POE Power Supply – STANDARD

Please note that not all R5020 and R2110 routers support Passive PoE on the ETH0 port

Before connecting PoE to your router, please check specification of your model. Connecting Pot to model that's not supporting Pot can damage your router.

For power supply, you can use any (Gigabit for R2110, EG5120, R5020, R5020 Lite) Passive PoE power supply with a voltage of 9-60V [9-36V in the case of R2110, R5020, R5020 Lite routers). You can use, for example, a power supply from our offer: QuPSU P248 [or for Gigabit speed: QuPSU GP241)

Please note that the Passive PoE power supply is not included.
