INTRODUCTION

Running in the dark is a No-Go. You could be an unintentional target for a distracted driver. Distract them yourself and make sure they stay far away from you with these light up bands. Put them on your ankles, your bicep , or maybe just dangle it off of you if you dont like wearing something like that. Either way - be safe

PACKAGE CONTENTS

2x Safety Arm Bands

HOW TO USE

- 1) Open Package contents and make sure you have both arm bands and that they are undamaged.
- 2) Remove the pastic piece that is stopping the power from energizing band by pulling it out gently
- 3)Next youre going to strap the band to your desired location, wherever that might be
- 4) Pull tight so it doesnt fall off and make the two velcro pieces hug so they stick together.
