Thank you for purchasing a Honey-Can-Do Storage Closet!

Please follow these step by step instructions carefully. Plan to spend about 35 minutes assembling your new closet. For assistance, please contact us at info@honeycando.com or 877.2.i.Can.Do. Your closet will hold up to 50lbs when hangers are evenly distributed across the unit.

ASSEMBLY

LOWER FRAME ASSEMBLY

Note: all of the poles will need to be firmly seated into the plastic support pieces. DO NOT ROCK or TIP poles back and forth. Only push with firm even pressure straight into plastic support pieces.

Please follow steps in the order listed. You will be working from your left to right.

Lower Frame Assembly

1. Insert the end of 2 support bars (E) into left side support (A).
2. Take one middle support (B) and slide it on to the other end of side supports (E) from step one.
3. Insert the narrow end of 2 tapered support bars (C) into the exposed ends of support bars (E) from step 1.
4. Place another side support (A) onto exposed ends of tapered support bars (C) from step 3.
5. Insert 6 uprights (D) into the tops of the side and middle supports (A & B).

ASSEMBLY

PLACE COVER ON LOWER FRAME

Please note: that this lower frame will be on the outside of the cover while the rest of the unit will be inside the cover.

1. Unzip the cover (F) all the way and carefully feed the lower frame uprights (D) through the holes (they are small slits) in the bottom of the cover. You must continue working inside the cover while you finish constructing the rest of the closet.

ASSEMBLY

WORKING INSIDE

Working inside the cover continue by building the middle frame on top of the lower frame. Let the cover rise above the base unit 10-15 inches so that you have room to maneuver when working inside the cover.

ASSEMBLY

MIDDLE FRAME ASSEMBLY

what you should have so far...

Middle Frame Assembly

Working inside the cover
