A screenshot of the user login interface. It consists of a light gray box containing two input fields. The first field is labeled 'User Name' with a person icon and contains the text 'admin'. The second field is labeled 'Password' with a key icon and contains five dots. Below these fields is a blue button with the text 'LOGIN' in white capital letters.

STEP-3:

Click Management->Administrator Setting on the navigation bar on the left. In this interface, you can change the password after entering the old password. The default user name and password is admin.

The screenshot shows the 'Administrator Setting' page. On the left is a navigation menu with items: System Status, Operation Mode, Network, Wireless, QoS, Firewall, Management, and its sub-items: Administrator Setting, Time Setting, DDNS, Remote Management, UPnP, Upgrade Firmware, System Configuration, System Log, Reboot Schedule, Wireless Schedule, and Logout. The 'Management' item is highlighted with a red box and a red circle with the number '1'. The 'Administrator Setting' sub-item is also highlighted with a red box and a red circle with the number '2'. The main content area is titled 'Administrator Setting' and has a subtitle 'This page is used to set the Password to management the web server of device.' It contains three input fields: 'Original Password' (with masked dots), 'New Password', and 'Confirm Password'. The 'Original Password' field is highlighted with a red box and a red circle with the number '3'. The 'New Password' and 'Confirm Password' fields are grouped with a red box and a red circle with the number '4'. Each of these two fields has a checkmark icon to its right. At the bottom right of the form is an 'Apply' button, which is highlighted with a red box and a red circle with the number '5'.
