On the Road

At last, I took two road trips for work. Nancy Zieman Sewing Studio needed SCHMETZ displays delivered and set up for the new store in Beaver Dam, Wisconsin. Two weeks later, I returned for the store grand opening and to celebrate the ribbon cutting of the stunning 12 ft x 12 ft Nancy Zieman mosaic. My sewing buddies, Rita Farro, Mary Mulari, and Deanna Springer were there along with many former Nancy Notions employees, customers, and fans from near and far. The two days were joyous as many attendees told fond stories about the impact Nancy made on their sewing life. Get a glimpse of Nancy's mosaic in the new issue of SCHMETZ Inspired to SEW #95, linked below. I also posted a few favorite pics on my personal blog: Nancy Zieman Sewing Studio Grand Opening (sewmorestitches.com)

SCHMETZ Inspired to Sew

#95

Sewing is different things to different people. For some of us, it is a necessary life skill. For others, it's a fulfilling hobby. What is sewing to your life? Is it your main business? A side-hustle? Or, is it your creative outlet? Is sewing how you express yourself? Or is it your calming, relaxing Zen activity? Whether you sew to make money, or to unwind and relax, we all have our favorite sewing equipment.
