentes Mayster Gylliam Somers proved be fele tymes and haþe bygonne ate heued, þe whiche ys most worþi of alle mannes body." f. 174. Amongst them is the following (f. 185 b), "A nobil experiment for þe festre yproued. and þei shalle be hole wiþ oute doute." The author of this work is perhaps Rusticus Elpidius, Physician to Theodoric, King of Italy, in the 6th century.

9. "Experimenta Párisii Abbatis sancti marcij," beg. "Here bygynneþ þe Experimentes of Parise þe abbote þat was sometyme of Seynt Marc." f. 190 b.

10. "Virtutes aquile," beg. "Here bygynneþ þe vertues of þe Egle þat is Kyng of all fowles and is of grete boþe be day and be night and is helpyng of many man and woman." f. 195.

11. "Liber Trotuli," beg. "Here bygynneþ a boke þat is clepid Liber Trotuli." This book treats of women's diseases, and the author of it is Trotula al. Erotis. f. 197. For another English translation, see Sloane MS. 421 A.

12. "Liber Cophonis," beg. "Here bygynnen þe experimentes of Cophon þe leche of Salerne." This does not appear to be a translation of this author's De arte medendi printed at Haguenau, 1532. f. 218.

13. "Secreta Ypocratis," beg. "Here bygynneþ þe priuetes of þe gode man and a wyse þat was yclepid Ypocras, þe whiche man whan he drew to deþe yclosed were þes priuetes in a case of euore and leyde þis case in his sepulcre wiþ him þat þes same priuetes ne shulde beo descouered among no man. Now Cesare wolde se þe sepulcre of þis gode man Ypocras and þe cors was depe ydolue in þe erþe and þen Cesar þe Emperoure dide make renoueld þe sepulcre, And þe body was founden hole and sound, þe whiche body was presentid befor Cesar wiþ þe case of euore in whiche case were founden þes priuetes and Cesar proued þes same priuetes and hem shewed and sent to oþer frendes." The same story is told on f. 235 b, where it appears that Julius Cesar, suspecting the tomb to contain treasure, discovered the book. f. 231.

14. "Experimenta Rustici," beg. "Here bygynneþ ye Experimentes of Rustici" (v. also art. 8). f. 233 b. On f. 234 occurs "An emplastre for brekyng of bone and for sondyng of hem yproued be Maistere Benet þat was a man of Englond."

15. "Ypocras his priuetes in a noþer manere" (cf. art. 13). f. 235 b.

Vellum; ff. 238. On f. 1 is the name "Th. Mid" [? Thomas Jones, Bishop of Meath, 1584–1605]; and at the end, in a hand contemporary with the MS., is the name R. Smyth. Two leaves are missing after f. 69, and one leaf after f. 167. The latter was lost before the original foliation. xvth cent. Large Octavo.

34,112 A–D. Reports of the Commissioners of Sewers, between Kingston Bridge, co. Surrey, and Ravensbourne, co. Kent, made at Southwark, 1612–1617. The name of William Quiney al. Quyney appears as Wallreeve for 1616 and 1617. It does not appear that any member of the Quiney family related to Shakespeare by the marriage of Thomas Quiney with the poet's daughter Judith was named William; though Richard Quiney, the father of Thomas, was living in London temp. Eliz. and died there in 1602. The Lord Caron so often mentioned was Sir Noel de Caron, the Dutch Ambassador; and Widow Hinslowe, of the Liberty of the Clink by Southwark, whose case came before the Court on 18 Jan. 1616, was Agnes, widow of Philip Henslowe, and mother-in-law of Edward Alleyn, of Dulwich. Vellum rolls.

34,113. TREATISES on natural philosophy, machines, etc., in Italian (except artt. 5, 6); with numerous pen-and-ink drawings illustrating the text.

1. Treatise on Hydrostatics. f. 1.
2. On the qualities of various kinds of earth and water. f. 9.
3. Treatise on Minerals. f. 12.
4. Recipes for making inextinguishable fire. f. 15.
5. "Liber ignium a Marcho Greco compositus." Lat. f. 18 b. Printed from two Paris MSS. (Paris, 1804).
6. Recipes for "aqua ardens," "vinum ardens," "aqua acuta omne metallum dealbans," etc. Lat. f. 20.
7. Mechanics, hydraulic and other machines, etc. f. 21. With references at ff. 23, 36 b, 41 b, 45 b, to the "libro de lo lione," at f. 24 b to the "libro de lo dragone," and at f. 47 b to the "libro de lo falcone."
8. On the use of fire-ships and combustibles in war. f. 105.
9. Instructions how to make and use pontoons, battering-rams, and other military engines. f. 114.
10. "Della providentia della chuera sicondo Maestro Fra[n]cesco da Siena": drawings of machines of various kinds, especially those adapted for use in war, with a few pages of introductory text. f. 129. "Francesco da Siena," who is called at f. 194 b "Maestro Fra[n]cesco di Giorgio da Siena," and who is usually known as Francesco di Giorgio Martini, was born at Siena about 1423, d. about 1506. See C. Promis, Vita di Francesco di Giorgio Martini, Torino, 1841, pp. 5, 82; and see also the "Catalogo Analitico" of his writings in the same volume, where (at pp. 90–95) a work is described somewhat similar to the present one.

At ff. 252 b–261 are architectural and mechanical drawings, with explanations, of the 17th cent.

Paper; ff. 261. Compare with this volume a similar work in Add. 24,945, containing numerous designs of military engines, etc. Early XVIth and early XVIIth centt. Quarto.

34,114. THE SPALDING MS., a collection of Romances in French verse, as follows:—

Digitized by Google

1. Chanson de Geste on the First Crusade; in nearly 19,000 Alexandrines. With the colophon: "Ci finist le siege d'Antioche ouesque le conquest de Jerusalem de Godefrei de Boilion." ff. 2–105. The text differs very much from the Chanson d'Antioche published by Paulin Paris in 1848, and (except in subject) seems to have no connection with it, or with the Chanson on Godfrey of Bouillon in Roy. 15 E. vi., ff. 278 b–289 (for which see Catalogue of Romances, vol. i., 1883, p. 708). Another copy is in the Bodley MS., Hatton 77: see Romania, vol. v., 1876, pp. 1–61 where M. Paul Meyer has printed several hundred lines from both MSS.
2. Roman d'Énéas; in more than 10,000 octosyllabic lines. ff. 106–164. A copy (wanting about 130 lines at the end) is in Add. 14,100: see Cat. of Romances, i. p. 82, and Gaston Paris, La littérature française au Moyen Age, 2nd ed., 1890, pp. 78, 263.
3. Roman de Thèbes, taken from Statius; in more than 11,000 octosyllabic lines. ff. 164–226 b. Other copies are in the Bibliothèque Nationale: see Paulin Paris, Les MSS. François, vols. i. p. 67, iii. p. 190, and cf. Gaston Paris, Litt. franç., pp. 78, 263.
4. Le Songe vert: an allegorical poem of the 14th century, in more than 1650 octosyllabic lines. ff. 227–236 b. After the plague of "1148" (according to the conjecture of M. Paul Meyer) the author puts on a black dress, and wanders into an orchard. He is consoled by a vision of Love, etc.; and he comes back with his dress a bright green. The first 60 and the last 9 lines have been printed in Romania, vol. v. pp. 61–3. Otherwise the poem appears to be unknown.
5. Ordène de Chevalerie: the instruction in chivalry given by Hue de Tabarie to Saladin. Added in a different hand from the preceding articles. Imperfect, only about 170 octosyllabic lines remaining, some of them mutilated. ff. 236 b–237 b. Another copy is in Harl. 4333, ff. 115–117 b (Cat. of Romances, i. p. 811).

Vellum; ff. 237. With illuminated borders. Written in England, circ. 1400. With the arms of Spencer in two of the illuminated borders, one of the shields being within a bordure azure with bishops' mitres on it, referring to Henry de Spencer, Bishop of Norwich (1370–1406). From the Library of Maurice Johnson, of Ayscough Fee Hall, Spalding. Folio.

34,115. Portfolio containing water-colour views and drawings of places in cos. Essex and Kent, as follows:—(1) Erith Church, the R. Thames and Purfleet, co. circ. 1760. f. 6;—(5) Rochester Cathedral and Castle, by Edward Dayes, 1791. f. 7;—(6) Rochester Castle and Cathedral, from a drawing by Francis Grose. f. 8;—(7) Gate of Whorne's Place, Cookstone, circ. 1795. f. 9;—(8) Gate leading into Rochester Priory, circ. 1802. f. 10;—(9) Rochester Castle, July, 1807. f. 11;—(10) Interior of Tower in Rochester City Wall, circ. 1802. f. 12;—(11) Frindsbury and R. Medway, from Chatham, circ. 1802, by F—— K——. f. 13;—(12) Pencil drawing of the view above Rochester Bridge, by Richard Cooper. f. 14;—(13) Plan of part of the village of Cliffe, by G. Darbyshire, May, 1836. f. 15. Paper; ff. 16. Folio.

34,116. ANTIPHONAL, in Latin, containing Hymns for the year; the Commune Sanctorum; Offices of the Virgin; Hymns and Antiphons for Sundays and week-days; Commemorations of S. Blaise, patron of Admont Abbey, and others; "Toni diurni" for the chief feasts; the Adoration of the Crucifix; a few masses; settings of the Credo, etc. Paper; ff. 248. Written for the monastery of Admont in Styria, with the date 1622 on the original stamped pigskin binding. Octavo.

34,117. FOUR MUSICAL TREATISES, apparently collected for the use of Father Æmilianus Kaiser, of the monastery of Petershausen, near Constance (see f. 1):—

1. "Regulæ Contrapuncti variis sub speciebus datæ et compositæ": an anonymous work. f. 3.
2. "Regulæ sive Fundamenta pro addiscenda compositione musica, collectæ a R. D. Thoma Eisenhueth," Canon of St. George's, Augsburg. This work, popularly known as "Musicalisches Fundament," was published in 1702. f. 38.
3. "Architectonice Musicæ Universalis . . . . Auctore Volupio Decoro Musagete" [i.e. Wolfgang Schonsleder], published at Ingoldstadt in 1631. f. 71.
4. "Melopoeticæ seu Musicæ Compositionis Brevis Instructio": an anonymous work. f. 105.

Paper; ff. 122. With book-plate of Carl Ferdinand Schmalholz, and the name of Dr. Bœcker inscribed in several places. XVIIIth cent. Small Quarto.

34,118. "NISI DOMINUS": Psalm for soprano, alto, and chorus, with violins, in score, by Alessandro Scarlatti. Belonged to Kiesewetter and A. G. Ritter. Paper; ff. 31. XVIIIth–XIXth cent. Obl. Octavo.

34,135. EXTENT of the possessions of the Bishop of St. David's, made in 1326 by David Fraunceys, Chancellor; and renewed in 1516 (see f. 63) by order of Edward [Vaughan], then Bishop. Lat. Examined [in 1516?] by H. Cadharne, whose signature and monogram are at f. 62 b. An entry at f. 1, dated 10 July, 1695, states that this volume was then cited in a Chancery suit, under the name of "the Blacke booke." It must, however, have been taken from an incomplete copy of the original survey, for it does not contain the Feoda Militum Episcopi Menevensis, A.D. 1326, printed (privately) by Sir T. Phillipps, about 1840, from the Liber Niger. There is a note at f. 65, dated 23 Sept. 1581, that "one other like boke of extent ys with Mr. Meredith Thomas, and an other with Mr. Chauncelor Edwardes." At f. 63 is a memorandum signed "M. Menouen." [sc. Marmaduke Middleton, Bishop of St. David's], 23 June, 1584.

The Extent is followed (f. 63 b) by an index of places, and preceded by copies in a 17th-cent. hand of the following:—Letter from Charles I. to Theophilus [Field], Bishop of St. David's, concerning leases granted by Bishops (see Calendar of State Papers, 1634–1635, p. 88); Greenwich, 22 June, a° 10 [1634]. f. 1;—Confirmation by Richard II. of Adam [Houghton], Bishop of St. David's, in his rights as a Lord Marcher; Sheen, 21 Dec. a° 7 [1383]. f. 1 b;—"An act to confirme the liberties of the Lord Marchers in Wales; 1 and 2 Phil. and Mar. cap. 15" (Statutes of the Realm, iv. p. 262). f. 2.

Vellum; ff. 65. XVIth cent. Folio.

34,186. WAX DIPTYCHA or writing tablets, forming a schoolboy's exercise-book. On one leaf are inscribed with a stilus, in large, carefully formed uncials, the two iambic lines :—

σοφοις παρ ανδρος προσδεχου συμβουλιαν μη πασιν εικη τοις φιλοις πιστευεται (sic).

These are twice copied below, between ruled lines, in a schoolboy's hand. The first of these lines occurs, with the reading ἐκδέχου for προσδέχου, among the fragments of Menander (monostich 476, ed. Meineke); the second may be a hitherto unknown quotation from the same poet (cf. monost. 335, where the same sentiment is expressed). On the other leaf are two columns of the multiplication table, also in Greek, and what may be a grammatical exercise. The holes bored for binding in the wooden frame remain, but the actual bands that united the leaves are lost. Date doubtful, perhaps second century. 10¼ by 7 inches.

34,187. LETTERS addressed to George Jackson [afterwards Sir Geo. Jackson Duckett, Bart.], second Secretary to the Admiralty and Judge Advocate, by [Wilmot Vaughan, Earl of] Lisburne, Lord of the Admiralty, and others; 1776–1777, 1782–1786. The first series relates chiefly to the American rebellion, and includes letters of Adm. Marriott Arbuthnot, Lieut.-Governor of Nova Scotia (f. 1), and Capt. John Jervis, R.N. (f. 3); the second series relates to suits arising from the capture of property in the island of St. Eustachia in 1781, and includes letters of Admirals Sir Samuel Hood (f. 9) and Hon. Samuel Barrington (f. 13). Paper; ff. 29. Small Quarto.

5. Narratio de Spiritu Guidonis. Lat. f. 101. See Cat. of Romances. At the end (f. 106) is a note, in the same hand, of the betrayal by "Mardocus de Menereth" of his confederates in the Soulis conspiracy, "circa hunc annum." The apparition of Guy is not dated here, but the copy in Cotton MS., Vespasian A. vi., f. 134, gives the date as 1323. The discovery of the Soulis conspiracy, on the other hand, is generally dated 1320 after Fordun (Skene, Historians of Scotland, vol. i., 1871, p. 348). Barbour, in The Bruce (ed. Skeat, 1870–89, p. 464), Bk. xix., places it after the defeat of the English at Byland (14 Oct. 1322).
6. Hymns in Latin, with English versions in seven-line stanzas. f. 107.

34,196. ORIGINAL LETTERS of Henry St. John, 1st Viscount Bolingbroke; 1716–1751. Holograph, except a copy at f. 110, and three letters (ff. 151–155) written at his dictation in 1751. Most of the letters are addressed to his sister Henrietta (married in 1727 to Robert Knight, cr. Baron Luxborough in 1746 and Earl of Catherlough in 1762) and to her husband; they relate almost entirely to family matters. Only in two (ff. 97, 136) does the writer touch on politics. In the former, 5 Feb. 1736, he discusses the prospect of a lasting peace; and in the latter, writing to R. Knight on 12 June, 1738, he says that he has never coveted a place "in an Administration whose conduct [he] disapproved, or despised, and could not hope to alter," and that, as befits "a man of this temper," he is content "to retire from business to amusement, and from the government of a State to the government of himself," etc. In a letter dated 12 Aug. 1720 (f. 12) he speaks of a young friend at the French Court [Abbé Pierre Joseph Alary?] as "perhaps the most extraordinary genius in Europe," adding, "You may judg of his character by this, that they have taken him out of his garret, without any application but that which his merit made for him, to put him about the young king." His last three letters were written a few months before his death (12 Dec. 1751). On 11 April (f. 151) he writes, "The World, dear Sister, may very well spare a man as useless in it as I am, and I do assure you I can as easily spare the World"; and on 16 Aug. (f. 155) he speaks hopefully of being "under a painful and troublesome cure for a cancer," which "has succeeded in a multitude of cases."

The volume also contains a few letters (almost all addressed to R. Knight) from Bolingbroke's father (Henry St. John, 1st Viscount St. John), from his brother John (2nd Viscount St. John, 1742), from his nephew Frederick (3rd Viscount St. John, 1749, and 2nd Viscount Bolingbroke, 1751), and from others, whose names are given in the Index.

Besides the usual Offices from the "Temporale," the Feast of the Translation of S. James is introduced after that of the Holy Innocents, and the Feasts of SS. Sebastian and Solutor, Agnes, Vincent, Babylas, Julius of Novara, Severus, and the Purification of the Virgin, between the 5th Sunday after Epiphany and Septuagesima Sunday. At the end (ff. 131–5) are added some "Preces," or Litanies, for the first two Sundays in Lent, Antiphons for the Monday and Tuesday before Christmas, the hymn "Magno salutis gaudio" for Palm Sunday, "Gloria in excelsis," "Venite, exultemus," and "Desiderabiliora sunt"; followed by several Alleluias with very long and elaborate pneumata, "Lux orta est," and "Lucerna pedibus." The text is accompanied throughout by musical notes. Vellum; ff. 135. XIth–XIIth cent. With coloured initials, containing interlaced work, figures of beasts, etc., somewhat resembling those in the XIth century Toulouse Gradual, Harley MS. 4951. Octavo.

34,210. MEDICAL RECIPES, etc., in English. On ff. 2 b–4 b is a table of the contents of ff. 5–22, which begin with "Medicine for hedache" and end with "Medicine for man or woman þat wilbe liȝtly dronke or is dronke." After this (f. 22 b) follows "An plaster þat clepeþ is godes grace . . . for it heliþ alle woundes old and newe," with other recipes and lists of things good or bad for different parts of the body, ending with those "euel for þe stomak," to which is appended (f. 24 b) the rubric, "This was sent from alle þe leches and phisiciones of Mountepeleres [Montpelier] to dam Isabel þe quene of Engelond [wife of Edward II.] at þe praiere of þe king of Fraunce hure broþer, and hoso wol be wel ware here of and vse it wel him nedeþ no lechecrafte more" (cf. Sloane MS. 100, f. 27 b). 34,212. 1. "The Poor Man's Talent," a Medical Handbook by Thomas Lodge, M.D., the poet; followed by similar works in the same hand and possibly by the same author. "The Poor Man's Talent," which consists of medical recipes and rules for the preservation of health, was first printed at Glasgow in 1881, by the Hunterian Club, from a MS. almost identical with the present one, and was included also in vol. iv. of The Complete Works of T. Lodge, Hunt. Club, 1883. It was composed about 1623 (see E. W. Gosse, "Memoir of T. Lodge," ibid., vol. i.). It commences with a letter of dedication "To the Right Honorable my very good Lady the Lady Ann Mother Countesse of Arundell" [Anne, widow of Philip Howard, 12th Earl of Arundel], for whom the work was compiled; and at the beginning (f. 29) and end of the 12th and last chapter are further addresses to the same. Following the 12th chapter (f. 32) are added "Certaine perticuler Noats and familiar medicines for divers infirmities," which are also included as part of "The Poor Man's Talent" in the above edition. Among these remedies is (f. 33 b) one which the author says he "often tried in the Roiall Hospitall att Macklin [Mechlin], upon souldiers that grew Lame by cold." Lodge is said to have practised in the Low Countries for a few years prior to 1619.

The remaining articles, which are not enumerated in the list of Lodge's works (Complete Works, vol. i.), are as follows:—

2. "How to perfume gloves, to make perfumes and sweete waters, with divers other sundry preservatives as be made in Spaine and Portugall, translated forth of a written Spanish booke of ye Dutches of Ferius" [probably Jane Dormer, wife of Gomez Suarez de Figueroa, Duke of Feria, ob. 1612]. The work contains 87 chapters, and is followed by a table of contents. f. 82.
3. Recipes for "conserves and preserves." f. 52.

describing the symbolical meanings of the twelve precious stones named in Rev. xxi. 19, 20. Of the glosses a few are in cypher, and a few in tachygraphic symbols; the majority are in Latin, and not much later than the text. The German glosses have been edited by E. Steimeyer from a transcript made by Stephan Endlicher (Zeitschrift für deutsches Alterthum, Bd. xvi., 1873, pp. 5, 85–92). The Latin glosses were published by J. Weitz in his edition of Prudentius (1613), part ii., pp. 771–904, and are by him attributed to Iso Magister [monk of St. Gall., ob. 871]. Barth (Adversaria lx., col. 2865) refers to the author as "scholiastes vetus quem Isonem Magistrum vocant." The MS. is stated in a note on f. 1 to have been found at Campidona [sc. Kempten, in Bavaria] in 1523, "ab antiquitatis aliquot studiosis." It belonged subsequently to the Carthusian monastery at Gaming in Austria ("Cartusia Gemmicensis," f. iv b); to Dr. Karl Widmann of Augsburg (ob. 1638); and to Baron Brandau (ob. 1813). At the sale of the latter's library it was bought by Count Apponyi, and remained in his library at Pressburg until its dispersion in 1892. A short description of it, while in the Apponyi library, is given in Jahrbücher der Literatur, Bd. xxxi. Anzeige-Blatt, p. 33 (Wien, 1825). While in the possession of Dr. Widmann, it was used by Weitz as the principal authority for his edition of Prudentius, Hanau, 1613; it is quoted by Dressel (Aur. Prudentii Clementis quae exstant carmina, 1860) from Weitz as W[= Widmannianus], but does not appear to have been used at first hand by any editor since Weitz. In a German 16th-cent. binding of stamped white pigskin, with brass clasps; having a floriated pattern in the centre of each cover, and panels round the margin containing representations of the Virtues. Small Quarto.

34,249. "M. F. QUINTILIANI Cartaginensis orhatoris et rhetoris excellentissimi orhatorie declamationes": nineteen Declamations ascribed to Quintilian, arranged in the same order as in the printed editions, except the first two, which are here in reversed order. At the end are added 27 hexameters "de ventorum nominibus et regionibus," beg. "Quatuor a quadro" (cf. St. Isidore "de Natura Rerum," Migne, Patrol. lxxxiii., col. 1007, note); followed by four more headed, "Alii versus de eodem Petrarche," and beg. "Euro Vulturnus Subsolanusque sodales." Paper; ff. 142. Written at Pavia in 1464 by Gulielmus de Salmis, "cuius et hic liber est"; and bought from him in 1472 by John Loffelholcz, student of law at Pavia (see f. 141 b). Small Quarto.

34,250. "A TREWE STORIE of the Catholicke prisoners in Yorke Castle their behaviour and defence of y^e^ catholicke Religion when they were hail'd by force to the Protestantes sermons, anno domini 1600, with a confutation of Cooke the Ministers sermon by C. J. Priest." Apparently by William Richmont, whose name is attached to "The Authours request for the prisoners allowaunce of his labours" (f. 3 b). On f. 4 is an address from "The Prisoners to the authour in approvinge the worke," with a list of the prisoners' names and stations. This is followed (f. 5) by "the names of the preachers that laboured to seduce the Catholick prisoners," and (f. 5 b) "A table of the Preachers untruthes, and other notes of their evell consciences and course." Particular accounts are given of most of the sermons (of which there were fifty), of the behaviour of the prisoners when the sermons were delivered, and of the confutations of the same by William Stillington, of Kelfield, Esquire, and others of the prisoners. The most important of these is that (f. 34 b) mentioned in the title as being by C. J., probably Cuthbert Johnson al. William Darell: cf. a MS. described in the Catalogue of Musæum Thoresbyanum [published as an Appendix to Whitaker's Ducatus Leodiensis], 1816, p. 86, as "A learned disputation betwixt Robert Cook, B.D., Vicar of Leedes, and a Romish Priest ... at Yorke, an. 1610." The writer of the article on Robert Cooke in the Dict. of National Biography, vol. iii., 1887, supplies the name of the Priest as Cuthbert Johnson (v. above).

Included in the volume, of a later date, are also:—(1) Notes on "Families descended from the House of Howard." f. 73;—(2) Orders for the "bringing of the Regalia from Westminster Abby to Westminster Hall," and for "the proceeding to the Coronation," of K. William and Qu. Mary [11 Apr. 1689]. ff. 74–78;—(3) Blazon of Arms of the Nobility. f. 79.

At the end, reversing the volume, are notes and commonplaces on questions of heraldry.

Paper; ff. 170. XVIIIth cent. The name of Margaritt Saville is on f. 1, and on the inside cover is the book-plate of William Constable, F.R.S., of Burton Constable (ob. 1791). Small Quarto.

34,251. TREATISE on "The Art of well governing a people ... wrote in Italian by Fulvius Pacianus, Earle, Knight and Doctor of Modene ... Now faithfully translated into English by M. W. 165 [sic]." The initials probably stand for M[ildmay Fane, 2nd Earl of] W[estmorland, succ. 1630, ob. 1666]. The gauntlet borne on the coat of arms of Fane appears in the ornamental border. The original treatise is said on the title-page to have been printed in Sienna by Salvestro Marchetti, in 1607, the date attached to the dedicatory epistle to Cosmo de' Medici, Prince of Tuscany [Grand Duke in 1609]. Paper; ff. 32. Belonged, in 1856, to [John Fane, 11th] Earl of Westmorland (see above, Add. 34,213). Folio.

34,252. "THE ONE AND TWENTY BATTAILES of Yorkes Plantaginet [sc. Richard, Duke of York, and his son Edward IV.], with The unmatchable life and death of Richard Nevill, Earle of Warwicke, syrnamed in his tyme the Darlinge and Favorite of Kinges. By Thomas Gaynsford, Esquire." Preceded by a dedicatory letter to Robert Rich, Earl of Warwick (cr. 1618). The last two leaves are mutilated. In the article on Thomas Gainsford (ob. 1624?) in the Dict. of National Biography, vol. xx., 1889, no mention is made of this work, another copy of which exists in Sloane MS. 3071. At the end (ff. 101–104) are inserted a few detached modern drawings of fortifications, two of which bear the initials W. C. Paper; ff. 104. XVIIth cent. Folio.

34,253. CORRESPONDENCE and papers relating to the Civil War, consisting mainly of letters addressed to Edward Montagu, 2nd Earl of Manchester, in his capacity of Speaker to the House of Lords, most of which are printed in the Journals of the House of Lords; 1640–1647. The contents are:—

The first book begins, "Eneas cum Ascanio filio fugiens excidium urbis," and ends (f. 26 b) with the death of Cadwallader in 689, "Die autem xii Kal. Maii migravit ad dominum anno ab incarnatione domini sexcentesimo octoge[simo nono]." There is another copy of this book in Cotton MS. Titus D. xii. art. 2, ff. 3–22 (cf. Sir T. D. Hardy, Descriptive Catalogue of British History, Rolls Series, vol. ii. p. 473). The second book, which begins (f. 26 b), "Anno ab incarnacione domini DC. lxxx°ix° mortuo Kadwaladro successit ei nepos suus," carries the chronicle to the Norman conquest. The third book (f. 37 b) begins (after the table of chapters), "Postquam Willelmus Lungespe, filius Rollonis primi Normannorum," and ends (f. 62) "atque sic cilicio proprio quo carnem arcius denunciat contectus, ut dictum est, martirizatur. Explicit codex Bruton." A leaf is missing after f. 47. This book also, in part, is included in the above-named Cotton MS. (ff. 23–37). It there has for its title "Conquestus Anglie," and stops at the accession of Henry II., whereas the present copy is carried down to the death of Simon de Montfort, Earl of Leicester, at Evesham in 1265, the latter part being especially full and interesting.
2. A short chronicle of the Kings of England to 1273, beg. "Tempore antiquorum Anglorum dividebatur Anglia in quinque partes," and ending "Huic successit Edwardus filius ejus anno scilicet dni. M°CC°LXXIII°." A leaf is missing after f. 64. For another copy see Arundel MS. 310. (Hardy, op. cit., vol. iii. p. 200.) f. 63.

The entire MS., according to the description in Macray's Catalogue, col. 501, exactly agrees with artt. 5 and 6 of Rawlinson MS. B. 150 (13th cent.) in the Bodleian Library, and Hardy (iii. p. 164) in his notice of the latter MS. ascribes the "Brutus abbreviatus" to a monk of Battle Abbey. See also C. Bémont, Simon de Montfort, etc., Paris, 1884, p. xiii. Vellum; ff. 70. XIVth cent. On the covers are the arms of James Ley, Earl of Marlborough (ob. 1628). Other owners in the 16th cent. were Thomas Harte and Edward Benet (f. 69 b); and on f. 2 is a note of the sale "pro ii.s. v.d." to "Master Hopkyns." Small Quarto.

34,294. Book of Hours, in Latin, containing:—(a) Cursus Evangelii. f. 1;—(b) Hours of the Holy Cross. f. 13;—(c) Hours of the Holy Spirit. f. 28;—(d) Hours of the Virgin. f. 41;—(e) Lessons of the Passion, viz. St. Luke xxii. 1–xxiii. 53. f. 137;—(f) Prayers to Our Lord, on the Passion. f. 167 b;—(g) Prayers to the Virgin. f. 169 b;—(h) Memorials of Saints, consisting of a short prayer on a single page, with a miniature (for the names see below). f. 186;—(i) The Seven Penitential Psalms. f. 213;—(k) Litany, etc. f. 236;—(l) Office of the Dead. f. 258;—(m) "Oratio de Nomine Iesu ex Paulinis Epistolis congesta": an addition of the 16th–17th cent. ff. 343–348.

Vellum; ff. 348. Written and illuminated for Bona of Savoy, wife of Galeazzo Maria Sforza, Duke of Milan [1444–1476], the device of a phœnix with the motto "Sola fata (? facta), solum Deum sequor," which she adopted after her husband's death, appearing in the border of f. 93. In several other borders (ff. 66 b, 79 b, etc.) are inscribed the words "Diva Bona," and on the front of a building in a miniature on f. 210 b is "Bona Duc[issa]." Some other borders (ff. 56, 88, etc.) also contain the initials "B. M.," which probably refer to Bianca Maria, daughter of the Duchess Bona, although on f. 66 the words "Bona Maria" have been introduced in order to fill up a line. The probability is that the MS. was intended by the Duchess for a wedding gift to her daughter on her marriage to the Emperor Maximilian I. on 30 Nov. 1493, and from the use of the epithet "Diva," as above, it may be inferred that it was not completed until after Bona's death, which is said to have occurred in or about 1494. Less than half the MS. in its original form now remains, but it still includes 48 miniatures and a large number of borders exquisitely illuminated in the finest style of Milanese art of the end of the 15th cent. On the death of Maximilian in 1519 (Bianca Maria having died in 1510) the MS. presumably came into the possession of his son and successor Charles V. Although otherwise well preserved, it had by this time been seriously mutilated by the abstraction of leaves. These losses were now made good; the inserted miniatures, fifteen in number, being by Flemish artists and of the highest excellence, while the text is in two or more hands inferior to that of the original Italian scribe. From the blackness of the ink and on other grounds it is probable that this part of the MS., though distinctly Flemish in style, was executed in Spain. Its date lies between 1519 and 1521. On the miniature of St. Mark (f. 10 b) is inscribed "NRVAS: FИOARVIMI: 1519"; on a fine medallion portrait of Charles V. in the border of f. 213 is the date 1520; and in a prayer on f. 253 Pope Leo X. (ob. Dec. 1521) is spoken of as still living. The subjects of all the miniatures

62. *Raising of Lazarus. f. 257 b.
63. Death of the Virgin. f. 272.

Both series are by more than one hand, and of the Italian miniatures nos. 1–3, 55–60 show a marked difference in style from the rest. With two exceptions (ff. 48, 213) the borders belong to the original part of the MS. They are of the usual Italian renaissance character, but are remarkable for richness of colouring and great variety and beauty in the designs. Many of them include small miniatures at top and bottom, among which are the following series:—Symbols of the Passion, and of patriarchs, apostles and saints, the latter in connection with Putti. ff. 13–27;—Angels playing on different musical instruments. ff. 29–39 b;—Incidents of the Passion. ff. 167 b–169;—Bible heroines, with "Theodorina," Queen of the Lombards, St. Pelagia and St. Elizabeth of Hungary. ff. 251–256;—Putti playing with skulls, wrestling with serpents, etc., and miscellaneous subjects. ff. 258–341 b. In some of the borders are painted figures of birds and animals, notably ermines and white rabbits; and in others are medallions containing portrait-busts and copies of ancient engraved gems. Among the heads that of a young girl on f. 55 is specially remarkable for its delicate beauty, and those on ff. 74 b, 76, 85 b and 101 may also be noted. The MS. was brought to England from Spain by Sir J. C. Robinson in 1871. It was then bound in a single volume, but has since been divided into four. Duodecimo. Presented by John Malcolm, Esq., of Poltalloch.

34,295. 1. "La vostra Pamela," duet from "Pamela maritata," composed by Giuseppe Farinelli, Venice, 1802. In full score. f. 1.
2. Six "Duettini Noturni" (sic), by Johann Gottlieb Naumann, with a bass. f. 16.

34,301. RENTAL of the manor of Culworth, co. Northampton, 14 Edw. IV. [1474–5], in the lordship of Richard Danvers; with the accompt of "Seint Marye rent" at Culworth, 15 Edw. IV., and various accompts and memoranda concerning the rents of the estate, 14–18 Edw. IV. Originally bound in four vellum leaves (now ff. 13–16), which formed a fragment of a plea-roll, temp. Hen. VI., containing part of a plea relating to Clerkenwell nunnery. The blank sides (ff. 13, 15, 16 b) have been filled with entries relating to the Culworth estate, similar to those in the rest of the volume. Paper and vellum; ff. 16. Narrow Folio.

34,302. ACCOMPTS relating to Finchampstead manor, co. Berks., viz.:—(1) "A trew note of suche mony as I have made of wood and timber att Finchamsted since my Grandmothers deathe, which was in Sept. 1612," to 1637; and "a note of all paymentes att Finchamsted since my Grandmothers deathe," to 1630. Probably written by Sir Richard Harrison (M.P. for co. Berks., 1624, 1628; for New Windsor, 1640), whose son sold the manor of East-court in Finchampstead to Richard Palmer in 1661 (Lysons, Magna Britannia, vol. i. pt. ii. p. 181). ff. 1, 5;—(2) "An Account of what moneys hath been paid unto Mr. Richard Palmer since his fathers death, which was y^e^ 28th of May, 1670," to 1695. f. 9;—(3) "An account what money I have received for wood out of the parish of Finchamstead since my brother Richard Palmers death, which was on 30th of January, 1697" [8], to 1711. f. 16. A fragment of a lease by James Harrison, of land at Hurst, co. Berks., dat. 17 Oct. 6 Jas. I. [1608], originally formed the binding (now ff. 23, 24). Paper and (ff. 23, 24) vellum; ff. 24. XVIIth and XVIIIth centt. Small Quarto.

memorandum by Mary Sandys of a promise made to her by her son Bowyer concerning a lease from her nephew John Coult, 7 Jan. 1608 [9] (see Add. 24,359, f. 45). At f. 19 is a recipe "to make good inke."

Paper; ff. 19. XVIth and XVIIth centt. With book-plate of arms of William Bateman (ob. 1835), and with a note by him (f. 4) of his having given a MS. (now Add. 24,359) to the Rev. Joseph Hunter, 23 July, 1828. Folio.

34,308. CUSTOMS of the town of Northampton, in fifty-eight chapters, the last chapter containing an ordinance made in 1341. Imperfect, beg. in the middle of chap. xxv. French. ff. 3–9. A later MS. in English, containing eighty chapters, is preserved among the archives of the corporation (see Northamptonshire Notes and Queries, vol. i., 1884–6, p. 204). The rest of the volume is filled with additions in later hands, relating to the government of the town, viz.: (a) Oaths of the town clerk, mayor, and other officers. ff. 10–15, 19 b–24 b;—(b) Confirmation of a royal charter prescribing the mode of election of mayor and bailiffs, 28 Mar. 5 Hen. VII. [1490], with further regulations on the same subject. ff. 15 b–17 b;—(c) Letters-patent with reference to the paving of the streets, 18 Mar. 9 Hen. VI. [$143\frac{0}{1}$]. f. 18;—(d) "Assize of breed aftyr the foorme of the statut of Wynchestre." f. 19 b;—(e) Regulations with regard to pleadings, 5 Sept. 1 Chas. I. [1625], signed by the mayor, recorder, and bailiffs. f. 25. Vellum; ff. 27. XVth–XVIIth centt. Bound in wooden boards covered with brown leather, finely tooled, with metal clasps and bosses; modern back. On the fly-leaves are the names of several mayors and other officials of Northampton, 17th and 18th centt., the latest being H. J. Woolley, Mayor, 1769 (f. 2). With book-plate of arms of Thomas Bateman, of Middleton Hall, co. Derby. Folio.

34,309. A SERIES of twenty-four miniatures on vellum illustrating the Life of Christ, from the Annunciation to the Baptism, and from the Entry into Jerusalem to the Ascension. Executed, under Byzantine influence, in Italy early, in the XIVth cent. The leaves, which are covered on one side only, measure $8\frac{1}{4} \times 6\frac{3}{4}$ inches, the designs occupying about 6 × 5 inches, enclosed within a simple border. The backgrounds are of gold, or diapered in blue and other colours. The colours generally are dull and, as it were, muddy in tone; but the whole of the miniatures appear to have suffered from damp and other causes. The designs of the Last Supper and the Ascension are especially interesting. On the back of f. 1 is inscribed in a hand of the 15th cent., "Iste picture sunt fratris Petri de Sclauania de Forli (?), de ordine Minorum, precio xxii lib. Torn." Modern binding. Small Quarto.

with a few by, or attributed to, Geoffrey Chaucer; together with three Roundels (art. 6) in French. Some of the titles, etc., are insertions in the hand of John Stow.

1. Tale of two perfect friends, a merchant of Egypt and a merchant of Bagdad, by John Lydgate; in 29 seven-line stanzas (cf. Harl. 2251, f. 56), beg. "In Egypt whilom, as I rede and fynde." With the colophon, "Explicit Fabula duorum mercatorum De et super Gestis Romanorum" (see Gesta Rom., ed. Oesterley, 1872, p. 560, and cf. Cat. of Romances, vol. i. p. 929, vol. ii. p. 238). f. 4.
2. Chaucer's Complaint to his Purse (Skeat, Chaucer. The Minor Poems, 1888, p. 210); without title, but with the name "Chaucer" added in Stow's hand at the head. The "Envoy" is not included, and (as in Harl. 2251, f. 271) the next article follows after the third stanza without a break. f. 19.
3. Complaint against Fortune, attributed to Lydgate (Ritson, no. 86); in 20 stanzas, 18 of seven lines and two of six, beg. "Allas, fortune, allas, what have I gilt." f. 19.
4. "Balade that Chauncier (sic) made"; in three nine-line stanzas (a line being lost in the second stanza), with an "Envoy" of six lines, beg. "So hath myn hert caught in remembraunce." f. 21 b.
5. "The question of halsam"; seven lines, beg. "The world so wide, the heyre so removable." f. 22. The same lines, followed by six others, are in Harl. 7333, f. 148, headed "Halsam squiere made thes ii balades" (see Wright and Halliwell, Reliquiæ Antiquæ, 1841, i. p. 234). They form the first stanza (omitting the seventh line) of a poem, in 18 eight-line stanzas, "On the mutability of human affairs," printed (from Harl. 2255, f. 14) by Halliwell in Minor Poems of Dan John Lydgate, 1840, p. 193.
6. "So here begynneth a Roundel made be my lord of Suthfolk [William de la Pole, Earl of Suffolk] whiles he was prisonner in Fraunce" [in 1428–9?], beg. "Lealement a tous jours mais." Followed by two other roundels by the same, beg. "Face vo coer; tout ce que ly plerra," and "Je vous salue, ma maystresse." ff. 22 b, 23.
7. "The order of folis"; in 24 eight-line stanzas, beg. "The order of folis ful yore ago bigonne." Printed by Halliwell, Minor Poems of Dan John Lydgate, p. 164 [from Harl. 2251, f. 303]. f. 24.
8. "The horse, the shepe and the goose by John Lydgate," this title being in the hand of Stow; in 91 stanzas, of seven and (the moral) eight lines, beg. "Controuersies, plees and al discord" (cf. Harl. 2251, f. 306.) The moral (f. 35) is headed, "The moralite of the hors, the goos and the sheepe translated bi Dan John Lydgate." Printed by Caxton (1479?) and W. de Worde (1500?), by the Roxburghe Club (1822), and (the moral only) by Halliwell, op. cit., p. 117. f. 27.

9. The Assembly of Ladies, beg. "In Septembre at fallyng of the leaf"; without title, but with the insertion, in Stow's hand, in the margin, "Chausar. la samble des dames." Printed by Stow in his edition of Chaucer, 1561, f. 247, but see Skeat, op. cit., p. xxvi. f. 37.
10. Chaucer's Complaint to Pity, headed (as in Harl. 78, f. 80), "And now here folwith A Complaynt of Pite made bi Geffray Chauncier the Aureat Poete that euer was founde in oure vulgar to fore his dayes." See Skeat, op. cit., pp. lvi. 8. f. 49.
11. Lydgate's paraphrase of Psalm cii., headed "Takith goode heede, sirs and dames, howe Lydgate Dann John the monk of Bury moeued of deuocioun hath translated the psalme Benedic anima mea Domino." After "deuocioun" Stow has interlined "in y^e^ chapell at Windsor while y^e^ Kynge was at evensong." Beg. "[O] thow my soule, gif laude vnto the lord." f. 53 b. See Harl. 2251, f. 262, where there are 24 more lines than in the present copy.
12. Paraphrase of Ps. lxxxvi., "Gloriosa dicta sunt," etc., "translated by Lidgate Dan John, monke of Bury, at the instaunce of þe Bisshoppe of Excetre in Balade wise." Beg. "[I]n holy hillis, whiche bien of grete renoun." f. 57. See Harl. 2251, f. 265. The first 57 lines (or 7 stanzas and a line) were at first written in the middle of art. 11 (ff. 55 b–56), but were afterwards scored through with the pen. The first 40 lines were then rewritten on ff. 57, 57 b, but after the 3rd stanza they were again scored through, and the next leaf is left blank on both sides. The copy in Harl. 2251 contains 29 eight-line stanzas.
13. Poem on the virtues of stones, and especially of the "Lapis Christus, a passyng stidefast stone," in 8 seven-line stanzas, beg. "Gentilnesse and curtesie wold be rewarded." With the colophon, "Columbina apparuit Eleyson Verba auctoris quod Richardown." f. 58.
14. Hymn to Jesus Christ, attributed to Lydgate (Ritson, no. 207); in six stanzas, the first of seven lines, the rest of eight (cf. Harl. 2251, f. 1), beg. "Jesu Crist, kepe oure lyppes from pollucioun." f. 59.
15. Hymn to the Virgin, attributed to Lydgate (Ritson, no. 199); in six stanzas, four of eight lines and two of seven (cf. Harl. 2251, f. 1 b), beg. "All hayle, Mary, ful of grace." f. 60.
16. Lydgate's verses on the Kings of England from Will. I. to Hen. VI., with an additional stanza (in eight lines instead of seven) on Edw. IV. Pr. by W. de Worde, 1530, and in a Camden Soc. vol. in 1876. f. 60 b.

17. Rules for preserving health; in ten stanzas, nine of eight lines and one (the eighth) of seven, beg. "For helth of body couer for cold thyn hede." Pr. by Halliwell among Lydgate's Minor Poems, p. 66 (from Harl. 2251, f. 4 b). f. 63.
18. Lydgate's appeal to the Duke of Gloucester for money; in eight eight-line stanzas, beg. "Right myghti prince, and it be your wille." With the colophon, "Explicit litera Dompni Johanni[s] Lydgate . . . . ad Ducem Glowcestrie in tempore translacionis libri Bochasii pro oportunitate pecunie." Pr. by Halliwell, op. cit., p. 49 (from Harl. 2251, f. 6). f. 64 b.
19. "Epitaphium eiusdem Ducis Glowcestrie" (ob. 1446), by the same; in thirteen eight-line stanzas, beg. "Souerayne immortal, euerlastyng God" (cf. Harl. 2251, f. 7). f. 65 b.
20. On the significance of outward acts of devotion; in four eight-line stanzas, beg. "Ye devoute peple whiche kepe on obseruaunce." Pr. by Halliwell as Lydgate's, op. cit., p. 60 (from Harl. 2251, f. 9). f. 68.
21. "Stella celi extirpauit," a Hymn to the Virgin attributed to Lydgate (Ritson, no. 184); in four eight-line stanzas, beg. "Thow heuenly qwene, of grace oure lodesterre" (cf. Harl. 2251, f. 9 b). f. 68 b.
22. "Ab inimicis nostris defende nos, Christe," a Hymn to Christ (ib., no. 219); in nine seven-line stanzas, beg. "Most souerayne lord, o blisful Crist Jesu" (cf. Harl. 2251, f. 10 b). f. 69.
23. "Consulo, quisquis eris," etc., or Advice to conform with one's company; in fourteen eight-line stanzas, beg. "I counceile, whatsoeuer thow be." Pr. by Halliwell as Lydgate's, op. cit., p. 173 (from Harl. 2251, f. 11 b, where there are 15 stanzas, the 12th being here omitted). f. 70 b.
24. On women's horned head-dresses; in four eight-line stanzas, beg. "Of God and kynd procedith al beaute." Pr. by Halliwell as Lydgate's, op. cit., p. 46, with five more stanzas. In Harl. 2251, f. 13, there are only four, as here. f. 73.
25. "The Craft of Lovers"; in twenty-six seven-line stanzas, beg. "To moralise a similitude, who list þese balettes fewe" (cf. Harl. 2251, f. 53). There is no title (that given above being taken from the second line), but Stow has inserted the heading "The shafte of love." In his edition of Chaucer, 1561, he printed the poem as "compiled by Chaucer" (f. cccxli), but without the last three stanzas, "Verba auctoris." The date in his last stanza he gives as A.D. 1348; it is here, as in Harl. 2251, A.D. 1459 (cf. Skeat, op. cit., p. xxx). Ritson attributes the poem to Lydgate (nos. 30, 109). f. 73 b.
26. "Verba magistri J. Lidgate quasi honor mundi"; a seven-line stanza, beg. "Worldly worship is joye transitory" (cf. Harl. 2251, f. 43). f. 77.
27. A seven-line stanza on the couplet "Vinum lacte lava, oleum liquore fabarum," etc., beg. "Of wyne awey the moles may ye wash" (cf. Harl. 2251, f. 77 b). f. 77 b.

28. An eight-line stanza, beg. "There is none so wise a man | But he may wisdom lere" (cf. Harl. 2251, f. 81 b). f. 77 b.

29. Lydgate's version of the "Secreta Secretorum," or treatise on the training of a prince, attributed to Aristotle; finished after Lydgate's death (see f. 101) by Benedict Burgh (cf. Harl. 2251, f. 214 b). Without title, but Stow has inserted "Aristotle to Kynge Alexander." Beg. "God almyghty save and conferme oure kyng." About to be printed (from Sloane 2464) by the Early Engl. Text Soc., ed. R. Steele. With colophon, "Explicit Regimen Principum." f. 78.

Paper; ff. 116. Latter half of the xvth cent. Belonged (see above) to John Stow. On f. 4 are the signatures of W[illiam] Browne, the poet (ob. 1643?), and I. Taylor (18th cent.). Browne has also written on f. 2 b "Fortuna non mutat genus. W. B." Subsequently the MS. was in the library of Richard Heber (Sale-Cat., pt. xi., 1836, lot 1334), who lent it to Joseph Ritson (see note on f. 1). According to Heber's Sale-Cat. it also "belonged to Dr. Askew, Dr. Wright, Gough and Wodhull." A former possessor, perhaps W. Browne, has inserted a list of contents (f. 3). Small Folio.

34,361. "THE SHEAPHEARDES LOGIKE: conteyning the præcepts of that art put downe by Ramus; examples fet owt of the Sheapheards Kalender; notes and expositions collected owt of Beurhusius, Piscator, Mr. Chatterton and diuers others. Together with twooe general discourses, the one touchinge the prayse and ryghte vse of Logike, the other concernynge the comparison of Ramus his Logike with that of Aristotle." This title is followed, in the same hand, by fourteen lines of dedicatory verse addressed to "Mr. Edwarde Dyer," the poet. They begin: "Some arts wee bynde to some one kynde of subject generallye," and are signed "Abraham Franse," i.e. France or Fraunce. The body of the MS., which is in a different hand, contains:—

1. "The Sheppardes Logike," in two books; with numerous quotations from Edmund Spenser's Shepheardes Calender, 1579, as examples. f. 3. The matter (including the Spenser quotations) is partially the same as that of Abraham Fraunce's Lawiers Logike, exemplifying the præcepts of Logike by the practise of the Common Lawe, London, 1588; but the differences are very considerable, and none of the quotations from law-books are here included. The present copy probably represents an earlier form of the work.
2. "Of the nature and vse of Logike," beg. "Junius Florus by continual meditation." f. 29.

"The British Rebellion in Heroick Vers, or A short relation of the most remarkable passages happening in our Civil Wars, beginning in the year 1639 to the happy entrance of Charles the Second in sixty inst": an epic poem (of very little merit) in 3560 lines by "George Cartwright of Fulham." With a dedicatory letter in prose, addressed to Charles II. In two Parts, the first ending with the death of Charles I. Apparently autograph. In the margins are numerous elucidatory notes. Cartwright was author of The Heroick Lover, or The Infanta of Spain, a comedy, dedicated to Charles II., 1661, at the end of which are printed other verses by him, all of a loyal character. The present volume also includes:—

1. Verses "upon the deplorable fire at London," 2 Sept. 1666, beg. "Poor London, when in flames I saw thee fly." f. 57.
2. "Charles the second to his revolted subjects of England"; in prose, being a speech supposed to be made by Charles on his

34,412–34,471. THE AUCKLAND PAPERS: correspondence and papers, political and private, of William Eden, 1st Baron Auckland, together with a few earlier diplomatic papers collected by him, and some later correspondence, chiefly of his son and successor George Eden, 1st Earl of Auckland; 1660–1861. William Eden was born in 1744, and was created Baron Auckland in Ireland in 1789, and Baron Auckland of West Auckland in 1793; he died in 1814. He was Under Secretary of State (Northern Department), 1772–1778; Member of the Board of Trade, 1776–1782; Joint Commisssioner to treat with the revolted Colonies, 1778–1779; Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and Under Treasurer, 1780–1782; Joint Vice Treasurer of Ireland, 1783; Envoy at Paris, 1785–1787; Ambassador at Madrid, 1788–1789; Ambassador at the Hague, 1789–1793; Postmaster General, 1798–1804; and President of the Board of Trade, 1806–1807. His correspondence begins when he was a boy at Eton, in 1761. During the time that he was Under Secretary of State it deals largely with the American rebellion and the proceedings of American spies and agents in England and France. The Irish and diplomatic portions are especially full and important; in the former case, not only while he was Chief Secretary, but more particularly in 1798, when, although holding no office in Ireland, he was in constant communication with Edward Cooke, Under Secretary, and others in Dublin. Among the papers bearing upon his negotiations for a commercial treaty with France in 1786 are a large number of samples of dress-stuffs and other fabrics; and minutes of evidence on the subject taken before the Board of Trade in the same year are contained in a separate volume (Add. 34,462). While he was ambassador at the Hague in the critical period 1789–1793, the correspondence of several other English ministers abroad passed through his hands, and transcripts of many of their despatches are included. Numerous letters and memoirs of Eden himself, originals, drafts and copies, occur throughout. Some portion of the collection was published in The Journal and Correspondence of William, Lord Auckland, with preface, etc., by his son R. J. Eden, 3rd Lord Auckland, Bishop of Bath and Wells, 1860–62, 4 vols. The correspondence of George Eden is chiefly private or in connection with his office of President of the Board of Trade (1830–1834), more particularly with respect to commercial negotiations with France. None of his Indian correspondence, when he was Governor-General (1835–1842), is included. Sixty volumes. Paper. Folio and Quarto. With the exception of Vols. LI.–LX., which deal with special subjects, the whole collection is arranged chronologically in a single series. The names of all the writers are given in the Index. For a volume of selected letters, 1768–1827, see also Add. 29,475.

Digitized by Google

(f. 151) is a "List of [Lord H. Spencer's] books sent from Stockholm." Folio.

34,472. CORRESPONDENCE, etc., of the Rt. Hon. Thomas Grenville, collector of the Grenville Library; 1795–1844. The earlier part of the volume consists chiefly of notes of invitation and replies, among the writers being: Rev. Sydney Smith; 13 May, 1844. f. 21; —Samuel Rogers; n. d. ff. 22, 24, 25; —[Dudley Ryder, 1st Earl of] Harrowby; 24 Apr. 1829, n. d. ff. 26, 27, 31; —and [George Granville Leveson Gower, 2nd Duke] of Sutherland; n. d. f. 34. The latter part relates to the Buckinghamshire yeomanry, of which T. Grenville was Lieut. Colonel, being chiefly letters from his brothers [George] Nugent [Temple Grenville, 1st Marquis of] Buckingham, and [William Wyndham Grenville, Lord Grenville]; 3 May, 1797, 14 Oct. 1803—29 June, 1804. ff. 53–78. Included also are: "List of Lord Grenville's political publications [1784–1829] from his own copy." f. 50;—Commission to T. Grenville as Captain of a troop of Buckinghamshire yeomanry; 13 May, 1795. f. 51. Paper and (ff. 51, 52) vellum; ff. 78. Folio. Presented by Mr. William Holden.

34,473. FRAGMENTS of vellum MSS., acquired with Papyri CCLVI.–CCCC., and believed to have been found in the Fayyúm, in Egypt. Greek and (art. 6) Latin. They consist of:—

1. Portions of a MS. of Demosthenes De Falsa Legatione. The MS., when complete, was composed of leaves measuring 7½ in. × 6½ in., with two columns, each of 36 lines, on a page. The fragments preserved include the greater part of four columns and smaller portions of four more, containing parts of §§ 11–32 of the oration. One page (the fourth preserved) bears the number ϛ (=6) in the margin, which proves that the MS. contained nothing before this oration. The writing is in a small, neat, uncial hand, somewhat resembling that in which the unique MS. of Herodas is written (Pap. CXXXV.). There are a few corrections in the original hand, which has also supplied paragraphi, a certain amount of punctuation, and a few accents and breathings. The text is carefully written, with few mistakes, and does not differ greatly from the textus receptus. 2nd cent. (?).
2. Portion of a leaf of a MS. of Demosthenes in Aristogeitonem I., containing parts of §§ 64–67. A small part of the leaf attached to this is also preserved. The MS., when complete, was composed of leaves measuring about 9 in. × 6 in., with a single column to the page, and wide margins. Written in a large uncial hand, with small uncial scholia. The vellum is torn and considerably stained. 5th cent.
3. Small fragment of an unknown Epic poem, containing portions of five lines on each side, in a small sloping uncial hand. 1¾ in. × 2½ in. 3rd or 4th cent. (?).

4. Small fragment of an unknown poem in elegiac verse, containing portions of 16 lines on one side and 13 (much defaced) on the other, in a small uncial hand. 3rd or 4th cent. (?).
5. Small fragment of a MS. of Herodotus, evidently taken from the binding of another manuscript. The fragment contains portions of sentences from v. 77–79, written in two narrow columns to the page, in a small uncial hand. 3rd or 4th cent. (?).
6. Small fragment of a Latin hexameter poem, formerly used in the binding of another manuscript. Portions of two lines are preserved on each side of the vellum, written in a large uncial hand. 6th cent.
7. Two pairs of leaves of a Psalter, containing eight pages in all, nearly perfect. The two pairs belong to different gatherings, and the pages bear the numbers (in Greek, but later than the MS. itself) 32, 33, 38, 39, 82, 83, 84, 85. Each leaf measures 5½ in. × 4½ in. The portion of the text preserved includes Ps. lxxvi. 5–15, lxxvii. 8–16, lxxxv. 8—lxxxvi. 5. The writing is a medium-sized uncial of Coptic type, written στιχηδόν, with enlarged letters at the beginning of each half-verse. The text is carefully written, with few mistakes or otherwise unattested readings. Probably 7th cent.

The following Nos., 34,474–34,483, were bequeathed by Miss Mary Augusta Gordon, sister of Major-General C. G. Gordon.

34,474–34,479. JOURNALS of Major-General Charles George Gordon, C.B., during the siege of Kartoum, from 10 Sept. (the day on which Col. Stewart and Frank Power left Kartoum) to 14 Dec. 1884. Holograph. Six volumes. Paper. Folio. Each volume except the last was wrapped in a linen handkerchief, having a paper label inscribed by Gordon. These wrappers are now preserved in a separate case. The first of the inscriptions is quoted below, in the description of Vol. I., and the rest are similar. With appendices to Vols. I., IV., V. and VI., containing some of Gordon's correspondence with the Mahdi and his lieutenants, and other documents. To each volume Gordon has prefixed the remark (in some cases repeated two or three times): "To be pruned down, if published"; and he has drawn his pen through several passages, to mark them as not "official." The whole journal has, however, been published, together with translations of the appendices, practically without alteration (except for the omission of two or three passages which contain, in Sir H. W. Gordon's opinion, "no matter of public interest"), as The Journals of Major-Gen. C. G. Gordon, C.B., at Kartoum, London, 1885, with introduction and notes by A. E.

Hake, and with a description of the MSS. (at p. lxiv.) by Sir H. W. Gordon. Vol. VI. has also been published in facsimile, General Gordon's Last Journal, London, 1885.

34,474. Vol. I. (ff. 116). 10–23 Sept. The label on the wrapper is inscribed as follows: "Chief of Staff, Soudan Expeditionary Force. For Lt.-Colonel Stewart, C.M.G. (if with army), if not, for General Lord Wolseley, G.C.B., etc. Contains no secrets, as far as I am concerned. Official parts, those not scratched through. C. G. G." At the end of the journal (f. 83) is the note: "To be copied and read by Col. Stewart if he likes, and extracts given Mr. Power (as by promise), afterwards given to Miss Gordon, Southampton; if not wanted by the Foreign Office." The Appendix (ff. 84–115) contains letters to Gordon, in Arabic, from followers of the Mahdi, with copies of Gordon's answers, and some other papers (see Journals, 1885, pp. 399–446); including (f. 98) a copy of a letter written by Hussein Pasha, a Turkish officer serving under General Hicks, very shortly before the annihilation of Hicks's army at Kashgil (ib. p. 426).

34,475, 34,476. Vol. II. (ff. 49). 23–30 Sept.;—Vol. III. (ff. 83). 1–11 Oct.

34,477. Vol. IV. (ff. 62). 12–20 Oct. The Appendix (ff. 34–62) contains letters to Gordon from Slatin Bey, and other papers, including (f. 52) a printed report of "The Insurrection of the False Prophet," compiled in the War Office and dated 23 Nov. 1883 (Journals, pp. 447–510).

34,478. Vol. V. (ff. 115). 21 Oct.—4 Nov. The Appendix (ff. 83–115) contains letters to Gordon from Saleh Bey, Governor at Galabat, from the Greek Consul at Adowa in Abyssinia, from Slatin Bey and others, including (f. 99) one from the Mahdi, 22 Oct. 1884, sealed; as well as the Mahdi's manifesto (f. 110) to the inhabitants of Kartoum (Journals, pp. 511–549).

34,479. Vol. VI. (ff. 133). 5 Nov.—14 Dec. The concluding words are: "NOW MARK THIS. If Expeditionary Force (and I ask for no more than 200 men) does not come in ten days, the town may fall, and I have done my best for the honour of our country. Good-bye. C. G. Gordon." With a postscript: "You send me no information, though you have lots of money! C. G. G." f. 108. The Appendix (ff. 109–113) contains a letter of instructions and a firman (ff. 112, 113) from the Khedive to Gordon, dated 26 Jan. 1884; the firman torn across by Gordon on 25 Nov. 1884, the Khedive having cancelled it by telegram (see Journals, pp. 359, 550–559).

ACQUIRED IN THE YEARS

1888–1893.

[All in Greek, except where it is otherwise stated.]

ACQUIRED IN 1888.

Pap. CXXI. COLLECTION of magical formulæ and incantations, including (1) Ὀμηρομαντία, or lines from the Iliad and Odyssey, in 36 groups of six lines each, imperfect (ll. 1–148); (2) miscellaneous recipes, mostly not magical (ll. 149–185); (3) miscellaneous charms and incantations (ll. 186–973). Lines 668–678 contain a hymn to Hermes, in hexameter verse. Several diagrams of plates inscribed with magical signs occur throughout the text. Probably 3rd cent. 13 in. × 7 ft. 8 in. Opisthograph. Imperfect at the beginning, but the rest in good condition. The writing is a rather cursive uncial, clear and regular. Printed in Greek Papyri in the British Museum, 1893, pp. 83–115.

Pap. CXXII. FOUR MAGICAL INCANTATIONS or charms, including a hymn to the Sun, in hexameters (ll. 74–81). At the end is a sketch of a grotesque figure. Probably 4th cent., written apparently at Hermopolis. $10\frac{3}{4}$ in. × 1 ft. $7\frac{3}{4}$ in. Imperfect at the beginning. Written in a rather irregular uncial hand. Printed, op. cit., pp. 115–120.

Pap. CXXIII. MAGICAL INVOCATION, beginning with the iambic line θυμοῦ σε παύσω καί σε πραννῶ χολῆς. On the verso is a sketch of two grotesque figures, one apparently a baboon, and the other Horus or Harpocrates. 4th or 5th cent. $3\frac{3}{4}$ in. × 11 in. Perfect; in an irregular cursive uncial hand. Printed, op. cit, pp. 120, 121.

Pap. CXXIV. MAGICAL FORMULÆ and charms, with a sketch of a plate inscribed with magical characters. 4th or 5th cent. 9¾ in. × 12 in. Imperfect; in an irregular cursive hand. Printed, op. cit., pp. 121–123.

Pap. CXXV. ACCOMPTS of payments to workmen and tradesmen, all made in kind, viz. in artabas of wheat. 4th cent., after A.D. 320, as there are mentions of the 9th and 10th indiction-years. 11 in. × 1 ft. 6 in. Imperfect; in a slender, flowing, semi-cursive hand. Printed, op. cit., pp. 192–194.

On the verso are instructions for a magical process, entitled γραῦς Ἀπολλωνίου Τυανέως, and involving the transformation of a goddess into the form of an old woman, and binding her to the service of the person using the spell. 4th or 5th cent. Slightly mutilated; in a rough semi-cursive hand. Printed, op. cit., pp. 123–125.

Pap. CXXVI. HOMER'S ILIAD, books ii. 101—iv. 40, omitting ii. 494–877 (the Catalogue of the hosts). The MS. is in book form, consisting of nine sheets, folded so as to make 18 leaves and forming part of a single quire. The text is written on one side only of each leaf. Each written page contains a single column of 4^8–50 lines. The text is full of mistakes, and is written in a sloping uncial hand, perhaps of the 4th or 5th century. The height of the papyrus is 11¾ inches, and each page is 5½ inches broad. Rubbed at the edges, otherwise perfect, but stained to a very dark colour. The MS. was discovered in 1854 by Mr. A. C. Harris in the "Crocodile Pit" at Ma'abdeh (whence he had previously obtained Pap. CVII.), and was sold to the Museum in 1888. Collated in Classical Texts from Papyri in the British Museum, 1891, pp. 81–92.

On the verso of the first three leaves is a grammatical treatise, imperfect at the beginning, and having at the end the title ΤΡΥΦΩΝΟΣ ΤΕΧΝΗ ΓΡΑΜΜΑΤΙΚΗ. It is an outline of Greek grammar, dealing with the pronouns, prepositions, adverbs, and conjunctions, and is probably an abbreviation of the work of Tryphon rather than actually by his hand. 5th cent. (?). Printed in Classical Texts, pp. 109–116.

The verso of the fourth leaf contains some accompts.

Pap. CXXVII. HOMER'S ILIAD; fragments of books v., vi., xviii. Each book is in a different hand, and probably belonged originally to a different MS. The portions of the text contained in the fragments are as follows, but in no case is a complete line preserved:—

(a) Il. v. 731–734, 815–818, 846–850, in a semi-cursive hand, leaning rather backwards.

(b) Il. vi. 90–100, 119–125, in a tall, delicate, uncial hand.

Digitized by Google

(c) Il. xviii. 1–22, 29–33, 77–92, 98–121, 125–136, 152–161, 168–175, 227–230, 273–275, 279–288, 320–349, 359–371, 387–394, 398–410, 412–425, 442–450, 455–465, 467–477, 479–492, 501–518, 534–543, 563–575, 578–617. The MS. originally included 14 columns, each containing about 45 lines, and 10 inches high. The text is generally free from errors. Written in an upright and rather square uncial of fair size, with accents and marks of elision, apparently in the first hand. 3rd or 4th cent. (?). Collated in Classical Texts from Papyri in the British Museum, pp. 98, 99.

ACQUIRED IN 1889.

Pap. CXXVIII. HOMER'S ILIAD; fragments of books xxiii., xxiv. The following lines are preserved, in whole or in part: xxiii. 1–79, 402–633, 638–897, xxiv. 1–83 (ll. 1–40 in a different hand), 100–144, 150–243, 248–282, 337–341, 344–351, 382–387, 402–479, 490–520, 536–548, 559–579, 596–611, 631–657, 671–729, 737–743, 754–759. The MS. when complete was a roll of about 20 ft. in length and 9¾ in. in height, containing 43 or 44 columns, each column consisting of about 40 lines. The scribe who supplied the first column of book xxiv. also corrected the MS. throughout, and added some accents, breathings, and marks of punctuation and elision. The corrector has also added the Aristarchean signs in a few cases. A few scholia are written in a small cursive hand. Probably 1st cent. B.C., in a fine, square uncial hand. Collated in Classical Texts from Papyri in the British Museum, pp. 100–108, and transcribed in full in Journal of Philology, vol. xxi. (1892), pp. 296–343.

Pap. CXXIX. HOMER'S ILIAD; fragments of book i. Three small fragments, containing portions of lines 37–54, 65–67, 207–229. In a small semi-cursive hand of doubtful date, and in very black ink. Collated in Classical Texts from Papyri in the British Museum, p. 80.

Pap. CXXX. HOROSCOPE, apparently of (or else drawn up by) Titus Pitenius. Prefixed is a letter from the astrologer to a pupil named Hermon, exhorting him to accuracy in his use of the art. The nativity is dated on the 6th of Pharmouthi (which is stated to be equivalent to the Kalends of April in the Roman calendar, and the 1st of Pachon in the old Egyptian) in the third year of the deceased emperor Titus [θεοῦ Τίτου, = 1 April, A.D. 81]; and the horoscope itself was probably drawn up shortly afterwards, i.e. about the end of the 1st cent. 10 in. × 2 ft. 1½ in. The writing is in narrow columns, in a large, clear, ornamental uncial hand. Printed in Greek Papyri in the British Museum, pp. 132–139.

Pap. CXXXI. Recto. Accompt-book of Didymus, son of Aspasius, farm-bailiff to Epimachus, son of Polydeuces, in the neighbourhood of Hermopolis, giving his receipts and expenditure for the 11th year of the emperor Vespasian [A.D. 78–79]. Imperfect, the papyrus having been cut to suit the writing on the verso; the portions preserved relate to the months Thoth, Phaophi, Athur, Tubi, Mecheir, Pharmouthi, Pachon [approximately = September, October, November, January, February, April, May], and contain a minute record of farm operations during those months. Sums of money are calculated both in silver and in copper drachmas, being reduced to the former denomination in the totals. In its present state the papyrus is divided into three rolls, measuring 7 ft. 2½ in., 5 ft. 5 in., and 3 ft. in length, and 11 in. in height. Written in a clear and rather elegant semi-cursive hand, with many abbreviations. Printed in Greek Papyri in the British Museum, pp. 166–188.

Verso. Aristotle on the Constitution of Athens (Ἀθηναίων πολιτεία). The three rolls above mentioned are here numbered α, β, and γ τόμος. At the beginning of the first roll a blank space is left, but the actual commencement of the work has not been transcribed. Written in four hands, the first (cols. 1–12) being a small semi-cursive hand, with many abbreviations; the second (cols. 13–19 and half of col. 20) a plain uncial, with many misspellings and mistakes; the third (the rest of col. 20, cols. 21–24 and 31–37) a straggling semi-cursive hand of medium size; the fourth (cols. 25–30) a small hand, resembling the first, but finer and more upright, and with several differences in formation and in the use of abbreviations. The papyrus is much rubbed in places, and there are considerable lacunæ in the third roll. Late 1st or early 2nd cent. Printed in Aristotle on the Constitution of Athens, ed. F. G. Kenyon (1891, 3rd ed. 1892), with facsimile of the whole in a separate atlas.

Pap. CXXXI*. Recto. Accompt-book of the same Didymus for the preceding year, the 10th of Vespasian, containing his accounts for portions of the months Phamenoth and Pharmouthi [= March and April, A.D. 78]. Much mutilated and in bad condition; originally measured about 3 ft. in length and 10 in. in height. Printed after Pap. cxxxi. (vid. supr.), pp. 189–191.

On the verso is the concluding portion of Aristotle's Ἀθηναίων πολιτεία (cols. 31–37), this having formed the fourth roll of that work. The writing is in very bad condition, except in the last column. Printed with the rest of the work (vid. supr.).

Pap. CXXXII. Isocrates' oration On the Peace (περὶ Εἰρήνης). The first part (containing §§ 1–61) is fragmentary, the rest (§§ 62–145) is nearly perfect, and the title is preserved at the end. The MS. when complete contained about 48 columns, and measured nearly 14 ft. in length and 11 in. in height. Written in two hands, of which the first only wrote a small part of the beginning of the oration; in rather narrow columns, containing on an average 45 lines each. The hand is a moderate-sized, rather cursive uncial. 1st cent. (?). Collated in Classical Texts from Papyri in the British Museum, pp. 63–79.

Pap. CXXXIII. Demosthenes' third Epistle, on behalf of the children of Lycurgus, written on the same roll of papyrus as the oration of Hyperides against Philippides (Pap. cxxxiv.). The end of the papyrus is lost, containing §§ 38 (from the words ὀφειλόμενα εἰσπράξας) to 45. Written in twelve columns, leaning strongly to the right, measuring 2 ft. 9 in. in length and 9½ in. in height; in a very small and fine uncial. 2nd or 1st cent. B.C. Collated in Classical Texts from Papyri in the British Museum, pp. 56–62.

Pap. CXXXIV. Hyperides, fragments of the oration against Philippides. This oration occupied the first part of the roll on which the epistle of Demosthenes (Pap. cxxxiii.) was written, a space of about a foot separating the end of the oration from the beginning of the epistle. The last nine columns of the oration are preserved almost intact, and there are fragments, generally small, of about six others. There is no title or name of author, but Hyperides is known to have delivered a speech against Philippides, whose name occurs in this fragment as the defendant; and the style and sentiments confirm the attribution of the work to him. Written in a somewhat small and very neat uncial, with strongly marked ligatures; the columns are narrow and lean strongly to the right. 2nd or 1st cent. B.C. Printed in Classical Texts from Papyri in the British Museum, pp. 42–55.

Pap. CXXXV. The Mimes of Herodas [or Herondas, as he is called by Athenæus]. The conclusion of the MS. is lost, but six poems are preserved almost intact, with a seventh in a fragmentary state, and small portions of at least two more. No author's name is given, but the title of each poem is prefixed. Changes of speakers are indicated by paragraphi. The papyrus measures (excluding the detached fragments) 14 ft. 10 in. in length and 5 in. in height, containing 42 columns, with fragments of at least 5 more; each column consists of from 15 to 19 (generally 18) lines. Written in a small clear uncial hand, with a few corrections and additions in a cursive hand, apparently of the 2nd century. Accents and marks of quantity are occasionally added in the first hand. 1st or 2nd cent. Printed in Classical Texts from Papyri in the British Museum, pp. 1–41, with Addendum on pp. 117–122; a facsimile of the whole MS. in a separate volume (1892). Purchased from the Bridgwater Fund.

Pap. CXXXVI. Recto. TAX-ASSESSMENT or rate. The exact nature of the assessment is doubtful, owing to the mutilated state of the document, but the entries consist mainly of names of persons followed by sums of money, stated in drachmas, and amounts of wheat, stated in artabas; the latter standing to the former in a slightly varying ratio of about 8 : 1. 2nd cent. About 5 ft. 6 in. by 12 inches, imperfect at beginning and end, and considerably mutilated throughout. Written in a semi-cursive hand, of the same type as that of Pap. CXIX.

Verso. HOMER'S ILIAD, fragments of books iii. and iv. The last five columns are almost perfect, the earlier ones more or less fragmentary. The following lines are preserved, more or less completely: iii. 317–337, 342–372, iv. 1–28, 56–69, 74–79, 111–150, 159–192, 198–201, 208–245, 256–293, 303–345, 352–544. The title is added at the end. The fourth book originally occupied 12 columns, of from 42 to 63 (usually 46) lines each. Written in a rough, ugly uncial of medium size; the first column of book iv. in a different hand, more compressed than the other. Mistakes in orthography and copying are common. Probably 3rd cent. Collated in Classical Texts from Papyri in the British Museum, pp. 93–97.

Pap. CXXXVII. MEDICAL TREATISE by an unknown author, evidently written between the time of the physician Alexander Philalethes (end of 1st cent. B.C.) and that of Galen (flor. A.D. 165–170). The subject of the treatise is the causes of disease, the first half containing a historical retrospect of the opinions of early physicians, and the second an exposition of the author's own views, with polemics against other prevalent opinions, especially those of Erasistratus and Asclepiades. The historical summary begins with Euryphon of Cnidus and ends with Philistion, and is probably based partly on the ἰατρικὴ συναγωγή of Menon, the pupil of Aristotle. Aristotle, to whom the authorship of Menon's compilation was often referred (Galen, Com. ad I. Hipp. de nat. hom., ed. Kühn, XV. 25), is quoted as the authority for the opinions of three of the physicians named. The opinions of the author himself are eclectic, but are generally anti-Erasistratean. (See Classical Review, vi. 237–240, and Hermes, xxviii. 407–434, for a fuller description of the contents of the MS.) The MS. contains 39 columns, or portions of columns, containing 50–60 lines each, and measures about 12 feet in length and 9 in. in height. The beginning is lost, to the extent of one or two columns, and the MS. is much mutilated and defaced throughout; the end of the work is intact. Written in a rather small and plain cursive hand. Probably 2nd cent., and of the first half of the century rather than the second. Edited by Prof. H. Diels in vol. iii. pt. 1 of the Supplementum Aristotelicum of the Berlin Academy (1893).

On the verso is a copy of a rescript by the triumvir Marcus Antonius to the κοινόν of Asia (Μάρκος Ἀντώνιος αὐτοκράτωρ τριῶν ἀνδρῶν δημοσίων πραγμάτων ἀπὸ καταστάσεως τῶι κοινῶι τῶν ἀπὸ [sic] τῆς Ἀσίας Ἑλλήνων), with reference to certain privileges granted by him to the σύνοδος τῶν ἀπὸ τῆς οἰκουμένης ἱερονικῶν καὶ στεφανειτῶν (cf. C. I. G. 2931), and granting permission for the erection of a tablet to commemorate the same. The rescript occupies a single column of 33 lines, in a fair-sized semi-cursive hand. 2nd cent. Printed in Classical Review, vii. p. 477.

Elsewhere on the verso are two passages belonging to the work on the recto, and a short recipe.

ACQUIRED IN 1890.

Pap. CXXXVIII. PORTION of deed of sale of a piece of land. The names of both vendor (who is a woman) and purchaser are lost. Latin. 6th cent. 10½ in. × 11½ in. Imperfect (apparently the upper part of the second column of the document), in a large Roman cursive hand.

ACQUIRED IN 1891.

Pap. CXXXIX. (a) COPY of receipt given by Chæremon, son of Socrates [cf. Pap. CLXIII.], to Petaüs, Petheus, and Marres, husbandmen, for the produce of the land which they hold from him, without prejudice to a debt of other produce due to him from Marres. Dated the 30th Cæsareius [= Mesoré] in the 8th year of the emperor Tiberius Claudius Cæsar Augustus Germanicus [= 23 August, A.D. 48]. 6¾ in. × 5 in. Perfect; in a strongly-marked semi-cursive hand of medium size. Printed, with facsimile, in Palæographical Society, Series II., pl. 144 (1891).

(b) CERTIFICATE granted to Panephremmis that he has worked on the embankments ἐν τῇ καινῇ ἐξαθύρῳ [? "on the new six-sluice embankment"] in Socnopæi Nesus, for five days, beginning from the 15th Paüni in the 11th year of the emperor Tiberius Claudius Cæsar Augustus Germanicus [= 10 June, A.D. 51]. Officially certified by Corax. 3 in. × 5½ in. Perfect; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CXL. Record of sale by Mysthes to a woman named Tesenuphis of arable land in the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë. Dated in the reign of the emperor Vespasian [A.D. 68–79]. 10½ in. × 5 in. Mutilated; in a small, ornamental, semi-cursive hand. Printed, with facsimile, in Palæographical Society, II. 144 (1891).

Pap. CXLI. Record of sale by Didymus, also named Diodorus, son of Acusilaüs, and Diodora his wife, to Miccalus, son of Ptolemæus, of certain olive-yards, some of them situated near the village of Karanis, in the division of Heracleides. Dated at Ptolemais Euergetis in the nome of Arsinoë, on the 9th Sotereius (= 9th Paüni) in the 7th year of the emperor Domitianus Augustus Germanicus [= 3 June, A.D. 88]. 3½ in. × 1 ft. 10 in. Imperfect; written in a large, carefully formed uncial hand, with cursive superscription. Printed, with facsimile, in Palæographical Society, II. 146 (1891).

Pap. CXLII. Acknowledgment by Marcus Sempronius Gemellus, soldier in the 3rd (Cyrenaica) legion, in the century of Pomponius Severus, of the repayment to him by Miccalus, son of Ptolemæus, of a loan of 1240 drachmas; with autograph subscription by Gemellus. Dated at Karanis, in the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë, on the 1st Peritius (=1st Choiach) of the 15th year of the emperor Domitianus Augustus Germanicus [= 27 Nov., A.D. 95]. 9¼ in. × 6¾ in. Nearly perfect; in a small cursive hand. Printed, with facsimile, in Palæographical Society, II. 147 (1891).

Pap. CXLIII. Acknowledgment by Kephalas, son of Petosiris, of the repayment to him by Papontos, daughter of Chæremon, and wife of Miccalus, son of Ptolemæus, of the sum of 160 drachmas, being the final instalment of a debt of 200 drachmas; with autograph subscription by Kephalas. Dated at Karanis, in the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë, the 6th Artemisius (= 6th Phamenoth) in the first year of the emperor Nerva Cæsar Augustus [= 2 March, A.D. 97]. 9¼ in. × 4½ in. Perfect; in small cursive hand. Printed, with facsimile, in Palæographical Society, II. 148 (1891).

Pap. CXLIV. Letter from Alexander to his master Athenodorus, complaining of having been left without either work or food for two days, so that he did not even get dinner with the Nomarchs (νόμαρχοι). 1st or 2nd cent. 6 in. × 4½ in. Nearly perfect; in medium-sized semi-cursive hand. The writing has been somewhat blotted by being folded when wet.

Pap. CXLV. Portion of a private letter, consisting of two columns, of which the upper part is torn off. The second column is also badly rubbed. 2nd cent. 4 in. × 11 in. Imperfect; in a rather rough semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CXLVI. Record of payment of a sum of money, but the parties and the object in question are doubtful. Dated in the 6th year of the emperor Vespasian (?) [=A.D. 73–74]. 9½ in. × 4½ in. Considerably rubbed; in a thin and very cursive hand.

Pap. CXLVII. Fragment containing portions of three short magical spells. 2nd or 3rd cent. 5¾ in. × 4¾ in. Imperfect, wanting the left-hand portion of the papyrus; in a rather square semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CXLVIII. Magical incantation, to secure a woman's affections. 2nd or 3rd cent. 9 in. × 5 in. Imperfect, nearly all the second column being lost; written in two columns, in a medium-sized rough uncial hand.

Pap. CXLIX. Portion of a will. The testator's name is lost, but his wife's name, Tamystha, is mentioned, and he appears to have been a resident in Karanis [in the division of Heracleides, in the nome of Arsinoë]. 1st or 2nd cent. 4½ in. × 1 ft. 7 in. Imperfect and considerably mutilated; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CL. Fragment of legal testimony given by Claudius Theon, the purport of which is not preserved. The name Zoilus also occurs in the fragment. 1st or 2nd cent. 4 in. × 8 in. Imperfect, only the right-hand portion of a long and narrow strip being preserved; in a clear uncial hand.

Pap. CLI. Receipt given by Didymus to Petheus πρεσβύτερος for produce of oliveyards rented by the latter in Karanis [in the division of Heracleides, in the nome of Arsinoë]. Dated in the 7th year of an emperor whose name is mutilated beyond recognition. 2nd cent. (?). 4¾ in. × 3¾ in. Imperfect; in a rough cursive hand.

Pap. CLII. Portion of a legal agreement, the exact description of which is lost. Dated in the month Cæsareius [=Mesoré] in the 3rd year of the emperors Antoninus and Verus [=August, A.D. 163]. 12 in. × 7½ in. Much defaced; in a small, neat, semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CLIII. Receipt given by Sergidius (?), son of Dioscorus, a servant of the legate of Egypt, for the repayment to him by Marianus, on behalf of Ptolemæus [who also has a Roman name, which is illegible], of a deposit of 1000 drachmas. 4th cent. (?). 5 in. × 4 in. Imperfect; in a rough cursive hand.

Pap. CLIV. Deed of sale by Heracleides, son of Petheus, to Philemon, son of Ptolemæus, of part of a court in Karanis; with autograph signatures of the contracting parties. Dated at Karanis, in the division of Heracleides, in the nome of Arsinoë, the 20th Tubi in the 14th year of the emperor Nero Claudius Cæsar Augustus Germanicus [=9 Jan., A.D. 68]. 11¼ in. × 12½ in. Nearly perfect; in a good-sized cursive hand.

Pap. CLV. Fragment of a medical treatise, apparently relating to operations of dentistry. Portions of five columns are preserved, but the remains of the first and last of these are very small. The beginning of a new section is marked near the bottom of the last column. 1st or 2nd cent. 11 in. × 14½ in. Much mutilated; in a small, neat uncial hand.

On the verso are remains of two columns of choliambic verse, with traces of a third. The first column contains 20 lines, the second 21, occupying barely half the height of the papyrus (cf. the size of the columns in the Herodas papyrus, Pap. CXXXV.). Much mutilated; in very rough uncials. 3rd cent. (?). Among the few complete verses are the following:—

ἐπὴν ἔχῃς τι, πάντα σοι φίλων πλήρη·
πλουτοῦντα γάρ σε χοὶ θεοὶ φιλήσουσι·
πένητα δ' ὄντα χὴ τεκοῦσα μεισήσει.

Pap. CLVI. List of names, followed by sums of money in drachmas (generally 4, 8, or 12); apparently a pay-sheet. One section is headed πρὸς πόσιν. The name of the village Karanis [in the division of Heracleides, in the nome of Arsinoë] occurs at the head of one part of the document. Endorsed απο κωμης η . . Dated the 30th Tubi [=25 January] in the 16th year, but the emperor is not named [probably of Marcus Aurelius, = A.D. 176, or Severus, =A.D. 208]. 9½ in. × 6¼ in. Nearly perfect; in a medium-sized cursive hand.

Pap. CLVII. (a) Private letter, short and somewhat rubbed. 2nd or 3rd cent. 5½ in. × 3¾ in., of which about half is blank. Perfect; in a thin semi-cursive hand.

(b) Receipt given by Ammonous (with her brother Ptollas, described as ὁ πάπας, as her κύριος or legal guardian) to Apeilas for produce of land rented by the latter in Karanis [in the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë]. 3rd cent. (?). 4 in. × 4 in. Imperfect, the subscription of the recipient being almost wholly lost; in a rough semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CLVIII. (a) FRAGMENT of a money-accompt. Dated in Phaophi of the 3rd year of the emperor Traianus Hadrianus [= October, A.D. 118]. 5 in. × 3½ in. Imperfect; in a cursive hand, with a small and very cursive subscription.

(b) ACCOMPT, for the 19th day. 3rd cent. (?). 3 in. × 4¾ in. Nearly perfect; in a very cursive hand. The writing is at right angles to the fibres of the papyrus.

Pap. CLIX. HESIOD'S THEOGONIA; fragments, including portions of ll. 210–238, 260–270. The largest fragment measures 8 in. × 4½ in., and contains the full height of a column, consisting of 29 lines. Written in a large uncial hand, and with very black ink; a few corrections in fainter ink. Marks of punctuation are inserted by the first hand, other marks (accents, etc.) apparently by the second. 4th or 5th cent. Printed in the Revue de Philologie, xvi. pp. 181–183 (1892).

Pap. CLX. FRAGMENT of a literary work, apparently historical; in the course of it occur the names Λούκιος Ἀντώνιος and Ῥωμαίου. A considerable part of one broad column is preserved, with a small portion of another, apparently in a different hand. 2nd or 3rd cent. (?). 8½ in. × 12 in. Much mutilated; in a plain uncial hand of fair size.

Pap. CLXI. FRAGMENT, apparently of a tax-register, containing a list of names followed by amounts of artabas of wheat. Portions of two columns. 2nd cent. 7½ in. × 7 in. Much mutilated; in a small, neat, cursive hand.

On the verso are some remains of similar matter in a larger hand.

Pap. CLXII. a, b, c. THREE small, much mutilated fragments, from different documents. 2nd cent. 6 in. × 2¼ in., 4 in. × 1¾ in., and 3¼ in. × 2¾ in.

Pap. CLXIII. ACKNOWLEDGMENT by Sambas and Neon, descendants of the Persian settlers in Egypt, of a lease of a vineyard in Karanis [in the division of Heracleides, in the nome of Arsinoë], which they have received from Chæremon, Orion, and Socrates, sons of Chæremon. Dated at the beginning of the 8th year of the emperor Domitianus Augustus [= circ. September, A.D. 88]. 7 in. × 5 in. Imperfect at the right-hand edge and at the foot; written in a medium-sized cursive hand.

Pap. CLXIV. RECORD of tax paid by Zenas, son of Zenas; headed ἀπὸ τάξεως βασιλ(ικῆς). 3rd cent. (?). 8¾ in. × 5¼ in. Perfect; in a rough cursive hand.

Pap. CLXX. TAX-RECEIPT, given to Sotas, son of Ptolemy, for taxes to the amount of 20 drachmas for the preceding year. Dated in the 15th year of the emperor Aurelius Antoninus [=A.D. 174–5]. 4½ in. × 4½ in. Slightly mutilated; in a very rough cursive hand.

Pap. CLXXI. (a) Receipt given by Orion, tax-collector (πράκτωρ) for the village of Socnopæi Nesus, to Apunchis πρεσβύτερος, son of Apunchis, for a portion of the value of his grass (χλωρά) for the 5th year. Dated the 25th Phamenoth in the 5th year of the emperor [Nerva] Traianus Augustus Germanicus [=21 March, A.D. 102]. 6¾ in. × 2½ in., most being blank. Nearly perfect; in a small cursive hand.

(b) Application by Antonia Nemesilla, daughter of Cronion, a veteran, to Aurelius Rhesus, strategus of Heracleopolis, for the opening and execution of the will of her husband, a soldier lately deceased. Dated in the reign of some emperors whose names are lost. 3rd cent. 6¼ in. × 3 in. Nearly perfect; in a clear, medium-sized semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CLXXII. RECEIPT given by Praknas, son of Petheus, for a sum of 220 drachmas, in part repayment of a deposit made by his father. Dated the 9th Phamenoth in the 8th year of the emperor Nerva Traianus Augustus Germanicus Dacicus [=5 March, A.D. 105]. 6 in. × 4¼ in., most being blank; in a rough, uneducated uncial hand.

Pap. CLXXIII. ACKNOWLEDGMENT of a receipt or lease (?) given by a woman named Thatreies to Claudius Julianus, of the village of Karanis in the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë. Dated in the 5th year of the emperor Nerva Traianus [Augustus] Germanicus [=A.D. 101–102]; in a different hand at the foot of the document the date 25th Choiach [=21 December] is mentioned. 9¼ in. × 3½ in. Mutilated; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CLXXIV. (a) and (b) TWO FRAGMENTS, apparently of a tax-register, containing statements of extents of land, calculated in ἄρουραι. 2nd cent. (?). 4¼ in. × 2½ in. and 4⅛ in. × 2½ in. Mutilated; in a small cursive hand.

(c) SMALL FRAGMENT, dated in the month Sebastus [=Thoth] in the 8th year of an emperor whose name is almost entirely lost [possibly Vespasian, = September, A.D. 75]. 2 in. × 1½ in. Imperfect; in a small cursive hand.

(d) FRAGMENT, apparently of a certificate for work upon the embankments in Socnopæi Nesus, but the name of the recipient and the date are mutilated. 2nd cent. 3 in. × 2½ in. Imperfect; in a small cursive hand.

Pap. CLXXV. (a) FRAGMENT of tax-register, with statements of ἄρουραι of land and ἀρτάβαι of wheat. 1st or 2nd cent. 5 in. × 5 in. Imperfect; in a good semi-cursive hand.

(b) FRAGMENT, perhaps of tax-register, with statements of ἄρουραι of land. 2nd cent. 4¾ in. × 3¼ in. Imperfect; in semi-cursive hand.

(c) FRAGMENT of list of names, dated in the 7th year of the emperor [Tibe]rius [Claudius Cæsar Augustus Germanicus, =A.D. 46–47]. 5½ in. × 3 in. Much mutilated; in a medium-sized cursive hand.

(d) FRAGMENT, dated in the reign of the emperor Marcus Aurelius [A.D. 161–180]. 5¼ in. × 2¼ in. Much mutilated; in a rough cursive hand.

(e) FRAGMENT of account, with sums in drachmas, from Karanis. 2nd cent. (?). 5¼ in. × 2 in. Imperfect; in a rather rough semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CLXXVI. FRAGMENT, dated in Paüni of the 4th year of the emperor Severus Alexander [Pius Felix] Augustus [=June, A.D. 225]. The nature of the contents is uncertain. 8½ in. × 3¾ in. Much mutilated; in a rather large rough hand.

Pap. CLXXVII. PETITION by Versenuphis, living in the village of Bacchias in the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë, to Gaius Vitrasius Pollio [prefect of Egypt under Claudius, cf. Plin. N. H. xxxvi. 7 § 11], for assistance to recover property left to him and his brothers by their father, which had been seized by their elder married sister. The father's death occurred in the 4th year of the emperor Gaius Cæsar Augustus [A.D. 39–40], and as he is spoken of as the reigning emperor the date of the document must be A.D. 40–41. In the course of the document the 35th year Καίσαρος θεοῦ is mentioned [i.e. Augustus, = A.D. 5–6]. 11 in. × 6¼ in. Nearly perfect; in a large, clear uncial hand. Printed, with facsimile, in Palæographical Society, II. 145 (1891).

Pap. CLXXVIII. (a) RECEIPT, given by Petronia, daughter of Sarapia, to Julius Apollinarius, a soldier of the first cohort, a native of Apamea, and in the century of Julianus, for 400 drachmas, in part repayment of the dowry which she had brought him. Approved and signed on her behalf by her brother, Gaius Petronius Marcellus. Dated the 10th Pharmouthi in the 8th year of the emperor Titus Ælius Hadrianus Antoninus Augustus Pius [=5th April, A.D. 145]. 9½ in. × 4¾ in. Perfect; in a rather rough semi-cursive hand. Printed, with facsimile, in Palæographical Society, II. 149 (1891).

(b) COUNTERPART of the above, in a similar but rather larger hand, wanting the end of the subscription. 9½ in. × 4¾ in. Printed ibidem.

Pap. CLXXIX. PORTIONS of register of official correspondence of the strategus of the Diospolite nome in the Thebaid. Dates are preserved in the months Epeiph, Germaniceius [=Paüni?], and Pachon in the 11th year of the emperor Traianus Hadrianus Augustus [=July, June(?), and May, A.D. 127]. Two irregular-shaped fragments, 6½ in. × 7 in. and 6 in. × 7½ in. in extreme measurements. Very imperfect; in a neat, well-formed semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CLXXX. PORTION of register of receipts by the σιτολόγοι of the village of Neilopolis; the last entry, which alone is complete, is a certificate by the σιτολόγοι of the measuring of two amounts of corn in the treasury of the said village on account of the community of Socnopæi Nesus, dated the 9th Pachon and the 4th Paüni in the 7th year of the emperor Marcus Aurelius Severus Alexander Pius Felix Augustus [=4 and 29 May, A.D. 228]. 12½ in. × 5¾ in. Imperfect at the beginning; in a rough cursive hand. Printed, with facsimile, in Palæographical Society, II. 150 (1891).

Pap. CLXXXI. PORTIONS of list of names (with the names of each individual's father and mother), followed by sums of money, generally 4, 8, or 12 drachmas. The scribe Apollonius makes formal oath of its accuracy. Dated in the month Neroneius Sebastus [=Pharmouthi?] in the 10th year of the emperor Nero Claudius Augustus Germanicus [=April, A.D. 64]. Three fragments, measuring 5¾ in. × 3½ in., 5 in. × 10¼ in., and 6 in. × 7 in. Imperfect; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CLXXXII. (a) RECEIPT for taxes paid by Panephremmis, son of Stotoëtis, of the village of Socnopæi Nesus, on the 21st Tubi and the 27th Pachon in the 2nd year of the emperor Marcus Aurelius Antoninus Pius Felix Augustus [i.e. Elagabalus, = 16 Jan. and 22 May, A.D. 219]. 8½ in. × 2¼ in. Perfect; in a very cursive hand, much abbreviated.

(b) EXTRACT from the fourth column of the census register for the 23rd year [of Antoninus Pius], relating to the village of Karanis, containing the household of Petheus, son of Isidorus. Made apparently on the occasion of his son, Isidorus, succeeding to his property, and evidently between A.D. 159–60 and A.D. 173–4, the date of the next census. 5 in. × 3½ in. Imperfect, the lower portion of the papyrus being torn off; in a medium-sized cursive hand.

Pap. CLXXXIII. Fragment, apparently of a receipt, almost illegible, owing to the dark colour of the papyrus. 2nd cent. (?). 4 in. × 5¼ in. In a rather rough semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CLXXXIV. Small fragment of a literary work, apparently a dialogue on ethics. Remains of two very narrow columns (containing only 11 or 12 letters in a line). 2nd or 3rd cent. (?). 5½ in. × 4½ in., including a very wide top margin. In a medium-sized, rather uneven uncial hand.

Pap. CLXXXV. Fragments, very much mutilated, of uncertain character. 2nd or 3rd cent. Of irregular shape, in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand. On the verso are a few illegible remains of writing.

Pap. CLXXXVI. Recto. Fragments, apparently of medical recipes. 2nd cent. (?). About 10 in. × 10 in., but the exact relation of the fragments is not certain. Much mutilated; in a rough uncial hand.

Verso. Remains of three (or four) columns of a drama on the subject of Jason. No complete line is preserved. The chorus consisted of Corinthian maidens, and the names of Ægeus, Jason (who is one of the interlocutors), and Creon are mentioned. A change of speaker is indicated by a paragraphus. The rare word τυφεδών occurs in the fragments. 2nd or 3rd cent. Much mutilated; in a rough semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CLXXXVII. Recto. Fragment of a literary work, describing the customs of some nation. Near the end of the fragment occurs the name of Ἡγησίλαος ὁ Λάκων. Portions of two narrow columns are preserved, but the second is almost entirely obliterated. Probably 1st or 2nd cent. 4½ in. × 6¾ in. Mutilated; in a large, finely formed uncial hand.

Verso. Fragments of the Laches of Plato, pp. 181 B–182 A. Portions of two columns are preserved, but only a few words are legible. 2nd cent. (?). Much mutilated; in a rather rough uncial hand.

Pap. CLXXXVIII. List of names, each followed by the statement of a number of artabas of wheat. The purpose of the register is uncertain. Six columns remain, some mutilated. 2nd cent. (?). 8¼ in. × 1 ft. 8 in. Imperfect; in a rather rough semi-cursive hand.

On the verso is another list of names, also followed by the statement of a number of artabas of wheat, and that again by the statement of a number of σάκ(κοι). Probably 3rd cent. Imperfect; in a rough sprawling hand.

Pap. CLXXXIX. List of names, apparently those of the officials of a village, with perhaps the workmen under their direction. The names are divided into groups, and the number in each group is noted at the foot. One group is headed πεδιοφύλαξ, another ἀρχέφοδος κώμης. 2nd cent. 4½ in. × 2 ft. 2¼ in. Imperfect, the first part of the roll being lost; in a medium-sized cursive hand.

Pap. CXC. Letter, apparently from a steward or bailiff, to Agrippinus, in answer to complaints made by the latter that nothing had been sent to him. A list of provisions is attached, which are stated to have been sent by the hand of Eutyches. Probably 2nd cent. 8½ in. × 7½ in. Slightly mutilated; in a rather rough semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CXCI. Inventory given by Tertia Ancharenia to Julius Agrippianus, the official appointed to superintend the sale of the household goods and chattels formerly belonging to her deceased husband. Dated [apparently at Karanis, in the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë] in Epeiph [=July] of some year [the exact date is lost] of the emperor [Nerva Traianus] Germanicus Dacicus. Since Trajan only took the title of Dacicus at the end of A.D. 102, the date of the document falls between A.D. 103 and A.D. 117. 8½ in. × 6 in. Imperfect, the left-hand portion of the papyrus being torn away; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand, with rough subscription by Tertia Ancharenia. Printed, with facsimile, in Palæographical Society, II. 163 (1892).

Pap. CXCII. Portion of an accompt, apparently official, consisting of lists of names, followed by amounts in arouras and an unfamiliar symbol. In the course of it, reference is made to the 32nd year Καίσαρος θεοῦ, i.e. the deceased emperor Augustus [=A.D. 2–3], but the document may be several years later than this. 1st cent. 11¼ in. × 16¼ in. Imperfect, being the end of a roll; in a neat semi-cursive hand.

On the verso are some private accompts, bearing dates in the month Pachon [=May], in a somewhat similar but less ornamental hand.

Pap. CXCIII. Portion of a tax-register, consisting of names of persons and amounts of artabas of wheat. 1st cent. 10¼ in. × 1 ft. 9 in. Parts of three broad columns, mutilated; in a rather ornamental semi-cursive hand.

On the verso are fragments of an accompt (?), with dates in the 14th and 15th years, but the emperor is not named. 2nd cent. (?). Mutilated; in a rough semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CXCIV. Portion of a tax-register (apparently), consisting of names of persons and amounts of artabas of wheat. Part of it refers to the village of Neilopolis. Late 1st cent. 9¼ in. × 11 in. Imperfect, containing three complete columns, and portions of two more; in a small cursive hand, somewhat defaced.

On the verso is a portion of an accompt, closely resembling that on Pap. CXCIII. verso, and perhaps by the same hand. It bears a date in the 15th year of an unnamed emperor. Imperfect.

Pap. CXCV. Valuation of property, consisting of vineyards, pleasure-grounds, etc., with the values stated in drachmas and obols. Probably late 1st cent. Two fragments, 10¼ in. × 7¼ in., and 6 in. × 6½ in., apparently from the same MS. Imperfect; in a good-sized semi-cursive hand, somewhat resembling that of Pap. CXXXI.

On the verso of the larger fragment are some private accompts (?), mutilated and abounding in abbreviations. 2nd cent.

Pap. CXCVI. Record of a dispute at law concerning money lent by Julius Agrippinus to Valerius Apolinarius (sic), with a schedule of the loans. One of the loans is stated to have been made in the 2nd year of the deceased emperor Hadrian (θεοῦ Ἀδριανοῦ), and it may consequently be inferred that the document itself belongs to the reign of Antoninus Pius [=A.D. 138–161]. 10 in. × 15 in. Imperfect, consisting of two broad columns, the first mutilated; in a bold, well-formed cursive hand.

Pap. CXCVII. Record apparently of payments made on several different days. 2nd cent. 8½ in. × 3¼ in. Much mutilated; in a rather rough cursive hand.

On the verso is a private letter, complaining of some injury done to the writer by a third party. 3rd cent. (?). Mutilated; in a rough semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CXCVIII. Portion of a petition, addressed to the δικαιοδότης [of the province of Egypt] by a resident in the village of Karanis in the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë, apparently applying for restitution of the share due to him of the property of his father, Prodicus Gaius, the latter having died while his son was a minor, and his wife having taken as her second husband a soldier named Longinus. In the reign of Marcus Aurelius, whose name occurs in the course of the document [A.D. 161–180]. 5½ in. × 5¼ in. Imperfect; in a rather curiously formed cursive hand.

Pap. CXCIX. LIST of certain officials in the village of Socnopæi Nesus, including the ἀρχέφοδος, εἰρηνοφύλακες, and φύλακες. Each name is followed by the statement of a sum of money (800, 600, or 300 drachmas), perhaps denoting caution-money required of these officials. The list is repeated on the verso in a different hand, omitting the sums of money, but adding a heading which states that it is taken from the public records (ἐκ βιβλίου δημοσίου) in the public record-office (ἐκ γραφείου δημοσίου), and relates to the 9th year of an unnamed emperor. 2nd cent. (?). 6¾ in. × 4½ in. Apparently nearly perfect; in a thin clear hand, that on the verso being larger and fainter.

Pap. CC. LIST of names, followed by statements of arouras of land and artabas of wheat; perhaps a tax-assessment. 2nd cent. 12 in. × 3½ in. Imperfect; in a small cursive hand.

Pap. CCI. (a) FRAGMENT of tax-receipt, dated the 23rd Tubi in the 8th year of the emperor Traianus Ha[drianus] Augustus [=18 Jan., A.D. 124]; countersigned by Dioscorus. 4¾ in. × 1¾ in. Imperfect, wanting the right-hand portion; in a small cursive hand, with abbreviations.

(b) SMALL FRAGMENT of no importance, formerly attached to the preceding fragment, but in a totally different hand. 4½ in. × 2 in.

Pap. CCII. STATEMENT of sums of money on loan (apparently), with the interest payable on them, which is at the rates (in different instances) of 1 dr., 1 dr. 3 obols, and 1 dr. 5 obols [= 12, 18, and 22 per cent. per ann.]. 1st or 2nd cent. 6 in. × 4½ in. Imperfect, wanting the left-hand portion; in a neat semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCIII. RECORD of money spent by or paid to Gemella, the amount being in nearly every case four drachmas, and the payments being generally monthly. The months are specified, but not the year. 2nd or 3rd cent. 4½ in. × 3¾ in. Perfect; in a very rough hand.

Pap. CCIV. FRAGMENTS of accompts. 6th or 7th cent. 7½ in. × 3½ in. Imperfect; in a small hand, much abbreviated. Opisthograph.

Pap. CCV. PORTION of a tax- or property-register, relating in part to the village of Karanis [in the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë]. Probably 2nd cent.; reference is made to the 16th year, but the emperor's name is not given. 12 in. × 10½ in. Imperfect, with large lacunæ; in a flowing cursive hand.

On the verso are a few scraps of accompts, relating to wheat.

Pap. CCVI. (a) FRAGMENT of a document of uncertain character, including several proper names. The names 'Augustus Germanicus,' which are all that remain of the name of the emperor, show that the date is before A.D. 117; and it is probably of the 1st cent. 4¾ in. × 3 in. Imperfect; in a bold semi-cursive hand.

(b) LIST of names, followed by sums in drachmas and obols. 2nd cent. 4¾ in. × 3 in. Imperfect; in a rough hand.

(c) RECEIPT for payment by Sarapion of a tax (in wheat) on three camels and a foal. Dated in Tubi of the 14th year of the emperor Aurelius Antoninus [= January, A.D. 174]. 3 in. × 2½ in. Perfect; in a small cursive hand.

(d) RECEIPT for payment by Nathras (?) of a tax (in wheat ?) on two asses. Dated the 21st Epeiph [=15th July] of the 9th year of an unnamed emperor. 2nd cent. 2½ in. × 1¾ in. Perfect; in a rough hand.

Pap. CCVII. PORTION of a legal agreement (?). 2nd cent. 5¾ in. × 7½ in. Imperfect and much defaced; in a very cursive hand.

Pap. CCVIII. (a) CERTIFICATE OF DEATH, addressed to the βασιλικὸς γραμματεύς of the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë, by Heron, son of Petesuches. A reference is made in the course of it to the street of the goose-pens (χηνοβοσκίων), cf. Pap. CCCIII. Dated in Epeiph of the 22nd year of the emperor Hadrianus [=July, A.D. 138], with a reference to the preceding census of the 16th year [A.D. 131–132]. N.B. Hadrian died on the 10th July, A.D. 138, but his death would not be known in Egypt till some days later. 8 in. × 3 in. Partially defaced; in a small cursive hand.

On the verso is a draft of a deed of sale, much defaced. 2nd cent.

(b) RECEIPT, given by Sempronia Thaisarion, daughter (or wife) of Julius Longus, to a person whose name is lost. 2nd cent. 3¼ in. × 3 in. Imperfect; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand.

(c) FRAGMENT of a literary work, consisting of a small portion of the feet of two columns. 1st cent. (?). 3½ in. × 3 in., more than half being blank; in a neat uncial hand, somewhat resembling that of the large Hyperides MS. (Papp. CVIII. and CXV.).

(d) FRAGMENT of a contract relating to wheat. The name of Antoninus Cæsar is mentioned, so the document must belong to the reign of Antoninus Pius [A.D. 138–161] or Marcus Aurelius [A.D. 161–180]. 6 in. × 4¼ in. Imperfect; in a thin cursive hand.

Pap. CCIX. SALE by Pistoïs, president (προεστώς) of the monastery of Abba Cyrus, of one-third of a dwelling-house in Apollinopolis Magna, given to the monastery by Tachymia, daughter of Sansnotus; with autograph subscriptions of Pistoïs and witnesses. Dated in the reign of the emperors [Heraclius and] Heraclius Junior Constantinus (Ἡράκλειος νέος Κωνσταντῖνος), i.e. A.D. 613–641. 2 ft. 9¾ in. × 9 in., written in one column across the breadth of the papyrus. Imperfect, wanting the beginning of the document and the right-hand ends of the lines throughout. Written in a well-formed, upright, semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCX. SALE by John, son of Pistoïs, ἀναγνώστης of the church of Apollo [i.e. of Apollinopolis], and Martha his mother, to Aurelius Victor, son of Daniel, and his wife Heraëis, of the half belonging to them of a house in Apollinopolis Magna; with autograph subscriptions of the vendors and witnesses. Dated the 8th Tubi in the 6th indiction, in the reign of the emperors Flavius Heraclius and Flavius Heraclius Junior Constantinus; the 6th indiction-year = A.D. 618–9 or 633–4, and the mention of Nicetas [the cousin of Heraclius] in combination with the emperors and almost on equal terms with them shows that the former date is to be preferred, since Nicetas died before A.D. 630. The date is consequently the 3rd January, A.D. 619. 3 ft. 8 in. × 14½ in., written in one column across the breadth of the papyrus. Imperfect, wanting the beginning; in a good-sized, upright, semi-cursive hand.

[The greater part of this papyrus was presented by the Rev. A. C. Headlam in 1893, together with Papp. CCCCXLVIII., CCCCXLIX.; the rest had been acquired by the Museum previously by purchase.]

Pap. CCXI. FRAGMENT bearing date the 1st Thoth in the reign of the emperors Publius [Licinius] Valerianus and Publius Licinius Valerianus [Galli]enus, Germanici Maximi Pii Felices, and Publius Licinius Cornelius Nobilissimus Cæsar, Augusti [the title 'Germanici' shows that the date must be A.D. 257–259]. 3 in. × 3 in. Imperfect, and much defaced except in the subscription, which is in a small, rough, cursive hand. Presented by Col. John Evans.

Pap. CCXII. (a) SMALL FRAGMENT, faded and illegible on the recto, but having on the verso a portion of the Septuagint version of the Old Testament, Gen. xiv. 17 ἐξῆλθε—βασίλεως. Some other matter is scribbled at the foot of the column. 3rd cent. (?). 5 in. × 4 in. Imperfect; in a thick, regular hand.

(b) FRAGMENT of document, of which little is left except the date, which is in Paüni (the number of the year is lost) of the emperors

Gaius [Julius Ve]rus Maximinus Pius [Felix Augustus] Germanicus Maximus [Dacicus Maximus] Sarmaticus Maximus and [Gaius] Julius Verus Maximus [Germanicus] Maximus Dacicus Maximus [Sarmaticus] Maximus Sanctissimus [Cæsar Augustus] filius Augusti. As the title Dacicus was only assumed in A.D. 237, the date must be in June of that year. 9 in. × 2½ in. Much mutilated; in a small cursive hand.

On the verso are remains of a literary work, in a thick semi-cursive hand. 3rd cent.

Presented by Col. John Evans.

Pap. CCXIII. Fragment of an accompt, of uncertain character. 3rd cent. 5¼ in. × 4¼ in. Imperfect; in a well-marked professional hand.

On the verso is a portion of a private letter, dated the 7th Mecheir, but without the year. 3rd cent. (?). Imperfect, wanting the beginning; in a medium-sized semi-cursive hand.

Presented by Col. John Evans.

Pap. CCXIV. Report by Aurelius Aretion of Memphis, steward to A[urelius?] Anubas, to Aurelius Vesarion, strategus of the nome [of Memphis?], stating that a certain Patalas, a ship-builder, had broken into the olive-yard of the emperor Aurelianus Augustus, and had damaged some trees there. In the reign of Aurelianus [=A.D. 270–275]. 7 in. × 3½ in. Imperfect; in a neat cursive hand. Printed, with facsimile, in Palæographical Society, II. 164 (1892).

Presented by Col. John Evans.

Pap. CCXV. Fragment of papyrus, containing on the recto a small portion of an accompt or register, and on the verso numerical figures and fractions, apparently denoting arouras. Each figure is checked off by a stroke above it. 2nd or 3rd cent. (?). 4½ in. × 3 in. Imperfect; in a large hand. Presented by Col. John Evans.

Acquired in 1892.

Pap. CCXVI. Application made by Erieus, son of Erieus, of the village of Socnopæi Nesus in the division of Heracleides [in the nome of Arsinoë], a descendant of the Persian settlers in Egypt, to Stotoëtis, son of Apunchis, and Stotoëtis, son of Stotoëtis, for a lease of a store-house (θησαυρός) and its appurtenances. Dated the 6th Germaniceius in the 13th year of the emperor Domitianus Germanicus [=31 May (? cf. Pap. CLXXIX.), A.D. 94]. 9¾ in. × 5¼ in. Nearly perfect; in a very cursive hand. Printed, with facsimile, in Pal. Soc. II. 162 (1892).

Pap. CCXVII. CERTIFICATE given by Sarapammon and his colleagues, σιτολόγοι for the village of Heracleia, of wheat measured by them for the tenants (κληροῦχοι) of the said village. Dated the 9th Paüni in the 21st year of the emperor Marcus Aurelius Severus Antoninus Parthicus Maximus Britannicus Maximus Pius Augustus [=3 June, A.D. 213]. 7½ in. × 3¼ in. Perfect; in a rough cursive hand.

Pap. CCXVIII. BOND recording a loan of corn from Nechoutes, a Persian τῶν προσγρ(αφθέντων?), to Phatres, son of Chensthotes, a Persian τῆς ἐπιγόνης. Dated in Pathyris, the 5th Phaophi in the 7th year of an unnamed king. Apparently late 2nd cent. B.C. 8½ in. × 5¼ in., the lower half being blank. Nearly perfect; in a regular cursive hand.

Papp. CCXIX.–CCXXVIII. FRAGMENTS of wills, bonds, accompts, etc., taken from the cartonnage of a mummy-case by the Rev. Greville J. Chester. One will (Pap. CCXIX. b) is nearly complete, but everything else is very fragmentary. Written in various hands of the 2nd cent. B.C. One fragment (Pap. CCXXV.) is dated in Athur (=November) of the 53rd year. The king is not named, but the date can only apply to B.C. 271 or B.C. 118, of which the former is apparently too early for the handwriting. Another (Pap. CCXX.) is dated in the 38th year, which must be B.C. 286, 248, or 133, presumably the last. Other fragments have dates in the 4th, 16th, and 27th years, but there is nothing to show to what reign they belong.

ACQUIRED IN 1893.

Pap. CCXXIX. DEED OF SALE whereby C. Fabullius Macer, 'optio' on the trireme Tigris in the Misenatian fleet, purchases a boy named Abbas or Eutyches 'natione Transfluminianus,' aged seven years, from Q. Julius Priscus, a soldier on the same vessel, for 200 denarii. C. Julius Antiochus, 'manipularis' on the trireme Virtus, is named as 'fideiussor,' and there are three other witnesses. Dated at Seleucia Pieria, in the winter-quarters of the squadron, a. d. viiii. Kal. Jun. in the consulship of Q. Servilius Pudens and A. Fufidius Pollio [=24 May, A.D. 166]; with autograph signatures of the parties and witnesses, whose seals are ranged along the top of the document. Latin, with a mutilated Greek subscription. The formula of the deed resembles that of the sales recorded in the wax-tablets of the year A.D. 156, found at Verespatak (C. I. L. vol. iii.). 1 ft. 2½ in. × 10¾ in. Perfect; the body of the document in a large running hand, the signatures generally smaller. Printed, with facsimile, in Pal. Soc. II. (1893).

Pap. CCXXX. Psalter, imperfect, containing Psalms xii. (xi. in the Greek numbering) 7–xv. (xiv.) 4. Written stichometrically; and a second hand has marked off the syllables (except in Ps. xv.) by a dot over the end of each, perhaps for the purpose of singing or reading in school. Late 3rd or 4th cent. 10 in. × 9½ in. Imperfect and somewhat damaged; written in a well-formed uncial hand of good size.

On the verso are some remains, apparently of a literary work, consisting of a column and a half of writing, followed by a blank space. The syllables are separated by dots placed between them by the first hand, perhaps the same as that which has marked the syllables on the recto. 4th cent. Written in a rather rough uncial hand, of good size.

[Papp. CCXXXI.–CCXLVIII. and CCCCIII.–CCCCXVIII. all relate to the same person, Flavius Abinnæus or Abinneos or Aminneos (the name is variously spelled), who is described as ἔπαρχος εἴλης (=præfectus alæ) or πραιπόσιτος κάστροις (=præfectus castrorum) at Dionysias, in the nome of Arsinoë, about the years A.D. 343–350. The other 4th-century documents adjoining these numbers probably belong to the same collection of official papers.]

Pap. CCXXXI. Letter from Demetrius to Aminnæus [=Abinnæus], prefect (πραιπόσιτος), repeating an injunction already conveyed to him in another letter, to keep a watch for and impound all natron imported into the Arsinoïte nome "or elsewhere." Circ. A.D. 350. 11½ in. × 7½ in. Perfect; in a good-sized semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCXXXII. Letter from Clematius to Abinnæus, asking for favour to be shown to some friends of his. Circ. A.D. 350. 10¾ in. × 11¾ in. Perfect; in a large semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCXXXIII. Letter from Aurelius Eulogius, πρύτανις representing (προπολιτευόμενος) the city of Arsinoë, to Flavius Abennæus, one of the præfecti alæ (ἀπὸ ἐπάρχων εἴλης), giving instructions with reference to the transmission of a letter from the emperors. Dated the 7th Mecheir in the year following the consulship of Flavius Leontius and Julius Salustius [=1 Feb., A.D. 345. N.B. Evidently the names of the new consuls had not yet been heard in this part of Egypt]. 10½ in. × 7¼ in. Perfect; in a rather rough cursive hand.

Pap. CCXXXIV. Letter from Flavius Macarius, procurator of the imperial property (ἐπίτροπος δεσποτικῶν κτήσεων), to Flavius Aminneus [=Abinnæus], prefect of the camp of Dionysias, conveying to him an order from Flavius Felicissimus, 'comes et dux,' requiring him, on pain of being reported for disaffection to the imperial house, to furnish soldiers to assist in the collection of the imperial dues. Circ. A.D. 350 [Felicissimus was Dux Ægypti in A.D. 350, but not before A.D. 346, nor after A.D. 355]. 10¾ in. × 6¾ in. Perfect; in a large semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCXXXV. Letter from Eulogius χι(λίαρχος), i.e. tribunus militum, to his "master and patron," the prefect [i.e. Abinnæus], reporting the execution of an order received from the latter to send some soldiers to the camp, and measures taken by him with reference to certain supplies of barley. Circ. A.D. 350. 10½ in. × 4¼ in. Slightly defaced; in a rather rough cursive hand.

Pap. CCXXXVI. Letter from Aëtius [cf. Pap. ccccxiv.] to his "lord and brother" [? Abinnæus], reporting the despatch of certain supplies of corn, oil, hides, etc., and asking for orders with reference to some soldiers who had come to him. Circ. A.D. 350. 9¾ in. × 4 in. Perfect; in a medium-sized cursive hand.

Pap. CCXXXVII. Letter from Agathus, an actuary (ἀκτουάριος), to Abinneus, asking for protection against a certain Julianus, an ὀφφικιάλιος, who has been keeping him under restraint. Circ. A.D. 350. 10¾ in. × 3¾ in. Slightly defaced; in a medium-sized cursive hand.

Pap. CCXXXVIII. Petition, addressed to Flavius Aminæus [= Abinnæus], prefect of the camp (πραιπόσιτος κάστροις) of Dionysias, by Aurelius Aloteudius (?). The purport of the petition is lost through the defacement of the papyrus. Dated the 6th Mesoré in the consulship of Constantius (for the fourth time) and Constans (for the third time), Augusti [=30 July, A.D. 346]. 10¼ in. × 7¾ in. Much defaced; in a rough cursive hand of medium size.

Pap. CCXXXIX. Letter from Thareotes to his "master and patron," the prefect of the camp of Dionysias [i.e. Abinnæus], commending to him his nephew Surion, and reporting other matters of private interest. Circ. A.D. 350; reference is made incidentally to the emperor Constantius [A.D. 337–361]. 10 in. × 6¼ in. Nearly perfect; in a rather large cursive hand.

Pap. CCXL. Petition addressed to Flavius Abinneus, præfectus alæ (ἔπαρχος εἴλης στρατιωτῶν) in the camp of Dionysias, by Aurelia Ataris, daughter of a veteran soldier, holding land in the village of Hermopolis, asking for redress of injuries. Dated the 1st Thoth in the consulship of Constantius (for the fourth time) and Constans (for the third time), Augusti [=29 August, A.D. 346]. 10 in. × 5½ in. Perfect; in a fairly neat cursive hand.

Pap. CCXLI. Rough copy of the preceding petition [Pap. ccxl.], in a different hand, with some variations. The emperor's name is wrongly written as Constantinus. 10 in. × 5½ in. Perfect; in a large, rough, cursive hand.

Pap. CCXLII. Petition addressed to Flavius [Abinnæus], præfectus alæ (ἔπαρχος εἴλης) at the camp of Dionysias, in the nome of Arsinoë, by Aurelius . . . . . [name lost]. Dated the 5th Epeiph in the consulship of Constantius [written Constantinus] for the fourth time and Constans for the third time [= 29 June, A.D. 346]. 10 in. × 5¼ in. Mutilated; in a rough cursive hand, much resembling that of Pap. ccxli.

Pap. CCXLIII. Letter from Apamius to his "beloved brother" Aminneus [= Abinnæus], asking for the prompt return of some camels which he had sent to the latter with a load of wine. Circ. A.D. 350. 10½ in. × 4 in. Perfect; in a large, rough, semi-cursive hand, with uncial signature.

Pap. CCXLIV. Letter from Apollos to Abinneus on private matters, especially relating to the disposal of some grain (ὄλυρα) and wine. Circ. A.D. 350. 9½ in. × 5¼ in. Partly defaced; in a rather large semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCXLV. Petition addressed to Flavius Abinnæus, præfectus alæ (ἔπαρχος εἴλης στρατιωτῶν) in the camp of Dionysias, by Flavius Priscus, a veteran, and Alias (?), wife of Heron, recounting some injuries and asking that their petition may be laid before τοῦ κυρίου καὶ δουκός. Dated the 29th Paüni in the consulship of Flavius [known from other authorities as Marcus] Placidus and Flavius Romulus [= 23 June, A.D. 343]. 9 in. × 6 in. Mutilated; in a large, rough, cursive hand.

Pap. CCXLVI. Bond, addressed to Flavius Abinnæus, prefect (πραιπόσιτος) of the camp of Dionysias in the nome of Arsinoë, whereby Aurelius Julius (MS. Ιουλις) Dionysius makes himself surety for Ammonius (MS. Αμμωνις), son of Soöuk, of the village of Taurinum, and undertakes to produce him when required. Dated the 28th Mesoré in the consulship of Constantius (for the fourth time) and Constans (for the third time), Augusti [= 21 August, A.D. 346]. 10½ in. × 5¼ in. Perfect; in a rough, uneducated hand.

Pap. CCXLVII. Portion of an accompt, apparently a summary of a larger one. The name Abinnæus occurs in it. Circ. A.D. 350. 10¾ in. × 5½ in. Partly defaced; in a good-sized cursive hand.

Pap. CCXLVIII. Letter from Abinneos [= Abinnæus] to three persons whose names are illegible, the first being called his brother, asking them to settle an account for his brother and nephew, the particulars of which are given. The money amounts are stated in talents and denarii. Circ. A.D. 350. 10 in. × 7½ in. Partly defaced; in a large, rough hand.

Pap. CCXLIX. ACCOMPT, headed ἔκθεσις οἴνου, consisting of a list of names and the amounts (stated in σταθία and κεράμια) distributed to each. Some further details are added on the verso. Circ. A.D. 350. 10 in. × 8 in. Perfect; in a rather rough cursive hand.

Pap. CCL. LIST of names, headed βρεούιον [= βρέβιον, brevium, or breve] κτη—, each name being followed by the figure α [= 1]; perhaps a pay-sheet. 4th cent. 9¾ in. × 4 in. Perfect; in a fair-sized semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCLI. DEED OF SALE of some slaves from Aurelius Peter and Aurelius Zenon, sons of Peter, to Aurelia Nonna, also called Polyetion. Only the last words of the deed remain, with the autograph attestations of the parties and witnesses. 4th cent. (?). 13¼ in. × 10 in., written in one column across the width of the papyrus. Imperfect; in several different hands, including one in large, rough uncials.

Pap. CCLII. ACCOMPT of allowances of water, entitled βρεούιον [= βρέβιον, brevium, or breve] ὕδατος, consisting of a list of names followed by amounts stated in μετρηταί. 4th cent. (?). 10 in. × 3½ in. Nearly perfect; in a sloping cursive hand of medium size.

Pap. CCLIII. PORTION of an accompt, consisting of proper names followed by amounts expressed in artabas. 2nd or 3rd cent. 10¼ in. × 8 in. Imperfect, consisting of two columns, with vestiges of a third; in a small cursive hand.

On the verso are two small accompts, one headed λόγος κριθῆς. 2nd or 3rd cent.

Pap. CCLIV. ACCOMPT of daily expenditure of wheat from the 25th Athur to the 14th Mecheir in the 18th year of the emperor Hadrianus Cæsar [= 19 Nov.—8 Febr., A.D. 133–134]. 8½ in. × 1 ft. 10 in. Imperfect at the end, consisting of nine columns; in a small cursive hand.

On the verso is a portion of a money-accompt, headed μητροπόλεως φαωφὶ ιβ̄, and consisting of names of persons followed by sums of money in drachmas and obols. 2nd cent. Apparently complete; in a small cursive hand.

Pap. CCLV. CERTIFICATE given by Socmenis, son of Socmenis, and the rest of the elders of the village of Kar[anis] for the 20th year (of whom ten are mentioned by name), to Orion, son of Orion, one of their number, that they have appointed him their deputy to collect the beer-tax (ζυτήρα) and sheep-tax (φόρος προβάτων), and that he has collected them and paid them into the proper banks up to the month Phaophi, inclusive, in the 21st year of the emperor Hadrianus Cæsar [= A.D. 136–137]. $8\frac{3}{4}$ in. × 4 in. Perfect; in a medium-sized cursive hand.

Pap. CCLVI. Recto. COMMON-PLACE BOOK (?), containing the following miscellaneous documents: (1) receipt (?) given by a person described as pilot of a public vessel (κυβερνήτης σκάφης δημοσίας), to Acusilaüs, σιτολόγος δημόσιος, for some corn; dated [in the Arsinoïte nome] the 1st Athur in the 2nd year of the emperor Tiberius Cæsar Augustus [= 28 Oct., A.D. 15]; mutilated, in a thick, well-marked uncial hand, with few ligatures;—(2) an epigram of 14 lines in elegiac metre, in honour of Augustus (who is referred to as Ζεὺς Ἐλευθέριος, cf. C. I. G. 4715, Anth. Pal., suppl. Cougny, i. 159), and apparently with reference to a memorial of the battle of Actium; mutilated, in a neat, well-marked uncial hand of the first half of the 1st cent.;—(3) document, in faint ink and considerably defaced, dated in the 35th year of Cæsar [i.e. the emperor Augustus, = A.D. 5–6], written in a rough semi-cursive hand;—(4) order from Pnepheros, son of Themison, ἡγούμε[νος], Ptolemæus, τοπάρχης, Ar—, κωμογραμματεύς, andIsion, γρα[μματεὺς] γεωργῶν, to Acusilaüs, servant of Priscus Cæsar, σιτολόγος δημόσιος, to pay over certain amounts of seed-corn from the produce of the preceding year to a number of δημόσιοι γεωργοί, a schedule of whose names is appended; nearly perfect, in a neat cursive hand; the occurrence (twice) of the name Priscus Cæsar connects the document with the one which follows, and shows that it must be of about the same date;—(5) written in the reverse direction to all the preceding, an order from Faustus, son (?) of Priscus Cæsar, to Acusilaüs, σιτολόγος, to deliver to the δημόσιοι γεωργοί of the royal, sacred, and other land seed-corn from the produce of the preceding year, subject to the regulations of the strategus and βασιλικὸς γραμματεύς [and other officials?], dated the 23rd Athur in the 41st year of Cæsar [= 19 Nov., A.D. 11]; mutilated, in a rather large, well-marked semi-uncial hand. The whole roll measures 11 inches in height and 4 ft. 2 in. in length, with detached fragments representing about another foot, mostly blank; it has been somewhat mutilated by worms and rubbing. One σέλις of the papyrus, in the middle of the roll, has been arranged in the reverse way to the rest, so that its verso side lies with the recto of the rest of the roll; the writing is continuous across the junctures of this σέλις on both sides.

Verso. The whole of the verso is occupied by the remains of orations, hitherto unknown, the author of which has not as yet been identified. The MS. is incomplete both at the beginning and at the end, but the remains, which occupy eight broad columns of small writing, with 38 to 45 lines to the column, include portions of at least three orations. The subject of the first is doubtful, the remains being small and much mutilated; the second is a speech for the prosecution in an action for theft (κλοπῆς δική); the third is apparently a speech for the defence in an action for wrongful assumption of citizenship (ξενίας δική). The complete absence of names (so far as appears) suggests that the speeches are oratorical exercises rather than orations actually delivered. The MS. is much damaged throughout by scaling of the surface, as well as by worms, and continuous decipherment is impossible. Written in a small semi-cursive hand, with a few abbreviations; probably late 1st cent.

Pap. CCLVII. Census-roll, containing list of names, with the father and mother of each individual, his age, and sometimes his occupation. The names are arranged by households, only males being included in the list, and the ages range between 14 and 60. Both beginning and end of the roll are lost, and with them the statement of the place and date; but from Pap. CCLIX. it appears that it belongs to the 14th year of Domitian [= A.D. 94–95], and is a revision of the census for the year, based on the last fourteen-yearly census, supplemented by subsequent returns of births and deaths. Parts of nine columns are preserved, the number of names in each (where ascertainable) varying between 38 and 24. 13½ in. × 5 ft. 8½ in. Written on good papyrus in a small, neat, slightly cursive uncial, with some abbreviations.

There is a little demotic writing on the verso, apparently an accompt.

Pap. CCLVIII. Census-roll, of the same nature and in the same hand as the preceding, and consequently presumably of the same date (A.D. 94). The ages vary between 14 and 59. Both beginning and end of the roll are lost, but ten columns are preserved, all more or less damaged by rubbing and mutilation. 13½ in. × 6 ft. ¾ in.

A small part of the verso is occupied by demotic writing, apparently an accompt.

Pap. CCLIX. Census-roll, of the same nature and in the same hand as the two preceding documents. A mention of the 14th year of the emperor Domitian shows that it is a revision of the census for that year. In one part of the document references are made to the returns of the two preceding regular censuses, in the 8th year of Vespasian [= A.D. 75–76] and the 9th of Domitian [= A.D. 89–90]. The roll is imperfect at both beginning and end; the first part of it concludes the general census return for the district (which is in the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë), and the rest contains the names of persons coming under various extraordinary categories. Six columns are preserved, two being considerably mutilated. 13½ in. × 3 ft. 7½ in.

The verso is occupied by demotic writing, apparently an accompt.

Pap. CCLX. Returns relative to the census (similar in general character to those contained in Papp. CCLVII.–CCLIX.), prepared by Heracleides, ἀμφοδάρχης, in the 5th year of the emperor Vespasian [= A.D. 72–73]; not an actual census-roll, since the census did not take place till A.D. 75–76. The first portion of the roll (originally consisting of 12 columns, of which only 4 remain) contained a list of adults, 173 in number, of ages varying between 14 and 80, with their names and parentage, and with references apparently to former lists in which they appeared. The second portion contains the names of children under age, with the years in which their birth was registered. References are made throughout to the last regular census (κατ' οἰκίαν ἀπογραφή), in the 8th year of Nero [= A.D. 61–62], and to the supplementary returns made since that date. Twelve columns remain, in fair condition, and written in a neat semi-cursive hand of medium size, with wide spacing. 11 in. × 9 ft. 2 in.

The verso is occupied by demotic writing in very good condition, and there is also some similar writing on the recto, in a few places written above the Greek.

Pap. CCLXI. Census-returns, of the same nature as those contained in Pap. CCLX., by the same scribe, Heracleides, and of the same date. The greater part of the document relates to children under age (ἀπολογισμὸς ἀφηλίκων). Portions of 17 columns are preserved, but much mutilated. 11 in. × 10 ft. 10 in.

The verso is occupied by demotic writing, and there is also a little demotic on the recto.

Pap. CCLXII. Certificate of sale of a house with a room adjoining the temple (προνήιον) in the village of Socnopæi Nesus, in the division of Heracleides [in the nome of Arsinoë], by Chæremon, son of Herodes, prophet of the god Suchus [cf. Pap CCXCIX. and Berlin Pap. 149], and his wife Themsais, to Satabous, son of . . . psemis. Dated the 24th Athur in the 41st year of Cæsar [i.e. the emperor Augustus], = 20 Nov., A.D. 11. Greek and Demotic. The upper half of the papyrus is occupied by demotic writing, apparently a counterpart of the deed; then comes the date and an abstract of the document in Greek; then the text in Greek, and finally a line of demotic. The Greek is written in lines which run the entire length of the papyrus, except for a narrow margin at the beginning and a wide margin at the end. 11¼ in. × 2 ft. 8 in. Somewhat rubbed and damaged by worms, otherwise complete; written in an irregular semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCLXIII. Accounts of expenditure of money during part of the month Phaophi in the 4th year of the emperor Tiberius Cæsar Augustus [= October, A.D. 17]. The beginning and end of the roll are lost, and both top and bottom have suffered by rubbing. There are remains of 50 columns, the last six being much defaced and partly covered by demotic writing. 6½ in. × 21 ft. 4 in. Written in a small, thin, straggling, cursive hand.

The verso is occupied by demotic writing, apparently accompts.

Pap. CCLXIV. List of names, for what purpose is uncertain. Written in 14 narrow columns, in a very cursive and ill-formed hand of fair size. 1st cent. (?). 9 in. × 3 ft. 2¼ in. The writing is on the verso of the papyrus.

The recto is occupied by demotic writing, but there are traces of an underlying Greek writing, which has apparently been washed out.

Pap. CCLXV. Arithmetical calculations, arranged in short problems with separate headings. Portions of seven columns are preserved, but some of them are considerably damaged and the papyrus is in bad condition. At the beginning is a column of demotic writing. 1st cent. 9¾ in. × 4 ft. Written in a good-sized semi-cursive uncial hand.

On the verso is a roughly written census list, considerably defaced. Infants under 14 years are included as well as adults. Portions of nine columns are preserved. 1st or 2nd cent. Written in a rough semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCLXVI. Accompts, written on both sides of the papyrus. They are arranged in sections, each apparently relating to one day of the month; and in each section are several subdivisions (about 20 to 25), headed by names of persons (which recur with little change in each section), and consisting apparently of items of expenditure. At the end of each section the amounts (which are calculated in talents and drachmas) are summarised. On the recto 26 columns are preserved, besides 4 which have been washed out to receive some demotic writing; and the sections (or days) are numbered from 6 to 11, with parts of 5 and 12. Apparently about 10 columns have been lost from the beginning. On the verso the writing runs in the opposite direction to that on the recto; 31 columns are preserved, but 6 are so defaced as to be illegible. The sections are numbered from 7 to 12, with parts of 6 and 13. Apparently about 12 columns have been lost from the beginning of the verso (corresponding to the end of the recto). 1st or 2nd cent., written in a small, neat cursive hand, and generally in good condition. $9\frac{3}{4}$ in. × 6 ft. 2 in.

Pap. CCLXVII. Register of land, containing statements of extents of land (calculated in arouras) assigned for sowing, land free from taxes, etc. Both beginning and end are lost, but 21 columns are preserved in whole or in part, though somewhat damaged by worms. Late 1st or 2nd cent.; the 4th and 5th years are referred to, but the emperor is not named. $10\frac{3}{4}$ in. × 8 ft. 7 in. Written in a thin, straggling, ill-formed cursive hand.

The verso is entirely occupied by demotic writing, having the appearance of accompts.

Pap. CCLXVIII. Tax-register or accompt, consisting of names of individuals followed by sums of money. Imperfect at beginning and end, but portions of 12 unusually tall columns remain, most of them nearly complete, though somewhat damaged by worms. 1st or early 2nd cent. $15\frac{1}{2}$ in. × 3 ft. $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written in a very cursive hand of fair size, with abbreviations.

On the verso is a little demotic writing.

Pap. CCLXIX. Accompts, imperfect and much mutilated, written in a thin, straggling cursive hand. 1st cent. 11 in. × 3 ft. 1 in.

The verso is occupied by demotic writing in fair condition, and there is a little similar writing on the recto.

Pap. CCLXX. Fragment of an accompt relating to corn, much mutilated, written in a small cursive hand. 1st or 2nd cent. 11 in. × 2 ft. 7 in.

The verso is occupied by demotic writing.

Pap. CCLXXI. Homer, Odyssey, book iii.; fragments, with scholia. The fragments include portions of the following lines:—iii. 283–293, 319–327, 387–404, 422–497, the last 40 lines being nearly complete. The title of the book is added at the end. The MS., when complete, must have formed a very handsome roll, carefully written and with wide margins. Each column contained 35 or 36 lines, with margins of from $2\frac{1}{4}$ to $2\frac{3}{4}$ inches at the top and bottom, and about $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches between the columns. Scholia, not very numerous but hitherto unknown, are written in the margins; among the authors quoted in them are Ammonius, Apion, and Herodorus. The text is written in a graceful and fairly large uncial hand, with a few accents and breathings, apparently by the first hand; critical marks are also placed against certain lines. The date is probably about the beginning of the Christian era. The scholia are in a small cursive hand of the last half of the 1st century, or first half of the 2nd. The papyrus is of good quality, about 13 inches in height, and each column occupied about $6\frac{1}{2}$ inches in width, including margin. Printed in Journal of Philology, vol. xxii. (1893).

Pap. CCLXXII. Homer, Iliad, fragment of book i., containing portions of lines 129–150. 2nd or 3rd cent. 4 in. × $1\frac{1}{2}$ in., from the top of a column. Written in a small, square uncial hand, without accents or breathings.

Pap. CCLXXIII. Fragments of an unknown Epic. Forty-eight lines, forming the greater part of a column, are preserved in a state approaching completion, though only one line is actually perfect. There is also a considerable number of small fragments. The proper name occurring most often is Deriades (in spite of which the fragments do not belong to the Dionysiaca); other names mentioned are Prothoüs, Pylaon, Bombus, Peisinoüs, Damas. 2nd or 3rd cent. (?). Written in a very small, slightly cursive, uncial hand, on both sides of the papyrus, whether in roll or book form cannot be certainly determined. The writing is damaged in several places.

Pap. CCLXXIV. Fragments of a literary work, unidentified, apparently a romance. The following sentence is a sample: κοιμηθ[εί]σης δὲ τῆς θεοῦ ἀπεναντί[ον] Διοσπόλεως, ἀσεβῶν . . θος ἄφνω ἐπέστη, καὶ ὡ[ς] δορκάδα κυνηγεῖν ἤμελλεν (MS. -ον)· τὴν δὲ ὁ λὺγξ ἐγείρας ἐναλλόμενος τὸ πορθμεῖον (MS. προθ-) παρώρμισεν. τῆς δὲ ἐναλλομένης ἐφώρμισεν καὶ διέσωσεν. There are considerable remains of at least 8 columns, each about $2\frac{3}{4}$ inches in breadth, and containing about 50 lines. 2nd cent. (?). Written in a small, regular, uncial hand, fairly neat, but not ornamental.

Pap. CCLXXV. Fragments of a literary work, unidentified; apparently a treatise on ethics, the subject of these fragments being ἐγκράτεια and ἀκρασία. Portions of at least 6 columns remain, written on both sides of papyrus of good quality and with wide margins; possibly in book form. 3rd cent. (?). Written in rather cursive uncials of moderate size and fairly ornamental.

Pap. CCLXXVI. (a) Copy of a letter from Septeius (?) Rufus to Locretius, ἑκατοντάρχης, forwarding to him the judgment delivered by him in the case of Satabous, son of Erieus, who was accused of having appropriated certain unoccupied lands. Dated the 6th Epeiph in the 1st year of the emperor Tiberius Cæsar Augustus [= 30 June, A.D. 15]. 11 in. × 6 in. Imperfect; in a semi-cursive hand.

(b) Copy of the same letter as the preceding, but without the name of the writer. 8 in. × 7 in. Imperfect; in a large semi-cursive hand. Printed, with facsimile, in Pal. Soc. II. (1893).

Pap. CCLXXVII. Acknowledgment by Panephrummis Erieus [probably should be "son of Erieus"], a descendant of the Persian settlers in Egypt, with the approval of Thases, daughter of Nesthnephis, his wife, of a loan of 60 drachmas of silver, bearing interest at the rate of 1 per cent. per month, from Stotoëtis, son of Tesenuphis, to be repaid in twelve months. Dated at Socnopæi Nesus, in the division of Heracleides [in the nome of Arsinoë], on the 9th Mecheir of the 9th year of the emperor Tiberius Cæsar Augustus [= 3 Feb., A.D. 23]. The document is written by Panephrummis, son of Papais, neither the borrower nor his wife being able to write. 10 in. × 4½ in. Nearly perfect; in a semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCLXXVIII. Portion of a document, dated in the 4th year of the emperor Gaius Cæsar Augustus Germanicus [= A.D. 39–40]. 8¼ in. × 4½ in. Imperfect and much defaced; in a small cursive hand.

Pap. CCLXXIX. Fragment of an agreement, one of the parties to which is described as of the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë. Dated in the 12th year of the emperor Tiberius [Claudius] Cæsar Augustus [Germanicus], = A.D. 51–52. 5½ in. × 2 in. Imperfect and defaced; in a small cursive hand.

Pap. CCLXXX. Copy of a petition (?) addressed by E[rieus?], son of Satabous, of Socnopæi Nesus, a vinedresser, to Epaphroditus, son of Tiberius Claudius Felix. Dated in the month of Epeiph in the 1st year of the emperor Nero Claudius Cæsar Augustus [=July, A.D. 55]. 7¼ in. × 5½ in. Much mutilated; in a well-formed semi-cursive hand, with cursive subscription.

Pap. CCLXXXI. CERTIFICATE addressed to Apunchis, son of Apunchis, and Stotoëtis, son of Apunchis, ἡγούμενοι of the priests of Socnopæi Nesus, by Panephremmæus (?), son of Horus, a priest, reporting the death of his brother Harpagathes in the month Cæsareius [=Mesoré] of the past year, the 12th of the emperor Nero Claudius Cæsar Augustus Germanicus [=August, A.D. 66]. The certificate was probably sent in during the following month, Thoth, in the 13th year of Nero [=September, A.D. 66]. 8 in. × 3½ in. Mutilated; in a delicate semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCLXXXII. CERTIFICATE by Dionysius, son of Eudæmon, of the sale of a she-ass to Satabous, son of Stotoëtis. Dated in the nome of Arsinoë, the 23rd Sebastus in the 2nd year of the emperor Vespasianus [=20 Sept., A.D. 69]. 8¼ in. × 3½ in. Mutilated at the end; in a cursive hand.

Pap. CCLXXXIII. RECEIPT (?) given by Stotoëtis, son of Pasys, a descendant of the Persian settlers in Egypt, to a person whose name is lost. Dated at Socnopæi Nesus, on the 10th Choiach in the 1st year of the emperor Domitianus [=6 Dec., A.D. 81]. 7 in. × 5½ in. Much mutilated; in a small cursive hand.

Pap. CCLXXXIV. FRAGMENT, apparently of a receipt or certificate in connection with a sale of wheat. Dated in the reign of the emperor Domitianus [Augustus] Germanicus [A.D. 81–96], but the exact year is lost. 7 in. × 1¾ in. Imperfect; in a small cursive hand.

Pap. CCLXXXV. PORTION of a receipt for purchase-money of land. The names of the parties are lost. Dated in the reign of the emperor Domitianus Augustus Germanicus [A.D. 81–96], but the exact year is lost. 7½ in. × 2 in. Imperfect; in a cursive hand.

Pap. CCLXXXVI. ACKNOWLEDGMENT by Acusilaüs, son of Maron, and three other persons, of their acceptance of a lease (?) of a fuller's shop (?) in the village of Socnopæi Nesus, from Satabous, son of Stotoëtis, and another Satabous, at a rent of 240 drachmas, for the current year, viz. the 8th year of the emperor Domitianus Augustus Germanicus [=A.D. 88–89]. 7 in. × 4 in. Mutilated; in a cursive hand.

Pap. CCLXXXVII. Receipt for the price paid for some hay; the names of the parties are much mutilated. Dated at Neilopolis, in the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë, on the 26th Artemisius (=26th Phamenoth) of the ninth year of the emperor Domitianus Augustus Germanicus [=22 March, A.D. 90]. 10 in. × 4½ in. Mutilated; in a cursive hand.

Pap. CCLXXXVIII. Affidavit by Stotoëtis junior, son of Panephremmis, of a division of property among his sons. Dated at [Socnopæi] Nesus in the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë, on the 1st Daisius (=1st Pharmouthi) in the 9th year of the emperor Domitianus Augustus Germanicus [27 March, A.D. 90]. 4½ in. × 10½ in. Much mutilated; in a small cursive hand.

Pap. CCLXXXIX. Certificate given by Chares, daughter of Situs, of the sale to Tamystha of a portion of the property inherited by herself and her sisters from their mother. Dated at Euhemeris in the division of Themistus in the nome of Arsinoë, on the 22nd Xandicus (=22nd Mecheir) in the 10th year of the emperor Do[mitianus] Augustus Germanicus [=16 Febr., A.D. 91]. 11½ in. × 5¼ in. Mutilated; in a very cursive hand, with autograph subscriptions of Chares and of Soterchus on behalf of Tamystha in rough cursive hands.

Pap. CCXC. Portion of a register of taxation or payments, dated the 26th Epeiph in the 4th year of the emperor [Tra]ianus Augustus Germanicus [=20 July, A.D. 101; possibly of Domitian, =A.D. 85]. 8½ in. × 4 in. Much mutilated; in a small cursive hand.

Pap. CCXCI. Fragment of document containing the name of Harpagathes and several figures, dated in the 6th year of the emperor Nerva [Traianus] Augustus Germanicus Dacicus [=A.D. 102–3]. 9 in. × 6¼ in. Much mutilated; in a very cursive hand.

Pap. CCXCII. Certificate of sale of a house, with receipt for the purchase money, given by Taarpagathes, daughter of Petenuphis, to Stotoëtis τρίτος, son of Stotoëtis, with subscription in a different hand on behalf of the vendor. Dated in the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë, on the 10th Gorpiæus [=Epeiph] in the reign of the emperor Nerva Traianus Augustus Germanicus Dacicus. The exact place and year are lost, but the title "Dacicus" shows that it must belong to the years 103–117. 9 in. × 9¾ in. Imperfect; in a small thick cursive hand. At the foot is a line in demotic.

Pap. CCXCIII. Sale of property in the division of Themistus in the nome of Arsinoë; two of the parties are women, named Thermion and Thaisa. Dated in the month Cæsareius [=Mesoré] of the 17th year of the emperor [Nerva Traianus Augustus] Germanicus Dacicus [=August, A.D. 114]. 9 in. × 4 in. Imperfect, the entire right-hand portion being lost; in a rather indistinctly-formed semi-cursive hand of moderate size.

Pap. CCXCIV. Portion of a record of legal proceedings, dated in the second year of the emperor Hadrianus Cæsar [=A.D. 117–118]. 8 in. × 13 in. Imperfect, and much faded; in a cursive hand.

On the verso some sort of register, in much-faded ink.

Pap. CCXCV. Receipt from Papeëis, καμηλοτρόφος, of Dionysias, to Ptollis and his colleagues, σιτολόγοι of the τοπαρχία of Dionysias, for barley from the storehouses of the division for some camels. Dated in the 2nd year of the emperor Hadrianus Cæsar [apparently, but the name is abbreviated and mutilated; = A.D. 117–118; possibly of Antoninus, =A.D. 138–139]. 4 in. × 3½ in. Mutilated; in a thin cursive hand.

Pap. CCXCVI. Receipt given by Satabous and his colleagues, tax-collectors (πράκτορες), to Stotoëtis, son of Satabous, for the sum of 6 drachmas 4 obols for the maintenance of the embankments. Dated the 9th Hadrianus [=Choiach] in the 4th year of the emperor Titus Ælius Hadrianus Antoninus [=30 Nov., A.D. 140]. 6 in. × 4¾ in. Nearly perfect; in a rough cursive hand.

Pap. CCXCVII. Fragment of register of legal agreements, one of which bears date of the 25th Choiach in the 4th year of the emperor Traianus Hadrianus Augustus [=21 Dec., A.D. 119]. 3¾ in. × 9 in. Portions of two columns; in a small cursive hand.

Pap. CCXCVIII. Acknowledgment by Primus, son of Sambas, of the receipt from Heracleides, son of Triadelphus, through the bank of Dionysius, of a deposit (παραθήκη) of two thousand drachmas. Dated the 5th Gorpiæus [= Epeiph] in the 8th year of the emperor Traianus Hadrianus Augustus [= 29 June, A.D. 124]. 8 in. × 5 in. Partly mutilated and obliterated; in a semi-cursive hand. On the back a red official stamp.

Pap. CCXCIX. Notice addressed to Dionysius and Theon, βιβλιοφύλακες of the town (?) of Arsinoë [cf. next papyrus] by Herodes, also named Petenephres, son of Petenephres, living in the street Βουτάφιον, a priest of the god Suchus and the gods that share his temple, on behalf of his sister and wife, a priestess of the same deities, with reference to the registration of certain property, the description of which is mutilated. Dated the 29th Phaophi in the 13th year of the emperor Hadrianus [26 Oct., A.D. 128]. 6 in. × 2½ in. Mutilated; in a very cursive hand.

Pap. CCC. NOTICE, addressed to Dionysius and Theon, βιβλιο-(φύλακες) of the town (?) of Arsinoë, by Gaius Valerius Major, of the transfer of some land to Heracleides, son of Dionysius (?). Dated the 7th Mecheir in the 13th year of the emperor Hadrianus Cæsar [= 1 Feb., A.D. 129]. 7¾ in. × 3½ in. Perfect; in a small and very cursive hand.

Pap. CCCI. PORTION of agreement, apparently relating to a freight of merchandise, which the contracting party undertakes to deliver safely. As he makes oath by the fortune (τύχη) of the emperor Titus Ælius Hadrianus Antoninus Augustus Pius, the date must fall in the years A.D. 138–161. 4¾ in. × 4 in. Imperfect; in a clear semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCCII. (a) RECEIPT (?) relating to wine, dated in the 5th year of the emperor Antoninus Cæsar [= A.D. 141–142]. 2¾ in. × 2¾ in. Much defaced; in a small cursive hand.

CERTIFICATE given by Aurelius Harpalus and his colleagues, the σιτολόγοι of the village of Neilopolis [near Socnopæi Nesus, in the nome of Arsinoë], of two amounts of wheat measured by them in the treasury (θησαυρός) of the village on the 10th Paüni and the 9th Epeiph of the 2nd year of the emperors Marcus Opilius (MS. Opellius) Severus Macrinus and Marcus Opilius Antoninus Diadumenianus (MS. Diadomenianus) Felices Augusti [= 4 June and 3 July, A.D. 218]. The document is written by Aurelius Neilammon, clerk to the σιτολόγοι. N.B. At the later date mentioned in this document Macrinus had been already defeated and killed; but the fact was probably not yet known in Egypt. 4½ in. × 4½ in. Perfect; in a rough cursive hand. The writing is on the prepared side of the papyrus, but at right angles to the fibres.

Pap. CCCLII. RECORD of payment of various sums of money in Socnopæi Nesus on the 6th, 9th, and 10th Athur in the 4th year of the emperor Marcus Aurelius Antoninus Pius Felix Augustus [= 2, 5, and 6 Nov., A.D. 220]. The name of the person is illegible. 8½ in. × 5 in., mostly blank. Perfect; in an extremely cursive hand.

Pap. CCCLIII. PORTION of a document containing several names of persons living in Socnopæi Nesus, some or all of them being priests, and dated the 30th Mesoré in [the 4th year of the emperor Ma]rcus Aurelius Antoninus Pius Felix and [Marcus Aurelius Severus Alexa]nder Cæsar, Augusti [= 23 August, A.D. 221]. The former is the official name of the emperor Elagabalus, the latter of his successor Severus Alexander, who was adopted and styled Cæsar by Elagabalus in A.D. 221; but the two names do not appear to be elsewhere found coupled together in statements of dates. 7½ in. × 5¼ in. Imperfect; in a large and clearly-defined semi-cursive hand. Printed, with facsimile, in Pal. Soc. II. (1893).

Pap. CCCLIV. PETITION addressed to Gaius Tyrrhanius [prefect of Egypt, B.C. 15, 10, or 7, cf. C. I. G. 4923] by Satabous, son of Pisoïs, and Pisoïs his son, agriculturists and tenants of public land, for redress of injuries done to them by two sons of Petosiris, both named Opis. End of 1st cent. B.C. 13 in. × 8½ in. Written very carefully, in a small, well-formed uncial hand, partly defaced by rubbing.

Pap. CCCLV. PORTION of a document relating to the purchase of certain arable land (ψιλοὶ τόποι). Early 1st cent. 11 in. × 7 in. Imperfect; in a large semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCCLVI. LETTER from Procleius to Pecusis, asking him to send some drugs to him in Alexandria by the hand of his friend Sotas. Endorsed Πεκυσει. 1st cent. 7½ in. × 4 in. Perfect; in a large semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCCLVII. PETITION addressed by Satabous, son of Erieus, of Socnopæi Nesus in the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë, to Dionysodorus, strategus [of the division; cf. Pap. CCCCXLV.]. 2nd cent. (?). 5 in. × 7½ in. Much mutilated; in a neat semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCCLVIII. PETITION for redress of injuries, addressed by Stotoëtis, son of Stotoëtis, of the village of Socnopæi [written Egnopæi] Nesus, in the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë, to Demetrius, also named Harpocration, strategus of the divisions of Themistus and Polemon, in the same nome. A reference to the prefect Munatius Felix shows the date to be circ. A.D. 150. 5¾ in. × 9¾ in. Nearly perfect; in a good-sized semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCCLIX. OFFICIAL REGULATIONS relating to πρόσοδοι and συντάξεις, one of them bearing the signature of Justus. Late 1st or 2nd cent. 5½ in. × 8 in. Imperfect; in a well-formed semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCCLX. PORTION of a legal agreement, subscribed by Stotoëtis, son of Stotoëtis. Late 1st or 2nd cent.; in the course of the document is a reference to the current month of Sebastus [=Thoth]. 7¼ in. × 11¼ in. Imperfect, only the end being preserved; written in a good-sized cursive hand on a large sheet of papyrus.

Pap. CCCLXI. Fragment of a petition, relating to the lease of a house or land. The petitioner apparently belonged to the division of Polemon in the nome of Arsinoë. Late 1st cent. $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. × $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. Imperfect; in a small cursive hand.

On the verso is part of a record of a business transaction, dated in the 18th year of the emperor Traianus Cæsar [= A.D. 114–5]. Imperfect; in a small cursive hand.

Pap. CCCLXII. Fragment of acknowledgment of the purchase or lease of land, apparently in the division of Themistus in the nome of Arsinoë. The names of the parties are lost. 1st or 2nd cent. 6 in. × 3 in. Imperfect; in a large semi-cursive hand, with small cursive subscription.

Pap. CCCLXIII. Fragment of a petition, presumably to the strategus of the nome, from two or more persons, one being Harpagathes, son of Satabous, apparently of the village of Pelusium, for redress of injuries relating to some live-stock. Late 1st or 2nd cent. $5\frac{1}{4}$ in. × 4 in. Imperfect; in a clear semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCCLXIV. Fragments of a census roll, containing the names and ages of a considerable number of persons, most of whom bear the name of Stotoëtis. From the mention of the 3rd, 4th, and 5th φυλαί, as well as from the recurrence of the name Stotoëtis, it appears that the list is of the priests of the πενταφυλία of the god Socnopæus. Late 1st or 2nd cent. Imperfect; in a large semi-cursive hand on very white papyrus.

Pap. CCCLXV. Portion of lease of land, apparently in Heracleia. Late 1st or 2nd cent. $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. × 3 in. Imperfect; in a small cursive hand.

Pap. CCCLXVI. Portion of agreement for the hire of a bull and a heifer. The parties' names are mutilated, but the lessors are described as descendants of the Persian settlers in Egypt. Late 1st or 2nd cent. $6\frac{1}{4}$ in. × $3\frac{1}{4}$ in. Mutilated; in a small, very cursive hand.

Pap. CCCLXVII. (a) Receipt, given by Agathus, a public scribe, to —— (name mutilated), for $1\frac{1}{5}$ artabas of wheat, as tax for the 1st year. 2nd cent. $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. × $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. Nearly perfect; in a small cursive hand.

(b) FRAGMENT of a letter. 2nd cent. 5 in. × 1½ in. Imperfect; in a small cursive hand.

Pap. CCCLXVIII. CERTIFICATE delivered by Stotoëtis, son of Stotoëtis, of the village of Socnopæi Nesus, to Flavius Apollonius, strategus, and Apollonius, βασιλικὸς γραμματεύς, of the division of Heracleides in the nome of Arsinoë, that he still has the camels which he returned as being in his possession for the previous year. Dated in the 19th year, but the emperor's name is not given. 2nd cent. 8½ in. × 2½ in. Mutilated; in a cursive hand.

Pap. CCCLXIX. LIST of names, numbered in pairs. Late 2nd cent. 13¼ in. × 5 in. Perfect; in a thin cursive hand.

Pap. CCCLXX. ACCOMPT of money (λόγος κληρώων) expended on food and other current expenses by Posis, in places named Tonalmeis (?) and Chesanomon. 2nd cent. (?). 9 in. × 5½ in., much being left blank. Nearly perfect; in a rough cursive hand.

Pap. CCCLXXI. MEMORANDUM of arrears due on a building (πύργος) containing a dye-house (βαφεῖον) and other apparatus (χρηστήρια), situated in the street of the Bithynians [? in Heracleia, cf. Pap. CCCVIII.]. Headed προθεσ(μία) Καισαρείῳ [=Mesoré], and containing a mention of the 14th year. Probably late 1st or early 2nd cent. 6 in. × 6¾ in. Imperfect; in a large fine semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCCLXXII. FRAGMENTS of an accompt relating to land and money, of uncertain nature. It is divided into sections, each being headed by a name and the formula ὡς δεῖ ποιῆσαι, ποίει ἕκαστ[α], cf. Pap. CCLXV. Fragments of about seven columns are preserved, written in a rather large, well-formed, uncial hand. 2nd or 3rd cent. (?).

Pap. CCCLXXIII. (a) FRAGMENT of legal document, probably of late 1st or 2nd cent. 9 in. × 4 in. Very imperfect; in a small, regular, cursive hand. On the verso is part of a red official stamp.
(b) FRAGMENT of legal document, in a hand very similar to that just described, and of the same period. 7¾ in. × 1¾ in. On the verso is some much defaced writing.

Pap. CCCLXXIV. FRAGMENT of tax-register, containing statements of land in arouras and of money in drachmas, obols, and chalchi. 2nd cent. 5 in. × 2½ in. Imperfect; in a small cursive hand.

On the verso is a much defaced list of names.

Dated in a year (apparently the 20th or later) of one of the Antonines, i.e. in the latter half of the 2nd cent. $5\frac{3}{4}$ in. × $4\frac{3}{4}$ in. Much damaged; in a medium-sized cursive hand. The writing is at right angles to the fibres of the papyrus.

Pap. CCCCXL. MONEY-ACCOMPT, in drachmas and obols. 2nd cent. $8\frac{1}{4}$ in. × $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. Written on the verso of a document of which only slight remains are preserved; much faded and rather mutilated; in a small cursive hand with many contractions.

Pap. CCCCXLI. FRAGMENTS of a deed, or register of deeds. 1st or 2nd cent. 5 in. × $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. and $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. × $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. Imperfect; in a very small cursive hand, with abbreviations and symbols.

Pap. CCCCXLII. FRAGMENT of a legal document, too imperfect for its exact nature to be ascertained. 2nd cent. $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. × $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. Imperfect and much damaged; in a neat semi-cursive hand.

Pap. CCCCXLIII. LIST of names, with the number of camels (or asses) and foals in the possession of each. 2nd cent. $3\frac{3}{4}$ in. × $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. Nearly perfect; in a small cursive hand.

Pap. CCCCXLIV. Large fragment, much mutilated and defaced, of uncertain character. Remains of five columns are visible. 2nd or 3rd cent. In very bad condition; written in a cursive hand of medium size.

Pap. CCCCXLV. Petition, addressed to Dionysodorus, strategus of the Arsinoïte nome [cf. Pap. cccLvii.], from Psenatumis, son of Petesuches, of the village of Bacchias, cultivator of lands belonging to Julia Augusta [probably the wife of the emperor Severus], for redress of injuries. Late 2nd or 3rd cent. 7½ in. × 3½ in. Mutilated; in a rather small cursive hand.

Pap. CCCCXLVI. List of names, without a heading to describe its object. 4th cent. (?). 10 in. × 4 in., most being blank. Perfect; in a medium-sized cursive hand.

Pap. CCCCXLVII. Document of doubtful nature, owing to the extent of its mutilations. The name of Constantinople is mentioned, and the titles 'comes limitis' and 'præfectus alæ Dionusad[is].' Probably belongs to the correspondence of Abinnæus (cf. Papp. ccxxxi.–ccxLviii., ccccIII.–ccccxviii.). Latin. 4th cent. 11½ in. × 1 ft. 8½ in. Much mutilated; in a large cursive hand.

On the verso is a short account of expenditure of corn. 4th cent.

Pap. CCCCXLVIII. Portion of a deed of sale of a house or land in Apollinopolis Magna [cf. Papp. ccix., ccx.]. Both beginning and end are lost, including the names of the parties. Early 7th cent. 1 ft. 5 in. × 13 in. Imperfect; in a good-sized cursive hand.

On the verso is a deed in Coptic, mutilated at the beginning. Presented by the Rev. A. C. Headlam.

Pap. CCCCXLIX. Fragments of a deed of gift, probably in Apollinopolis Magna. Only a small portion of the document is preserved, with portions of the signatures of witnesses. Early 7th cent. (?). Imperfect; in a rough cursive hand of fair size. Presented by the Rev. A. C. Headlam.

Pap. CCCCL. Receipt given by John, στίπτης (?) of the church of St. Maria, to John λευκογιώτης (i.e. dealer in white earth), for materials for painting. Dated the 20th Choiach [=16 Dec.] in the 3rd indiction. 6th or 7th cent. 3¾ in. × 4 in. Perfect; in a rough cursive hand.

Pap. CCCCLI. Receipt given by Ptolemæus and his colleagues, the elders of the village of Hera[cleia?], to Panephrumis, for 16 drachmas, paid for some purpose connected with the land. Dated in the 4th year of the emperor Lucius Septimius Severus Pertinax Augustus Pius [= A.D. 195–6]. 4½ in. × 5¼ in. Imperfect; in a very rough cursive hand.

Pap. CCCCLII. Copy of census-returns, dated in the 25th year of the emperor Marcus Aurelius [Severus Antoninus, = A.D. 216–217]; the returns relate to the census of the preceding year [A.D. 215–216]. Reference is apparently made to the preceding census, [in the 10th year of the emperors Lucius Septimius] Severus Pius Pertinax and Marcus [Aurelius Severus Antoninus, = A.D. 201–2]. 7½ in. × 5 in. Imperfect, wanting the left-hand portion; in a thin cursive hand.

Pap. CCCCLIII. Letter from Marcus —— (name lost) to Sabinus, on private affairs. 4th cent. 8 in. × 4 in. Complete, but somewhat defaced; in a rather large, rough cursive hand.

Pap. CCCCLIV. Fragments of documents of the 4th century:

(a) Beginning of a letter from Ammonius to Zakaon, καθαρουργός. 2¾ in. × 3 in.

(b) Beginning of a document, containing references to an Isidorus, son of Isidorus, and to the nome of Athribis. 4¼ in. × 3¼ in.

Pap. CCCCLV. Fragments of ecclesiastical writings. 6th cent. (?). 3 in. × 2¾ in. and 4½ in. × 7 in. Mutilated; in rough uncial hands; written on both sides.

Pap. CCCCLVI. Fragment of a receipt or deed of sale, containing the signatures of the parties. Late 6th or 7th cent. 3¾ in. × 3½ in. Imperfect; in a sloping cursive hand, the signatures in various irregular hands.

Pap. CCCCLVII. Fragments of miscellaneous documents. 6th or 7th cent. 4¼ in. × 6 in.; 8¾ in. × 6½ in.

Pap. CCCCLVIII. Fragments of miscellaneous documents. 6th or 7th cent. 1¾ in. × 3¼ in.; 4¼ in. × 5¾ in.; 4¾ in. × 6¾ in.; 4½ in. × 3 in.

mitam." f. 49 b;—(s) "Ordo ad patriarcham consecrandum uel archiepiscopum." f. 50; — (t) "Ordo degradacionis cuiuslibet clerici uel gradus." f. 51.

Vellum; ff. 53. Written in Italy, early in the xvth cent. Formerly bound in thick wooden boards (much worm-eaten) covered with leather. Small Quarto. From the Farnborough Fund.

Eg. 2,709. "LE CANARIEN": a History of the Conquest of the Canary Islands by "Gadifer de la Sale et Jehan de Bethencourt, cheualiers. nez du royaume de France," in 1402–1404, written by "Frere Pierre Boutier, Moyne de Saint Jouyn de Marnes, et Monsieur Jehan le Verrier, prebstres, chappellains et seruiteurs des cheualiers desus nommes."

The text differs widely from that of the printed editions, the first of which appeared at Paris, ed. P. Bergeron, in 1630. The latter text (B) is taken from a MS., said to be unique, written about 1482 and in the possession of descendants of Bethencourt (see the introductions to the editions of R. H. Major, London, 1872, and G. Gravier, Rouen, 1874). The main difference between the two MSS. is the greater prominence here given to Gadifer de la Sale, who in the B text is not named at all in the preface and is throughout made subordinate to Bethencourt, many of his actions and speeches, as here narrated, being assigned to the latter. The B text moreover, though generally fuller, omits the complaints here made of Bethencourt, more especially for his having begged the sovereignty of the Canaries from the king of Castile "sans faire mencion de son compaignon Gadifer" (f. 16 b), and for his neglect, when in Spain, to succour La Sale until his own return to the islands on 19 Apr. 1404, "enuiron deux ans apres quil nous deuoit auoir secouru de gens et de vitaillez" (f. 31 b). The present MS., amongst other matter, omits chapters lx., lxii. (ed. Gravier, pp. 103, 108), relating to disputes between Bethencourt and De la Sale. A leaf has been cut out after f. 32 (op. cit. p. 111); and the text ends at the bottom of f. 36 b with ch. lxxi. (p. 135), concluding the description of the islands. It is probable therefore that this MS., which is written generally in the first person and not, like the B text, in the third, represents the work in its original form (see preface), the remainder of the B text being written subsequently, when the work was recast more distinctly in Bethencourt's interest. That it was earlier than the B text receives support from the omission in the latter of a passage "Nous auons deux papez, dont nous tenons a lun et les Romains a lautre," etc. (f. 29 b), which refers to the fifty years' schism ended in 1429.

Vellum; ff. 36. With illuminated initials. At the beginning of the text (f. 2) is a nearly full-page miniature representing a ship crowded with armed men. The flags at the masthead and at the prow and stern, as well as two of the shields, bear the arms of La Sale, or La Salle, viz.: arg., three hurts in bend. The arms of Bethencourt do not appear; but there is a second flag at the stern, on which the arms in the first and fourth quarters have been erased. Circ. 1420–1430. Quarto.

hand has inserted a drawing of King Saul on the margin of f. 35 b. Belonged at the end of the 15th cent. to the nuns of Derby Priory (see f. 83 b). Quarto.

Eg. 2,711. Poems of Sir Thomas Wyat, the elder (1503–1541). As far as f. 65 b (two short holograph pieces on f. 54 b excepted) written by an amanuensis, but corrected by the author, who has also added his name "Tho" or "Wyat" in the margins (cf. Cott. MS. Vesp. F. xiii., f. 160 b). The remaining poems (ff. 66–101) are almost exclusively in Wyat's own hand, with frequent emendations, and are subscribed by a monogram, T. or T. V. All the pieces are classified by a number at the top, from 1 to 6, accompanied by the word "enter," perhaps with a view to publication. No. 6 includes the two letters "from him [Sir T. Wyat] out of Spayne to his son, then xiv yeres old," ff. 71, 72 b. These are said by Dr. Nott (see below) to be in the hand of Sir Thomas Wyat, the younger. At the end are:—(a) Moral sentences and aphorisms, in Latin, with translations; followed by metrical versions of the beginnings of Psalms i. and iv. Not, as Dr. Nott states, in Wyat's hand. f. 102 b;—(b) The Penitential Psalms, in six-line stanzas. In the hand (cf. Lansdowne MS. 82, f. 186) of Sir John Harington (ob. 1612). f. 104;—(c) Twelve epigrams, in French, the first beg. "Si la bonte se vouloit esmender." Erroneously said by Dr. Nott to be in Wyat's hand. f. 110.

After the volume passed into the hands of Sir John Harington, it was used as a rough note-book by members of the same family. Some of the leaves have been torn out; and the pages originally left blank, together with the margins of the rest and even the spaces between the lines of the poems, are more or less covered with miscellaneous matter. This was chiefly the doing of John Harington, Justice of the Peace and Chairman of Sessions in Somersetshire, many of his insertions being dated between 1635 and 1653. Besides abstracts of sermons, mathematical problems, business and literary memoranda, recipes, etc., he has entered (d) Notes for his charges at Sessions; n. d., July, 1640 ("held not at Taunton because of the Plague"), 11 Jan. 1641 [2]. ff. 75 b, 77 b, 79 b;—(e) Copy of the League and Covenant; 1643. f. 84;—(f) Correspondence between Sir T. Fairfax and Prince Rupert at the siege of Bristol; Sept. 1645. 13. "Consuetudines in festo apost. Petri et Pauli": list of customary payments in kind. f. 177.
14. "Hec sunt debita de quibus abbas de Burgo S. Petri debet acquietare vicecomitem Norhamtonie super compotum suum ad scaccarium"; with assarts, rents of assize, etc. f. 178 b.
15. "Magna carta" and "Carta de Foresta" of Henry III.; 1217. ff. 180 b, 190 b.

On f. 2 b is inscribed, in a 15th-cent. hand, "Liber cartarum et privilegiorum Johannis Trikyngham, prioris"; and a list of his books, including one with the same title, has been added on f. 1 b, in a hand of the 16th cent.

Vellum; ff. 199 (a few having been cut out in various places), measuring $3\frac{1}{2} \times 2\frac{3}{4}$ inches. Bound in wooden boards, covered with two layers of white doe-skin. On f. 1 b is the following inscription (see above) signed "W"[ingfield]: "Ex dono consanguinii mei nobilissimi Domini Fizwilliams de Milton," i.e. William Fitzwilliam of Milton, cr. Lord Fitzwilliam of Lifford, 1620, ob. 1644, whose great-aunt, Christian, married Sir Richard Wingfield. Duodecimo.

Eg. 2,734. "Police et Discipline Ecclesiastique observée es Eglises de la Langue Françoise recueillies en ce Roiaume d'Angleterre sous la protection de nostre Souverain Sire Charles (que Dieu conserve en toute heureuse prosperité), selon quelle a esté reveüe par le Sinode desdittes Eglises l'an MDCXLI." See an earlier form, adopted by the Walloon Church at Norwich in 1589, in Eg. 2,568, edited by Miss Lucy Toulmin Smith in The Norfolk Antiquarian Miscellany, vol. ii., 1883, p. 91. It differs in some particulars from the present copy, at the end of which (f. 14 b) is also added a "Formulaire pour l'abjuration de ceux quy quittent l'Eglize Romaine pour se joindre a notre Communion." After this (f. 16) "S'ensuivent les noms des Pasteurs et Anciens de cette Eglise, qui ont signé cette Discipline le xxii^e. d'Avril MDCLXVI, et de ceux qui la signeront ci apres." This list of signatures extends from 1666 to 1745, and proves the volume to have belonged to the French Church in Threadneedle Street, London (see the list of Ministers in J. S. Burn's Hist. of the . . . Foreign Protestant Refugees, etc., 1846, p. 34), now removed to St. Martin's Le Grand. Paper; ff. 23. Bound in vellum. Folio.

of Law in the University of Melbourne, who communicated a description of it to the Athenæum of 23 May, 1891. No other autograph copy of "The Pot of Basil" is extant, except a fragment containing a few stanzas only, from which it appears that the present copy is intermediate between the first draft and the final form in which it was printed. It contains three complete stanzas which were subsequently cancelled, and many minor variations. Some corrections (not autograph, but differing from the printed version and therefore probably taken from MS. copies) have been inserted in pencil on the blank pages facing the text. "The Eve of Saint Mark" is evidently the first draft of the poem, containing many cancelled lines and phrases, with the corrections which reduced it to the form in which it was published, after Keats' death, from a copy found among his papers by Lord Houghton. The copy of "Saint Agnes' Eve" is intermediate between the autograph copy in the possession of Mr. Locker-Lampson and the printed version. In the shorter poems the textual variations are less important. Paper; ff. 66. Bound in plain brown leather. Small Octavo. From the Farnborough Fund.

Eg. 2,781. Hours of the Virgin, etc., in Latin, containing: (1) Calendar, with numerous English saints. f. 2;—(2) Salutations of the Virgin. f. 9;—(3) Prayers for use on various occasions, with rubrics in French. Imperf. at end. f. 24;—(4) Narration, in French verse, how the Virgin taught Arnaud, a canon, a new prayer. Beg. "Un bon homme estoit en religioun, | Chanoun ert, arnaud out noun." Written in red ink. f. 28;—(5) "Missus est angelus," etc. f. 29 b;—(6) Commemoration of the Holy Cross. f. 35;—(7) Commemoration of St. Christopher. f. 36 b;—(8) Prayers to the Saviour. f. 37 b;—(9) Commemoration of St. Anne (partly in French). f. 42;—(10) Prayers to the Saviour, for the several canonical hours. f. 44;—(11) Hours of the Virgin (commemoration of Saints in Lauds, including, at f. 80 b, a "Memoria de pace"). f. 53;—(12) Litany of the Virgin, with rubric, "Si vous estes en mortel pecche dites ceste letanie de Marie." f. 101 b;—(13) Prayers "de sanctis virginibus Fide, Spe et Caritate," "de omnibus virginibus," "de omnibus sanctis," and on the Three Magi. f. 108;—(14) Penitential Psalms. Imperfect, beg. with Ps. vi. 9. f. 113;—(15) Litany. f. 125 b;—(16) Story of the Passion and Resurrection of Christ. Fr. Imperfect at beginning. f. 131. The first part (ff. 131–173) purports to be in the words of the Virgin, while the second part (ff. 173–189 b) refers to the Gospel of Nicodemus.

Vellum; ff. 190. xivth cent. Profusely ornamented with miniatures, figure-initials and illuminated borders, of English work. The execution is rather coarse, with a marked use of vermilion, but the subjects are interesting from their variety and mode of treatment. Among them are: (a) A table of the spheres. f. 1 b;—(b) Four scenes from the lives of Noah, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, two on a page. ff. 8, 8 b;—(c) Lives of Christ and the Virgin: 23 half-page miniatures. ff. 9 b–20;—(d) Miracles and tales of the Virgin: 11 figure-initials. ff. 21 b–29;—(e) Memorials of saints, etc.: 23 initials. ff. 71–112;—(f) The Passion, etc.: 36 initials. ff. 133 b–189;—(g) Two full-page miniatures of the Siege of Jerusalem by Titus. ff. 190, 190 b. In four places (ff. 35 b, 36 b, 37 b, 42) the owner of the MS. and his wife are apparently represented, but no clue to their identity is given. In modern binding of tooled morocco, the edges of the leaves much clipped, and gilded. With book-plate of arms of —— Dufresne. Small Octavo.

Eg. 2,782. "Expositio Haimonis in Isaiam prophetam." Agreeing with the printed edition (Migne, Patr. Lat., vol. cxvi., col. 715), except that it is here divided into two books only, instead of three. Vellum; ff. 125. xiith cent. With the inscription (14th cent.), "Haymo super Ysaiam de refectorio monachorum Sci. Edmundi [Bury St. Edmunds Abbey]. .H.i." Folio. From the Farnborough Fund.

Eg. 2,783. The Four Gospels, in Greek, with an extract from the χρονικὸν σύγγραμμα of Hippolytus Thebanus, the epistle to Carpianus, Eusebian canons, tables of κεφάλαια, ὑποθέσεις, and epigrams relating to each Gospel, τίτλοι, κεφάλαια, Ammonian sections, indications of lections, liturgical directions, and, at the end, synaxarion and menologium. Imperfect, wanting John xx. 17—xxi. 25. Vellum; ff. 335 + iv. xiith cent. With miniatures of the Evangelists and their emblems, much defaced, and ornamental headpieces in red. Bound in mouse-coloured stamped leather (18th cent.), having on the inside of each cover a portion of a 13th-cent. MS. of the Sententiæ of Petrus Lombardus, beg. at Lib. iv. Dist. 1 (Migne, vol. cxcii. 839). Belonged to James Woodhouse, Treasurer-General of the Ionian Islands (ob. 1866), forming no. 4 in his collection of MSS.; to the Very Rev. J. W. Burgon, Dean of Chichester (in 1875); and to the Rev. W. F. Rose. Described by Burgon in the Guardian, 19 July, 1882; collated by Rose. Numbered Evan. 563 by Scrivener, and 714 by Gregory. Small Octavo.

Eg. 2,784. The Four Gospels, in Greek, with tables of κεφάλαια [those to Matth. and John are wanting], τίτλοι, Eusebian canons [without table], Ammonian sections [232 in Mark], indications of lections, subscriptions at the end of each Gospel giving the number of ῥήματα and στίχοι in it, and beginning of synaxarion. The indications of lections are later additions, as also are the subscriptions, except in the case of Matth. Vellum; ff. 214 + v. XIIIth cent. With ornamental headpieces in red. In a modern morocco binding; but the former binding, in stamped leather of the 16th cent., is bound in (ff. iii.–v.). Bought in 1877 by the Very Rev. J. W. Burgon, Dean of Chichester, and given by him to the Rev. W. F. Rose. Described by Burgon [who notes peculiar readings in Mk. iii. 22, Lk. v. 26] in the Guardian, 19 July, 1882. Numbered as Evan. 565 by Scrivener, and 716 by Gregory. Octavo. From the Farnborough Fund.

Eg. 2,785. THE FOUR GOSPELS, in Greek, with synaxaria, menologium, tables of κεφάλαια, σχόλιον εἰς τὸν τίτλον ᾱ of Matth., τίτλοι and κεφάλαια, indications of lections, Ammonian sections (from f. 48 onwards), subscriptions stating number of ῥήματα and στίχοι, prologues to Mark, Luke, and John, partly from Chrysostom, Theodore of Mopsuestia, Cyril of Alexandria, and Cosmas Indicopleustes, partly from unknown (ἐξ ἀνεπιγράφου, f. 138 b) or unspecified sources, with epigrams in verse. At the end is a comment by Eulogius, Patriarch of Alexandria, on John xxi. 15 (cf. Migne, Patr. Græc., lxxxvi. 2901), and the διήγησις περὶ τῆς θείας τοῦ σωτῆρος ἡμῶν Χριστοῦ ἀναστάσεως of Hesychius, presbyter of Jerusalem [imperfect; cf. Migne, xc. 1452, but the beginning of the sermon differs from that there quoted]. Vellum; ff. 176 + iv. XIIIth cent. In double columns. With ornamental headpieces in red. On f. 8 is a cypher alphabet and a note in cypher which gives ανονιος εγω αδελφος λεοντιος. The note is of later date than the MS. On f. ii. is a note, addressed εἰς μνυμόσυνον (sic) πάντων τῶν ὀρθοδόξων χριστιανῶν, and dated 25 Aug. 1720. Belonged to James Woodhouse, forming no. 37 in his collection; subsequently [1875] to the Very Rev. J. W. Burgon, Dean of Chichester, and the Rev. W. F. Rose. Described by Burgon in the Guardian, 19 July, 1882, and collated by Rose. Numbered Evan. 564 by Scrivener, and 715 by Gregory. Quarto.

Eg. 2,786. EVANGELISTARIUM, or Lessons from the Four Gospels, in Greek. Imperfect, beginning in the gospel for the 5th day of the 5th week of John, and ending in the menology at the 6th January. Vellum; ff. 157+iii. XIVth cent. In two hands, the second beginning on f. 58. Partly palimpsest, ff. 55 to 157 being composed of leaves from at least four MSS. of the 12th cent., of which one (ff. 59, 60) is a lectionary, containing lections from Matth.; another (ff. 55, 64, 73, 80, 84, 85) is a MS. of St. Gregory Nazianzen, written in double columns, and containing portions of the "Orations" (among others, parts of Oratt. 37, 38, 45); a third (f. 132) is a MS. of the Septuagint version of the Old Testament, containing part of Dan. iii.; and the rest are from a theological work, most of which is wholly obliterated. Belonged to James Woodhouse (no. 28), then [1869–1876] to W. Bragge, of Sheffield, the Very Rev. J. W. Burgon, Dean of Chichester [in 1876], and the Rev. W. F. Rose. Described by Burgon in the Guardian, 2 Aug. 1882. Numbered as Evst. 255 by Scrivener, and as 346 by Gregory. Quarto.

Eg. 2,787. The Acts and Epistles, in Greek, with ὑποθέσεις, tables of κεφάλαια [both of these wanting in Acts], subscriptions, τίτλοι, κεφάλαια, and indications of lections. The order of contents is as follows:—Synaxarion, menologium and table of chants (f. 1), Acts (f. 11), Romans (f. 70 b), 1 Cor. (f. 94), 2 Cor. (f. 117 b), Gal. (f. 134), Eph. (f. 143 b), Phil. (f. 154 b), Col. (f. 161), 1 Thess. (f. 168), 2 Thess. (f. 174), 1 Tim. (f. 177 b), 2 Tim.
