Device Registration - TSI Link™ Software or Data Service Subscription

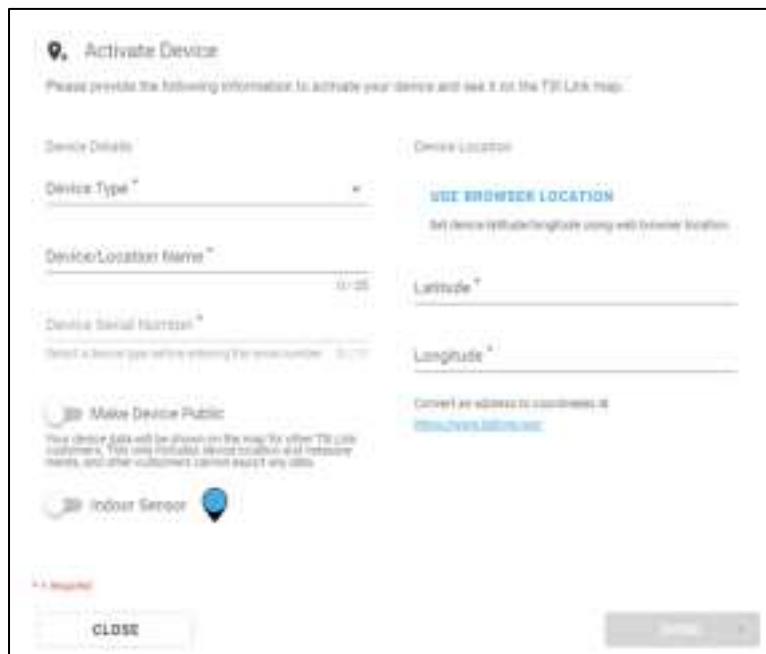

In order to use your device, you will need to register the device(s) to TSI Link™ account with software or API data services paid software subscription (click here).

For TSI Link™ Software Subscription Only

1. Login to TSILINK.com and go to the <https://www.tsilink.com/home> menu (aka, map).

2. Click on Add Device icon  at the bottom right of the screen.
3. Enter all required information and click DONE.

A screenshot of the 'Activate Device' form in the TSI Link application. The form is titled 'Activate Device' and includes a sub-header 'Please provide the following information to activate your device and see it on the TSI Link map.' The form is divided into two main sections: 'Device Details' and 'Device Location'. The 'Device Details' section includes fields for 'Device Type', 'Device Location Name', and 'Device Serial Number'. The 'Device Location' section includes a 'USE BROWSER LOCATION' button, 'Latitude', and 'Longitude' fields. There are also checkboxes for 'Make Device Public' and 'Indoor Sensor'. A 'CLOSE' button is located at the bottom left of the form.

4. Adjust the device location if needed.

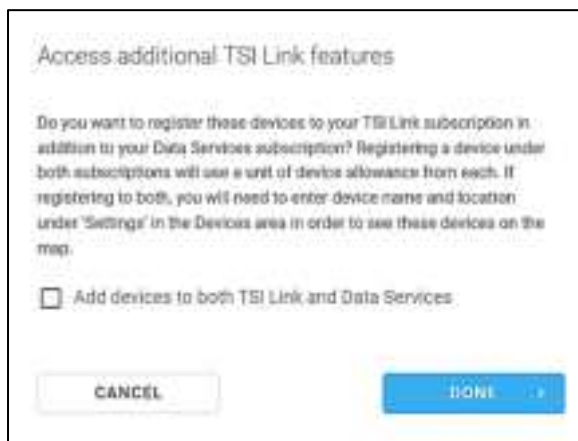

For API Data Service Subscription Only or API Data Services and TSI Link™ Software Subscription

1. Login to TSILINK.com and go to the <https://tsilink.com/api-services> menu.
2. Enter your device serial number. If you have more than one device, use a comma between serial numbers.
 - Click Submit.

The screenshot shows the TSI LINK web application. The header includes the TSI LINK logo and a navigation menu. The main content area is titled 'Secret' and contains a 'NEW SECRET' button. Below this is a 'Register Devices' section with a text input field for device serial numbers. The input field contains the example text: 'e.g. 81441234100, 81441234101, 81441234102'. A note below the input field states: 'Devices registered to TSI Link subscription will be added to Data Services, using a unit of device allowance for each.'

3. You will receive a message asking if you want to register for both TSI Link™ (aka, software) and Data Services subscriptions. Check the box according to what subscription you have.
 - Click DONE.

The screenshot shows a confirmation dialog box titled 'Access additional TSI Link features'. The text inside asks: 'Do you want to register these devices to your TSI Link subscription in addition to your Data Services subscription? Registering a device under both subscriptions will use a unit of device allowance from each. If registering to both, you will need to enter device name and location under "Settings" in the Devices area in order to see these devices on the map.' Below the text is a checkbox labeled 'Add devices to both TSI Link and Data Services'. At the bottom are two buttons: 'CANCEL' and 'DONE'.
