The diagram illustrates the correct use of the Eco mode. It begins with a hand pressing the 'Eco' button, which is highlighted with a green star. This leads to a sequence of three panels: 1. An iron is shown with steam coming out, and a green starburst indicates the correct steam setting. 2. The iron is shown with steam coming out, and a green starburst indicates the correct steam setting. 3. The iron is shown with steam coming out, and a green starburst indicates the correct steam setting. The sequence ends with a hand pressing the 'Eco' button, which is highlighted with a green star.
